

Small party of men with all his experience of them had chosen with them. The judge clearly was much the smarter man of the two; and his transfer of the greatest fortune of the country to himself, while confidential agent of the owners, and doing in a lawful way, is a feat that is without parallel in history.

The General's Latest. Gen. Butler, who has been defendant, counsel and witness in a suit brought against him by a citizen of Brooklyn, for damages for false imprisonment and robbery during the war, has come off with flying colors, the court instructing the jury that he could not be held liable.

HARRISBURG has a daily per capita consumption of water of 135 gallons. Its record on that point is not good.

ADMIRAL RYDFORS, post, No. 403, Grand Army of the Republic, thinks Cleveland made a mistake in his veto of the 'dependent soldiers' pension bill. A few figures ought to disabuse them of their wrongful impression.

THE railroad store is well enough for a furnace for the obstreperous railroad director.

HAVING suffered a terrible defeat in Africa, Italy is threatened with still further discomfiture in the disappearance of any enemy on which to wreak revenge.

THE cooper of Minneapolis having established a co-operative business has heralded the fact far and wide, and his believers in the principle of co-operation are naturally jubilant thereat.

THE principle can hardly be disputed, but the ability of men to put it in general practice is another question.

WILLY WALLY Phelps will not be senator from New Jersey this year.

THE custom of holding high carnival just as the year has not spread over the country from its home in the north, to the variety of causes, but chiefly to the climate and temperament of the people.

SABOR DE LOUIS is a wealthy young Frenchman who has been in the United States for twelve years in the French way. He expressed himself as follows on the subject of the impending war.

He added that Germany is not united and that knowing that a foreign war is the only thing that will solidify the Empire, Bismarck will not be slow to provoke it.

LANCASTER was never freer socially than this year.

A BILL "to create a naval reserve of auxiliary cruisers, officers and men, from the mercantile marine of the United States," will soon claim the careful attention of Congress.

This bill is certainly liberal in its provisions, and if it does not give us a reliable auxiliary fleet will certainly provide the men to man our ships.

MISS CLARA BARTON, president of the Red Cross society, has just returned from Texas, having made the trip solely for the purpose of determining the truth or falsity of the stories of the great drought.

THE Delaware County Democrat explains the defeat of Mayor Forwood, of Chester, for re-election by saying that "it was well known that he could not win."

TEXAS negroes call the mugwump the "curlew." Shades of George William Curlew!

When it is considered that a Republican city Pittsburg is the good man by Democracy, it is not surprising that the vote cast last Tuesday for McCallin and McRena, for the majority, exceeded that cast last November for Beaver and Black, for the majority.

PERSONAL. SPEAKER CARLISLE is being urged for Manning's place as secretary of the treasury.

THE EARL and countess of Aberdeen, now in India, have decided to visit the United States.
