TRE TOO FA

The north wind is blowing, my love, my dove, It is splendid to bogganing weather; so let us be going, my dove, my love.
And slide and to boggan together.
Oh, hasten my periess one, off let us log,
And dash down the slide on my little tobog. Dash down on my little toboggan.

[They saily forth and reach the Siide.] At last off we're whizzing, my love, my dove, And down the steep silds we are dashing; Hear the air pass us fizzing, my dove, my love, As on we go slashing and crashing.

We're nearing the bottom | aha | we are there-But where's my toboggan, and where are you

Where's my love and my little toboggan ? |Emerges from Snow Heap and gazes wildly What can have occurred, my love, my dove,

With something I must have collided I must have been flurried, my dove, my love, — And must have unskillfully guided My vehicle made from the bark of a log. My little toboggan, my little tobog— But where the deuce is my toboggan:

Ah! now I espy you, my love, my dove, But who in the mischief's that feller Who walks so close by you, my dove, my love! It's that brute of a clerk—that toller. ht: woe me unhappy: now homeward I'm jog. for my love I have lost, and my little tobog; Tes, all smashed is my little toboggan. WORLD.

Young tellows give ear; ere you go to the slide With your girl, 'earn to steer, for a duffer No lady can care for, and if you can't guide Your tobeggan, you'll certainly suffer.

As my here above, whose unaklifulness cost. Him the loss of his girl, and beside her he lost-He lost, ah his little toboggan.

Sick and billous headache, and all derangements of atomach and bowels cured by Dr. Pierce's "Fellets"—or anti-billous granules. Been a vial. No cheap boxes to allow waste of virtues, By druggists. M.Th&w

The Same Human Nature. The Same Ruman Nature.

Many vain attempts are made to repeat the remarkable success of Benson's Unpeine Plaster. This splendid remedy is known, sold and used everywhere, and its prompt action and unrivalled curative powers have won for it hosts of friends. Imitations have sprung up under similar sounding names, such as "Capsicin," "Capsicum," etc., intended to deceive the careless and unwary. These articles possess none of the virtues of the genuine. Therefore we hope the people will assist us to protect what are at once their interests and curs. Ask for Benson's Plaster, and examine what is given you, and make sure that the world "Capcine" is cut in the middle of the plaster itself, and the "Three Seais" trademark is on the face cioth. Any reputable dealer will show you the safe guards without hesitation: If you cannot remember the name—Benson's Capcine Plaster—cut this paragraph from the paper.

The Only Way to Co It is perfectly preposterous to introduce pep-sin and other artificial solvents into the stomach, getten by acting on the food itself. They will not Nor is it possible thus to overcome dysin the expectation that they will assist dinot. Nor is it possible thus to overcome dys-pepsia. The only way to conquer that disorder, and prevent the numerous diseases and disabilities which it assuredly provokes, is to renew the activity of gastric action by strengthening the activity of gastric action by strengthening the atomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters cradicates the most inveletate forms of indigestion by restoring vitality to the alimentary organs, and those which are tributary to them. The liver, the bowels, the kidneys and the cerves, no less than the stomach, experience the invigorative effects of that shandard tonic, which possesses alterative properties that greatly enhance its beneficial influence, and give a permanence to its effects which they would not otherwise possess.

You Have a Perfect Right, hen you demand a Benson's Capcine Plaster of a druggist, to expect to receive one. Yet there are, we regret to say, a few druggists of the Cheap John variety who will try to per-suade you to accept some worthless substitute with a similar sounding name, such as "Capsiwith a similar sounding name, such as "Capsicin," "Capsicium," "Capuciu," "Capsicine," etc., prefixed sometimes with the name "Burton" or "Benton." Cheap John will offer you one of those wretched imitations for half the price of the genuine, as he can well afford to do, its real value being bothing, and its cost but ittle more. Benson's are the only porous plasters that can be depended upon to cure every aliment subject to external treatment. They are prompt, sure and thorough. Protect your self against deception by buying it reflable druggists only. The genuine hears the "Three Seals" trade-mark and has the word "Capcine" cut in the centre.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

WE SUBMIT FACTS

In regard to Hood's Sarsapartilla as a remedy for rheumatism, and sak you if you are afflicted with this disease to try the medicine which has so greatly benefited others. Hundreds of people who suffered the tortures of rheumatism, even in who suffered the tortures of rhounalism, even in its severest forms, have been perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. It corrects the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and gives strength and vigor to every part of the body.

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla last spring, and can truly say it belied me very much. To those suffering with billious complaints, nervous prostration or rheumatism, I carnestly recommend it." MRS. E. CARPENTER Kaiamszoo, Mich.
"Some twenty very sep of had my right ankie."

"Some twenty years ago I had my right ankie dislocated, and It has been weak ever since. About ten years ago I was exposed to severe cold and came near freezing. Since then I have often been troubled with rheumatism, affecting memoria in the right ankie. I surfered severally during last winter, and tried Hood's Sarsapa-rilla as a help. It gave me almost immediate re-Hef, and I keep it constantly ready for use. If it does as well for others as it has done for me, it is worth many times its cost." L. T. HUNT, Kenton, Ohio.

HIGH & MARTIN.

A Happy New Year to All.

We take this opportunity at the opening of the New Year to express our thanks to our many friends for so liberal share of their patronage during the past year, and especially for that during the late Holiday Season. Our effort in bringing new articles as they appear in the market to Lancaster has been appreciated, and it will serve as a stimulus in the future. We shall endeavor during the year we have just entered to follow up that same line of policy and give to the people of Lancaster, as far as possible, the same privilege as those enjoyed in larger cities. All new wares shall find room on our shelves, and through them into the Lancaster city and county homes. Our prices shall always be as low as possible, quality being considered. A hearty invitation is extended to all to visit our store, whether purchasing or simply looking shall receive the same courteous attention.

Our motto shall be, "Fair and honest dealing with all."

AT BURSK'S. OUT OF THREE TONS

WHITE GRAPES We have left three-quarters of a ton which very cheap at ice. pound, and 2 pounds for for the best.

WHITE GRAPES are refreshing, and at these prices are within the reach of everyone FOE THE NEW YEAR DINNER TABLE.

Try our FINE FRESH CORN or our Unrivalied Evaporated Sugar Corn. Our Pride of Main, or Dew Drop, or Paris are very superior brands.

Our EVAPORATED SUGAR CORN we think the reach! has no equal.

Fine Table Peaches, also Fine California
Canned Fruit, etc.,
