

The book is written... Much said since... Some pages, filled with facts, can serve to read.

What's left? Why, this To learn the lessons which are given therein.

The End, we say, Nay—who would greatly do, must greatly dare. Must think Alway.

Whatever's done, then, yet to do. There is no end—

Each end's a new beginning. Old and New? Strong souls will blend

Both in this one cry, "Onward"—Knowing naught

Of end, save this, Still on, and on, as was said or thought.

Or done since? Yesterday failed? Then make today succeed! Or, to-day

Has crowned thee? Then to-morrow's nobler deed? ('Tis like it may)

Uncrown thee—aim so high that needs must fall!

Then, Old Years past, In a New Year, to come shalt thou prevail, Recrowned at last!

A Christmas Spectacle in a Race

The second round of heats in the 130-yard, 15 yards limit, handicap, promoted by the Item, were run off at Pastime park, Philadelphia, on Monday afternoon in the presence of a thousand men and boys. Two of the most celebrated sprinters in the country, H. M. Johnson, of Pittsburgh, and M. J. Slattery, of Boston, were in the first heat. Johnson won over Slattery by three-fourths of a yard. J. Sherry, of Philadelphia, ran first in the second heat and S. J. Farrell and Walter Campbell were tied for second place. W. T. Caldwell, of Christiana, Pa., won the third heat with Jim Wheel, the colored sprinter, second. In the fourth heat G. White, of Germantown, finished first and J. Jamison second. The final heat was won by O. White by two yards, H. M. Johnson second, W. T. Caldwell third and J. Sheridan last. The $500 purse was divided, $400 to the first, $50 to the second, $30 to the third and $20 to the fourth man. Fred Rogers was referee and George Turner handicapper and starter.

A Bird in Hand

From the play of the same name.

As a contributor to a merry Christmas, the American turkey has few rivals. It roosts lower and is generally more practical than the American geese.

Thomas Carlyle

The great Scotch author, suffered all his life with dyspepsia which made it even his wife and caused his best and truest friends to look at him with pain because of his fretfulness. Dyspepsia usually results from disease of the liver, and Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" cures all diseases of the liver, and it follows that while all cannot be cured, many with dyspepsia, all can be free from the misery, while eliminating his system.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

WE SUBMIT FACTS

In regard to Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism, and ask you if you are afflicted with this disease to try the medicine which has so greatly benefited others. Hundreds of people who suffered the tortures of rheumatism, even in its severest form, have been positively cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. It corrects the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and gives strength and vigor to every part of the body.

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla last spring, and can truly say it helped me very much. To those suffering with bilious complaints, nervous prostration or rheumatism, I earnestly recommend it."—MRS. E. CAMPBELL, Kalamazoo, Mich.

"Some twenty years ago I had my right ankle dislocated, and it has been weak ever since. About ten years ago I was exposed to severe cold and came near freezing. Since then I have been troubled with rheumatism, affecting my most in the right ankle. I suffered severely during last winter, and tried Hood's Sarsaparilla as a help. It gave me almost immediate relief, and I keep it constantly ready for use. If it does as well for others as it has done for me, it is worth many times its cost."—L. T. HUNT, Kenton, Ohio.
