The Hanging Fashion.
Wilson, who is hanged at Norris-town for a murder which he confesses, has preserved to the last the unusual demeanor which satisfies many persons that he is of unsound mind.

GOVERNOR PIERCE, of Dakota, gets very much excited in discussing the admission of Dakota as a state in his message to the legislature. He says: "We have seen people fighting to get out of the Union amid the protests of the national government."

THE MANUFACTURERS' RECORD, which has made a specialty of statistics with regard to Southern industrial development, has just announced the birth of several great enterprises. First and greatest is the sale of the property of the Woodstock Iron and Steel company and the Anderson Land and Improvement company of Anderson, Alabama.

Electric Light Dangers.
The coroner's inquest on the victims of the Temple theatre fire, Philadelphia, has brought out prominently several startling facts with regard to the danger of fire from electric light wires.

These facts will be a revelation to most of the users of the electric light, and it seems remarkable that wide publicity was not given to them long ago.

Inspector McDevitt deserves the thanks of all light-users for his clear and startling exposition.
The Expected War.
A great many people think that the early spring will open the European armies set in battle array.

By the Waters of Paradise.
BY F. MARION CHAFFORD.
Author of "Mr. Isaacs," "Dr. Claudius," "Ac. 111."
I recollect the detail of introduction in those days when I was a boy.

"I am Lord Carnarvon," I observed.
"By your means," answered the ambassador, "I have been able to see you."

"I beg your pardon, but then is your name Lady Bluebell?" I did not quite understand.
"Isn't it?" she asked, smiling.

"I have a very beautiful picture," said the artist, "and I would like to see it."
"Very much obliged to you," said the artist, "and I would like to see it."

A French Burglar Sentenced to Death.
PARIS, Jan. 12.—In the assizes yesterday a prisoner named Duval, a desperate burglar and incendiary, was sentenced to death.

Heartless Cruelty.
It is to delude a poor sufferer into the belief that some worthless remedy will cure rheumatism and neuralgia. Honestly the best policy in the manufacture of proprietary articles in all other matters, and the fact that the proprietors of Athliphoros have never obtained for it even all the merits would warrant has not a little to do with its wonderful popularity.

Every druggist should keep Athliphoros and Athliphoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athliphoros Co., No. 25 West Broadway, New York, will send either (on receipt of receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athliphoros and $0.75 for Pills).

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.
You are constantly exposed to danger from Croup, Whooping Cough, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such ailments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best remedy.
