COLONAL MONRY ASTONISHED.

A Letter From Gen. Pleasanton Indicating That He Could Se Bribed.

Washington Dispatch to Baltimore Sun. Col. John S. Mosby, who is getting up a volume of war to miniscences, was at the war department tooking over the military archives, when he was rather startled to con upon the following correspondence:

upon the following correspondence:
Headquarters Cavairy Corps, June 12, 1863.—(10) General R. Ingais, chief quartermaster: Your dispatch received. Ask the general how much of a bribe he can stand to get Mosby's services. There is a chance for him, and just now he could do valuable service in the way of information as well as humbugging the enemy. There is no news. The robels are like that boy the president tells about, who stumped boy the president tells about, who stumped his too and was too big to cry. Birney is up. A. PLEASONTON, Brig. Gen.

"Heniquarters Army of Potomac, June 12, 1263 — To General Pleasonton: If you think your scheme can succeed in regard to Mosby, do not hesitate as to the matter of money. Use your own judgment and do precisely what you think best for the public interest. Rurus Indals, Brig. Gen."
The date of Picasonton's letter is just three days after the cavalry combat with Stuart at Brandy station and at the time Lee, who was en route for the invasion of Pennsylvanis was confronting Hooker at Culpeper Mosby was operating in the rear of Hooker's army, and threatening his line of communication with Washington. Two days before Mosby had made a successful raid into Maryland. Colonel Mosby says that no proposition, either directly or indirectly, ever came to him from Piessenton, or ony one else, to betray the cause and at no period of his military career was he more active, or caused more damage to the Union cause, than in the months of June and July, 1863. Naturally Col. Mosby is somewhat worked up over this disclosure, and as he is not the man to rest under an imputation which would send him down to history as a second Benedict Arneld, he will, it is understood, call upon Gen. Pleasonton for a statement of the rea-

The Author of " The Breadwinners. A literary man says: " I have surely disovered the author of 'The Breadwinners.' It is John Hay, as has been asserted . You remember the peculiar name of Offit in the book. Well, a man of that name appears in the early chapters of the life of Lincoin which Hay and Nicolay are publishing in the Con-I mentioned the coincidence to one of the assistant editors of the magazine, and he admitted, on being pressed hard, that John Hay wrote the much-talked about novel."

Tobogganing might be defined as an instantaneous sensation followed by a long walk

This age presents the greatest boon, Salvation Oil; it cures so soon.

When Christmas came with its good cheer, its fun, and its merry making, we used to deprecate its coids, but that was long ago, before the days of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Now it is very different. A new era dawned on us, and great and small, little and tall, merry men all, are happy.

A Chance for Health is afforded those fast sinking into a condition of hopeless debility. The means are at hand. In the form of a gental medicinal cordial, Bostet-ter's Stomach Bitters embedies the combined ters stomach litters embedies the combined qualities of a blood fertifiers and deparent, a tonic and an alterative. While it promotes digestion and assimilation, and stimulates appearent, as the termination and stimulates appearent, has the forther effect of purifying the life current and strengthening the nervous system. As the blood grows richer and purer by its use, they who resent to this sterling medicinal agent acquire not only vigor, but bodily substance. A healthful change in the secretions is effected by it, and that sire and rapid physical decay, which a chronic obstruction of the functions of the system produced is arrested. The prime causes of disease being removed, health is speedily renevated and vigor restored.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS, made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you. For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, No 137 North Queen street.

The best medical writers ctaim that the successful remedy for masal catarch must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will, by its own action, reach all the remote sores and alcorated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarch during the past few years obliges us to admit that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is klys' from Baim. This sais and pleasant remedy has mastered catarch as nothing clash has ever done, and both physicians and patients treely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms quickly yield to it. 15-2wdcod&w SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarth, Diptheria, and Canker Mouth. For sale by H. B. HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Back and Shoulders Are the parts usually attacked by rheumatism; and the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists are also sometimes affected. The cause of rheumatism is lactic acid circuitating with the blood, which attacks the joints and causes the pains and sches of the disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies and enriches the blood, and has proven a wenderful remedy for rheumatism.

COULD HARDLY WALK.

"I was troubled very much with rheumatism

"I was troubled very much with the unstiam in my hips, ankles and wrists: it not, I could hardly walk, and was confined to my bled a good deal of my time. I was also very billous and suffered severely. I was recommended to try Hood's Barsapartila, which I did. I have taken four bottles and au well. I gladly recommend Hood's Sarsapartila."—W. W. RHEUMATIC FEVER.

"Right years ago I had inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to the bed three months. Last year I was laid up six weeks with rheumatic tever. A short time ago, I fe't pains all over my body and thought I was to for it again. I then decided to try Hood's Barsaparilla. It has done me so much good that I must say I made a good investment of one dollar in medicine for the first time. It has driven off the rheumatism and improved my appetite so much that my the first time. It has driven off the benunatism and improved my appetite so much that my boarding mistress says I must keep it locked up or she will be obliged to raise my board with every other boarder that takes Hood's Barsaparilla."—THOMAS BURKELL, No. 29 Tillary

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who used building up.

Physicians and Druggists Recommend

BROWN'S

AS THE BEST TONIC.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, Etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, Invigorates the System, Restores Appetite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or Injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—as other medicines do.

Da. G. H. Binkley, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of from. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity, It is all that is claimed for it.

Da. W. N. Wather, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improved digestion."

A Happy New Year to All.

We take this opportunity at the opening of the New Year to express our thanks to our many friends for so liberal share of their patronage during the past year, and especially for that during the late Holiday Season. Our effort in bringing new articles as they appear in the market to Lancaster has been appreciated, and it will serve as a stimulus in the future. We shall endeavor during the year we have just entered to follow up that same line of policy and give to the people of Lancaster, as far as possible, the same privilege as those enjoyed in larger cities. All new wares shall find room on our shelves, and through them into the Lancaster city and county homes. Our prices shall always be as low as possible, quality being considered. A hearty invitation is extended to all to visit our store, whether purchasing or simply looking shall receive the same courteous attention. Our motto shall be, "Fair and honest dealing with all.'
