The Lancaster Intelligencer

Lancaster, January 1, 1887.

Lending the Surplus

It is said that Congressman Scott, of this state, intends to introduce into Congress a bill to provide for the loaning of the surplus monies in the treasury to the banks.

The Coal Pool

Attorney General Cassidy has found out from Mr. Harris, secretary of the anthracite coal pool, that there was an allotment of production to each company and a penalty of fifty cents a ton to be paid upon all coal marketed over the allotment.

The Dead of 1886

The history of the past year as chronicled in the daily press shows that death has had a fine harvest, and that the yield has been largest in America.

THE MARRIAGE MARKET.

THE CLERK OF THE COURT ISSUED THE LICENSE FOR THE YEAR 1887.

I have been a close observer of the marriage columns of the Philadelphia papers during the past year, and a bachelor member of the Lancaster bar to a representative of the Intelligencer on Friday.

Some Peculiar Applications

The first applicant on January 1, 1887, was a widower of 45, and he took for his life partner a maiden lady of 45.

PLEASE DATE IT EARLY

The clerk reports many funny incidents in connection with the issuing of licenses. A few weeks ago a young man applied for a license.

PERSONAL

Mr. Frank Durgen, who works at Madden's Harness Shop, 127 Exchange street, said today that he had been married.

Green Road

When Cashier Adolph Voight died he was the sole possessor of the combination of the lock to the inner compartment of the Wilkes-Barre Savings Bank.

A Possibility

Should a Bachelor's Tax bill pass, what would happen then? The men—they'd cry "Amen!"

Col. Sam Hunter of Situation.

From the Wilkes-Barre Record. The writer of the following letter was Col. Samuel Hunter, of Northumberland county.

SIR: As I came to Lancaster I was informed that your county was in for want of Ammunition, and that you had applied to a Committee of Lancaster County for three hundred lbs of Gun Powder and nine hundred lbs of Lead.

Seeing Your Way Clear

From the Philadelphia Record. In your want to see your way clear in the new year, no man's legs do it by looking through a glass with whisky in it.

FAREWELL, OLD YEAR

Ring out, wild bells, do the wild sky, The ring cloud, the frosty light, The year is dying in the night.

A LITTLE LEAVEN ENLIGHTEN THE WHOLE LUMP

A disease in one part of the body will prevent daily all the whole body with disease. Every part of two some part of the system grows weak and begins to decay.

MIRACLES OF CURE

IVORY SOAP

The average silver polish is a strong chemical compound, that will, in a short time, destroy the finish of every article of metal upon which it is used.

A WORD OF WARNING

There are many white soaps, each represented to be just as good as the "Ivory," they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeiters, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine.
