HOW TO WRITE A LOVE STORY.

Now bring me a maid that is plump and dark,
And bring me a maid that is tall and fair;
One must be gay as a meadow lark,
One with a grave and queenly air,
And a sort of a high toned stately state
A man, old, rich, and a perfect fright
A man that is young and debonnair;
And lo! the story that I will write.

Bring me a summery moonlit park,
Bring me a house in a handsome square,
One in the country, a kind of ark
Of refuge for lovers; some mad despair,
Duty, temptation, and grief and care,
To take the edge off love's delight,
A few odd people from here and there,
And lo! the story that I will write.

Bring me a trip in the treacherous bark,
A wreck in the midseas anywhere,
Bring me a duel—heaven save the mark!
A reunited and happy pair,
A gown from Worth's for the bride to wear,
And bring me a fate as dark as night,
For all of the bold, bad ones to share;
And lo! the story that I will write.

MORAL.

Bring ink and pen to my easy chair,
Of paper a ream all fair and white,
A publisher ready to do and dare,
And lo! the story that I will write.

A BANK TREASURER MISSING.

The Germania Savings Institution of Jersey City Closed by Heavy Peculations.

The Germania Savings bank, No. 150 Newark avenue, Jersey City, N. J., closed its door Saturday morning C. M. E. Schroeder, secretary and treasurer, is missing, and there is a deficit of $30,000 in the cash account. The bank was incorporated March 29, 1871, and did an extensive savings and banking business. Vice President Louis A. Leinau says that the securities are intact, and that the deficit will not exceed the figure named. The news of the wreck of the bank spread rapidly, and the street was thronged with anxious depositors. Upon the door was a notice, signed by the vice president, saying that the bank had been closed pending an application to the chancellor for instructions.

One of the clerks stated that Schroeder was engaged in making up the annual statement which is filed with the secretary of state at Trenton every February. He worked very late at night. Saturday he did not appear at the bank. A messenger was sent to his home, No. 20 Linden avenue, Jersey City Heights. Mrs. Schroeder was sick abed. A servant said that Schroeder had left the house after a brief interview with his wife on Tuesday night. The trustees met that night and found the books all written up and the securities intact, but there was not a cent of the cash balance of $30,000.

The trustees expect to pay 75 per cent. to depositors within 30 days, and the remainder after a sufficient delay to enable them to dispose of the real estate held by the bank.

The bank books are locked up and it is impossible to obtain details. Schroeder fled after seeing that he could not conceal his crime. He is a well-known German and a general favorite. He has a wife and two children. He is known to have lost money in speculation.

The police pretend to have learned that Schroeder was at his home at 7 a.m. Sunday. He is being searched for. Trustees of the bank were on his bond for $20,000.

State Senator Edwards, counsel for the bank, received instructions from Chancellor Runyon. The trustees are ordered to settle the bank's affairs by disposing of all its available securities. No receiver will be appointed for the present at least. Mr. Edwards stated that the depositors will not lose over 20 per cent. at the most, and that all will probably be paid in full eventually.

Schroeder left a six months note upon himself for $30,000 at the bank, dated January 31, to President Leinau's order.

The Effects of Mental Exhaustion.

Many diseases, especially those of the nervous system, are the products of daily renewed mental exhaustion. Business avocations often involve an amount of mental wear and tear very prejudicial to physical health, and the professions, if arduously pursued, are no less destructive to brain and nerve tissue. It is one of the most important attributes of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that it compensates for this undue loss of tissue, and that it imparts new energy to the brain and nerves. The rapidity with which it renews weakened mental energy and physical vitality is remarkable, and shows that its invigorating properties are of the highest order. Besides increasing vital stamina, and counteracting the effects of mental exhaustion, this potential medicine cures and prevents fever and ague, rheumatism, chronic dyspepsia and constipation, kidney and uterine weakness and other complaints. Physicians also recommend it as a medicated stimulant and remedy. jan30tod3

The cold winds chill the heart of the ice cart driver, and he now sits shivering on his box, a blue nosed victim of despair; the striking words "use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup" stare him in the face.

Worth its weight in gold; Salvation Oil 25 cents.

The Same Human Nature

Many vain attempts are made to repeat the remarkable success of Benson's Capcine Plaster. This splendid remedy is known, sold and used everywhere, and its prompt action and unrivaled curative powers have won for it hosts of friends. Imitations have sprung up under similar sounding names, such as "Capsicin," "Capsicum," etc., intended to deceive the careless and unwary. These articles possess none of the virtues of the genuine. Therefore we hope the people will resist us to protect what are at once their interests and ours. Ask for Benson's Plaster, and examine what is given you, and make sure that the word "Capcine" is cut in the middle of the plaster itself, and the "Three Seals" trademark is on the face cloth. Any reputable dealer will show you the safeguards without hesitation. If you cannot remember the name—Benson's Capcine Plaster—cut this paragraph from the paper.

Mrs. Phœbe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Out of the Fire.

Tormented with Salt Rheum—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Only those who have suffered from salt rheum in the worst form, can know the agonies caused by this dreadful disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing salt rheum, as well as all affections of the blood.

"I owe the same gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla that one would to his rescuer from a burning building. I was tormented with salt rheum, and had to leave off work altogether. My face, about the eyes, would be swollen and scabbed, my hands and a part of my body would be raw sores for weeks at a time, my flesh would seem so rotted that I could roll pieces from between my fingers as large as a pea. One physician called it and gave me medicine accordingly; but salt rheum cannot be cured in that way. I assure you Finally I bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It helped me so much that I took a second and third bottle, and was entirely cured. I have not been troubled with salt rheum since. I also used Hood's Olive Ointment on the places affected. It stops the burning and itching sensation immediately. I will recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla not only for salt rheum, but for humors of all kinds, loss of appetite, and that 'all gone' feeling so often experienced by everyone." A. D. Rosbins, Hager Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass.
