The Appropriation for Longester's Public Southing Not Linety to Pass. The prospects of the four bills now on the calendar appropriating certain amounts for public buildings in Pennsylvania are not encouraging for consideration during the few days remaining of the present session of Con-

days remaining of the present session of Con-gress. The bills pending provide for $100,000 each for Allentown, Lancaster and Wilkes-barrs, for an increase of appropriation to $250,000 for Scranton. At a recent conference with the committee on public buildings it was agreed to ask a special order for the consideration of these and other similar bills not objected to. It was decided, however, not to press the mat-ter, as the committee on rules, after a careful review of the situation, discovered a large number of Jobs awaiting a pretext to crowd in at the first chance. The Southern men who oppose the Blair educational bill, which would alone take $77,000.000 out of the treas-ury, are particularly urgent that the comury, are particularly urgent that the com aittee on rules make no recommendations which would give this bill a chance to be

Larceny and False Pretense

Harry Zell, alias "Bones," a character well known in police circles, was arrested last evening by Officer Barnhold, charged with larceny and false pretense. It appears that Zell went to Liller's confectionery and bought some candies, telling Mr. Liller that Dr. Withrow sent him for them. As the doctor had been in the habit of dealing with Mr. Liller the latter thought it was all right and gave the goods to Zell, who took them to Dr. Withrow's and told him Mr. Liller had sent them. The doctor said he had not ordered the goods, but would keep them. He paid Zell the price of them, together with another small bill he owed Mr. Liller. Zell pocketed the money, and disappeared. Officer Barnhold got sight of him, and after a spirited footrace captured him. He was taken be'ore Alderman Deen. who committed him for a bearing-time not
