

SALE OF THE B. & O. ROAD.

What the Great Deal Involves and Why It Is Not Improbable—Mr. Robert Garrett Will Neither Confirm Nor Deny the Starting Story of the Change.

The announcement was made on Wednesday that the control of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company had passed into the hands of Alfred Sully, of New York. There had been rumors of this nature for two or three days, and, previous, but they lacked confirmation, and little credence was given to them, as the operation was of such a stupendous nature. The apparent confirmation of these rumors, therefore, from a well-informed source, has excited the public interest. A leading official of the Pennsylvania railroad system...

The Pennsylvania railroad executive officers have known for two weeks that negotiations had been going on between the president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company and Alfred Sully, president of the Richmond Terminal company, for a control of the stock of the former. We had no peculiar interest in the matter and have none now. Our information is that Mr. Sully has offered Mr. Garrett $300 per share for a controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company, and the former is bound by no contract. He is free to accept or decline the offer at his pleasure.

FRONTIER COUNCIL NOT IN THE DEAL. At the office of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company, it was declared that Mr. Corbin had no part in the deal, and would leave for Florida this morning via the Pennsylvania railroad. The Reading officials had knowledge of the deal through friends of Mr. Corbin, but could state positively that Mr. Corbin had no part in the deal, and would leave for Florida this morning via the Pennsylvania railroad.

At an important meeting of Adams Express officials and others held in Philadelphia on Wednesday, and it was afterwards ascertained that the Adams Express company is interested in the deal and will, as their share in it, take the express, telegraphic and police car privileges of the Baltimore & Ohio system, which has been a subject of opposition that these different interests now have, and by doing which they will ultimately get back all that they will invest in it.

FRONTIER COUNCIL NOT IN THE DEAL. President Sully of the Richmond Terminal company, relative to the proposed sale of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, has said that he could say nothing definite. When it was remarked that the fact of purchase was not now denied Mr. Sully admitted that this "was pretty well understood," but said he was not prepared to answer any questions.

Another Bonus Watch Company. United States (Means have arrested John H. Kane and Giles H. Rich, the latter assistant clerk of the Roxbury police court, Boston, upon the charge of using the mails to defraud the public. The parties, it is claimed, have been operating under the title of "Massachusetts Watch Company," and have defrauded the country by circulating an elegant gold watch, with the latest improvements.

From the Foreign Trade Gazette. Simon Herea, who was appointed by President Cleveland last year a special commissioner to investigate the relations of Western European governments to railway systems within their control, has made his report. He points out that England goes more than ever before, looks after the railways very closely and sharply. The resolution of 1884 denies any railway exemption from the provisions of a general railway law.

LEYTON GIBSON CONVICTED.

OF AGGRAVATED ASSAULT AND BATTERY AND RESISTING AN OFFICER.

Counsel Made a Motion for a New Trial and Their Reason is That the Court Made an Improper Remark Before the Jury During the Trial of the Case.

Wednesday Afternoon.—The trial of Leyton Gibson for assaulting and resisting Officer Pyle was resumed at eleven o'clock. The defense called a witness who testified that he saw a colored man, who was standing by the side of Officer Pyle, strike the officer and then run away.

At the conclusion of the evidence counsel were discussing the length of time they should be allowed to argue the case. The district attorney suggested fifteen minutes for each side, but counsel for the defense said they did not think that time long enough. The court said "you will probably need more time, as you have a bad case."
