It has in recent years grown to be quite a custom for metropolitan newspapers to issue almanacs. They were at first mere copies of the old-fashioned almanac, inter-mingled with a few local statistics. Now they are compendiums of the latest and best informstion on almost every topic worthy of the ambite attention.

The Baltimore Sun has issued a good almanac which is specially devoted to Maryland's interests, but which will be found to have a great deal of information on subjects of national concern.

The Philadelphia Tones, as usual, comes to the front with one of the prettlest aimanacs of the year. And it is as reliable as it is Its political information is careully and accurately prepared. at Madison Square garden, New York, on Sunday night Mr. Davitt thus spoke on the McGlynn episode:

"And now I come to a matter of interest not alone to my own friends, but to the whole Irish people of the state of New York, I could not well pass over in silence the case of my friend, Dr. McGiyan. But in what I am about to say I will endeavor to carefully avoid the mistakes of others, and refrain from the line of criticism that injures a cause that it means to defend. [Applausa.] There are both personal and political rescors why I am justified in making allusions to this grave question here to night. In Dr. McGiynn's statement to the papers this morning we read that he promised in 1822 to make no more Land League speeches.

"Now it appears from this that Dr. Mo-Glynn's offerse began at the last meeting that I addressed here in this city in 1882, and that I addressed here in this city in 1832, and that Cardinal Simeoni consured him for lavoring the Irish revolution (while it hisses) in the speeches then and subsequently delivered in this city in behalf of Treiand, "Here lies the head and front of Dr. McGiynn's offending, [Great cheering] Now mark, laties and gentlowen, this startling coincidence. And for what? For means to grasp robber landlordism by knowledge the Irish revolution.

Then he cried "Let there be no mistake, gentlemen, about England or denouncing the Land League in 1882, he might to-day be the archbishop of New York.

The whole audience rose in a body as the heered again and again. Then Mr. Davitt fired more red hot shot at the cardinal " Because Father McGlynn has done what the patriotic bishops and priests of Ireland have done in defiance of this same Cardinal Simeoni's [continued grouping] puny inland that we brook no ignorant or pro-Eng-

BEFORE VICKSDORG, Mass. June C 1983.

DEAR GEVERAL! The great solicitude I feel for the safety or this driny leads me to mention what I had hoped never sgain to do -the subject of your drinking. This may surprise you, for I may be and I trust I am doing you so lejustice by unfounded suspi-cions, but if an error it retter to on the side of his country's safety thet in fear of offending a friend. I have heard that Dr. McMilian, at Ger. Sperman's, a few days ago, induced you, notwithstanding your pledge to ne, to take a glass of wine, and to day, when the, to take a glass of wine, and to day, when I found a box of wine in front of your tent, and proposed to move it, which I did, I was told you had forbid its being taken away, for you intended to keep it until you entered Vicksburg, that you night have it for your friends; and to night, when you should, because of the condition of your health it nothing else, have been in bed, I find you where the wine bottle has just been seen the where the wine bottle has just been emptied in company with those who drink and urge you to do likewise, and the lack of your usual promptness of decision and clearness in expressing yourself in writing tended to confirm my suspicions.

You have the full control of your appetite indean let drinking alone. Had you not You have the full control of your appetite and can let drinking alone. Had you not piedged me the sheerily of your honor early last March that you would drink no more during the war, and kept that pledge during your recent campaign you would not to day have stood first in the world's history as a successful military leader. Your only salvation depends upon your strict adversaries the property work within depends upon your salvation depends. tion depends upon your strict adherence to that pledge. You cannot succeed in any other way. As I have before stated I may be other way. As I have before stated I may be wrong in my suspicions, but if one sees that which leads him to suppose a sentine! A. H. ROSENSTEIN, A BARGAIN.

Owing to the close of the Fall and Winter Season, I have purchased one more piece of those elegant Heavy Dark Blue English Cheviots, at a reduced price. They were our best seller, and sold at $15.00, and have reduced them to the low figure of $25.00. Made and trimmed elegantly, and above all, a perfect fit.
