Visiting the O. T. A. M. The visit of the acting state councilior, H. Wells Buser, having been made known to the members of Conestogs council, No. 120, Junior O. U. A. M., the attendance was large and interesting, and the exercises extended to a late hour in honor of the visit of the distinguished officer who was present and who expressed himself well pleased in the manner that No. 22 conducts its business and its high standing financially and other-wise in the order. At Mr. Buser's request the officers exemplified the unwritten work of the order to his entire satisfaction, showing their version of it to be correct and true. The past Mechanic's degree was conferred on bont twenty five members last night. State Councillor Buser was recently ap Wednesday night be visited Manheim, Last

THE PERSON THA. Grace Latheran Church the Scene of Enjoyable

Festivities. The pink and blue French tes given in the room of Grace Lutheran church closed Thursday evening in a blaze of glory. The attendance was larger than on Wednesday evening, and the good-natured crowd justled each other in their endeavors to get ace at the lunch tables. Mrs. J. Fred. Sener, the lady manager, and corps of lady assistants wereindefatigable in theirendeavors to serve their guests. The heavy demands made upon the several tables were promptly met and after all had been served there was an abundance of good things left over. A few of these, of a perishable pature, were sold at auction. The orchestra, as on Wednesday night, added greatly to the entertalnment of those present. The adjournment did not take place till near midnight. The treasurer's account has not yet been balanced, but enough is known to warrant us in saying that the net receipts will not be much short of $500. They will be appropriated to the extinguishment of the debt of the church, which grows short by degrees and beautifully less.

The Big Business Continues Atkinson & Cook's company had another very large audience Thursday evening. The play was "The Lady of Lyons" and the production of it was on a par with the other work done by this company. This evening the company will play "Blow for Blow," at to morrow's matinee Little Emily will be repeated, and the engage. ment will be closed with "Divorce Saturday evening.

Bad for Tobogganing

Owing to the soft weather there was no riding on the toboggan slide on Thursday afternoon and evening. The track is covered with water and the snow is rapidly disappearing under the warm rays of to-day's sun. It is likely that there will be very lit-ile riding until another snow falls or colder weather sets in.
