

Who Was a Hard Hitter—A Professor of Boxing Whom He Knocked Out. Charley Collins, the ex-prize fighter and boxing teacher, of Washington, was asked if General Logan was as clever with his hands as he has been reported. Collins replied: "He was the best two handed man I ever saw in my life, amateur or professional," said the professor emphatically.

"It was a natural born fighter," he continued. "I never saw his like. He was a powerful fighter. I never thought he would die so easily. I was with him up to within a few feet of the ropes. I thought that his wonderful physique would pull him through."

"It has been said that the general was such a good fighter that he was occasionally knocked you out. How is that?" asked the reporter. "That's the truth," acknowledged the professor. "He knocked me out once with a big arm chair that he had in his room. It was a terrible blow. I gave him two black eyes at the same time, and he carried them until he got to the Senate. Senator Oglesby was a spectator of the bout, and when it grew warm he tried to stop it. He couldn't, though. The general slipped it himself. He certainly hit me hard. The stories about his agility and strength have not been exaggerated in the least."

A Distressing Situation. From the Boston Record. A Bostonian visiting Washington recently went to the capitol, and thinking it would be comfortable in the gallery approached to be accompanied by gentlemen, appeared at the entrance and was stopped by the door-keeper. "No gentleman are admitted here except with tickets," he said. "The old gentleman (for he was a Bostonian of mature age, as well as blue blood) was equal to the emergency. "But my wife is here."

On entering he discovered, to his dismay, that the only person present was a well-dressed colored woman. On coming out the door-keeper civilly inquired: "Did you find your wife?"

A Foe of Bachelors. That foe of bachelors, the Parisian journalist, Henri Fouquier, has just added a highly original clause to his programme for the encouragement of wedlock. M. Fouquier is a prominent advocate for the taxation of bachelors. But he thinks that this negative incentive to holy matrimony should be supplemented by an inducement emphatically positive. The father of a family, according to M. Fouquier's project, is to be allowed an additional vote, or at least an additional fraction of a vote, for each additional legitimate son or daughter presented to him by his wife. The same privilege, according to this lively publicist, unless it is firmly grounded upon that equally necessary and equally divine social organism—the family.

How Cigars May Be Retined. From the Reading Eagle. It is said that when a cigar-maker gets right malicious and desires to do his employer great damage he goes to work on the best brand and then puts a single hair from his head in each cigar. This trick is exceedingly difficult to detect, and will destroy the flavor of every cigar it is applied to with a far-reaching injury to the reputation of the brand.

Life seems hardly worth the living to day to many a tired, unhappy discouraged woman who is suffering from chronic female weakness for which she has been able to find no relief. But there is a certain cure for all the painful complaints to which the weaker sex is subjected. Refer to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to the virtues of which thousands of women can testify. As a tonic and nerve tonic it is unequalled. All druggists.

The Only Way to Conquer Dyspepsia. It is perfectly proper to introduce peptic and other artificial stimulants into the stomach, in the expectation that they will assist digestion by acting on the food itself. They will not. Nor is it possible thus to overcome dyspepsia. The only way to cure this disorder, and prevent the numerous diseases and disabilities which it assuredly provokes, is to renew the activity of gastric action by strengthening the stomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters eradicates the most inveterate forms of indigestion by restoring vitality to the alimentary organs, and those which are tributary to them, the liver, the bowels, the kidneys and the nerves, no less than the stomach, experience the invigorative effects of that standard tonic, which possesses alternative properties that greatly enhance its beneficial influence, and it is permanent to its effects which they would not otherwise possess.

You Have a Perfect Right. When you demand a Benson's Capsine Plaster of a druggist, to expect to receive one. Yet there are, we regret to say, a few druggists of the cheap kind who will try to persuade you to accept some worthless substitute with a similar sounding name, such as "Capsin," "Capicum," "Capelin," "Capelin," etc., and sometimes with the name "Benson's" or "Benson's." These cheap imitations are of these wretched imitations for half the price of the genuine, and its cost but the merit of the genuine. It is a good idea to get that can be depended upon to cure every ailment subject to external treatment. They are prompt, sure and thorough. Protect yourself against deception by buying reliable druggists only. The genuine bears the "Three Seals" trade-mark and has the word "Capsine" cut in the center.

The Same Human Nature. Many vain attempts are made to repeat the remarkable success of Benson's Capsine Plaster. This splendid remedy is known, sold and used every where, and its prompt action and unrivaled curative powers have won for it the love of friends. Imitations have sprung up under similar sounding names, such as "Capsin," "Capicum," etc., intended to deceive the careless and unwary. These articles possess none of the virtues of the genuine. We hope the people will assist us to protect what are at once their interests and ours. Ask for Benson's in the middle of the master brand, and you, and make sure that the word "Capsine" is cut in the middle of the master brand. The "Three Seals" trade-mark is on the face of each. Any reputable dealer will show you the safe goods without hesitation. If you cannot remember the name—Benson's Capsine Plaster—cut this paragraph from the paper.

MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARAPARILLA. Out of the Fire. Tormented with Salt Rheum—Cured by Hood's Saraparilla. Only those who have suffered from salt rheum in the worst form, can know the agonies caused by this dreadful disease. Hood's Saraparilla has had remarkable success in curing salt rheum, as well as all affections of the blood.

"I owe the same gratitude to Hood's Saraparilla that one would to his rescuer from a burning building." I was tormented with salt rheum, and had to leave off work altogether. My face, about the eyes, would be swollen and scabbed, my hands and a part of my body would be raw sores for weeks at a time, my flesh would seem so rotted that I could roll pieces from between my fingers as large as a pea. One physician called it TYPE POISON.

and gave me medicine accordingly; but salt rheum cannot be cured in that way. I assure you I finally thought of a bottle of Hood's Saraparilla, and bought so much that I took a second and third bottle, and was entirely cured. I have not been troubled with salt rheum since. I also used Hood's Olive Ointment on the places affected. It stops the burning and itching sensation immediately. I will recommend Hood's Saraparilla not only for salt rheum, but for humors of all kinds, and it is especially beneficial in nervous and feeble men, and in all debilitated conditions, as well as often experienced by everyone." A. D. Roberts, Hager Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

I have found it especially beneficial in nervous or physical exhaustion, and in all debilitating ailments that bear so heavily on the system. Use it freely in my own family." Mr. W. F. Snow, 517 Main Street, Covington, N.Y., writes: "I was completely broken down in health and troubled with pains in my back. Brown's Iron Bitters entirely restored me to health."

MISS LIZZIE BRANNA, 324 Cooke Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I suffered with spinal weakness, pains in my back and sleepless nights. I tried every conceivable remedy without much benefit. Four bottles of Brown's Iron Bitters have relieved me, and I cheerfully recommend it." The genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Made only by BROWN & CHEMIST, Baltimore, Md.

MACHINERY, &c. Depend Upon It. Mother Shipton's prophesies and Louis' own assertions are very uncertain things, but Thomas' Electric Oil can be depended upon always. It cures all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, and all other pains of every description. For sale by H. B. Cochrane, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster. First Rate Evidence. "Often unable to attend business, being subject to serious disorder of the kidney. After a long sleep of sickness tried Burdock Blood Bitters and was relieved by last a bottle." Mr. B. Turner, of Rochester, N. Y., takes the pains to write. For sale by H. B. Cochrane, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster. How Much Will It Do? How much of Thomas' Electric Oil is required to cure? Only a very little. A few drops will cure any kind of an ache, and but a little more is needed for sprains and lameness. Cochrane, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster. "Don't Hurry, Gentlemen." Said a man on his way to be hanged, "I wish to tell you I regret to say, that I am nervous, and debilitated, don't hurry thoughtfully for some time. I have a certain relief, when you can get at the druggists for one dollar Burdock Blood Bitters, and set to cure and certain relief." For sale by H. B. Cochrane, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster. A Newspaper Editor. O. M. Holcomb, Ohio, writes to explain "Had that terrible disease catarrh, for twenty years; couldn't taste or smell, and hearing was failing. Thomas' Electric Oil cured me. These are facts voluntarily given against a former prejudice of patient indifference." For sale by H. B. Cochrane, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster. The best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will, by its own action, reach all the remote sources and eliminate the cause. Thomas' Electric Oil efforts to treat catarrh during the past few years completely met that condition, and that is why it is so successful. This safe and pleasant remedy has cured many cases of nasal catarrh, and is over done, and both physicians and patients are quick to testify to its success.
