GOLD ANNIVERSARY DAYS.

A Number of Well-known People Pass From Time to Eternity.

Dr. A. W. Cain, a prominent practitioner of medicine for many years in the vicinity of Christiana, who was stricken with paralysis about two months ago and has lain in a helpless condition since that time, died at his home on Monday and was buried to-day. Dr. Cain was about 65 years of age, had a large practice and the respect and confidence of the community in which he spent his life.

Death of Mrs. Mary Dietrich.

Mrs. Mary Dietrich, aged 77 years, died of pneumonia last evening at the residence of her son-in-law, Wm. H. Gast, 146 North Mulberry street. Deceased was a daughter of the late Michael Kline, ropemaker. She was twice married. Her first husband was James Coggedall, by whom she had three daughters, all of whom are living and married. Her second husband was Harry Dietrich, by whom she had two daughters and a son. Besides these children she leaves sixteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She was for many years a member of Trinity Lutheran church, but some years ago she connected herself with St. Paul's M. E. church.

Henry Hess.

Henry Hess, stone mason and contractor, for many years employed by the Pennsylvania railroad and other corporations as bridge-builder, died at his residence, No 427 St. Joseph street, of consumption, Thursday night. He was regarded as an excellent workman and was esteemed as a good citizen. He leaves a wife and family.

Death of a Barber.

George Parker, a well-known colored man, died at his home in Mt. Joy on Wednesday. Deceased was a barber and learned his trade with Joseph Lebar, for whom he worked for several years. He started in business for himself some years ago in Mt. Joy, where he resided to the time of his death. He was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife but no children.

From Near Churchtown.

Cornelius Rork, aged 81, who died recently in Reading, was born in Lancaster county, near Churchtown. He moved to Reading about 40 years ago. He leaves 6 children, 2 sons and four daughters. His wife died 23 years ago. The children are: John Rork, Samuel Rork, Mrs. John C. Miller, Mrs. Peter T. Phillipi, deceased, Mrs. Bertolet Grant, all of Reading, and Mrs. John Peregoy and Mrs. John Clark, of Baltimore Ind. His grandchildren number 43, and great-grandchildren 14.

Died in Reading.

Miss Barbara Shaub died Thursday of dropsy of the heart, at her residence in Reading in the 49th year of her age. Her brother, Adam Shaub, died quite recently and at the time of his funeral she was critically ill and not expected to recover. She went to that city with her brother from Lancaster, and kept house for him for a number of years.

SPRIGHT NOT GUILTY.

But Directed to Pay the Costs of Prosecution in the Adultery-Bastardy Case.

Thursday Afternoon.—Nearly all of the afternoon session of court was taken up in the argument of the Speigart adultery and bastardy case. The jury after a brief deliberation rendered a verdict of guilty, but directed him to pay the costs.

Friday Morning.—The case of commonwealth vs. Frank Able, indicted for malicious trespass, which was attached late on Thursday, was resumed. According to the commonwealth's testimony B. F. Herr was the owner of a farm in Martic township, which was rented to Isaac Erb. Mr. Erb sub-let the farm to William Johnson and Frank Finnefrock, who were to work the place on the shares. Able lived on the farm adjoining and the allegation was that he came on their land against their protest, trampled down the wheat and ploughed up a grass field. He was complained against for malicious trespass and a penalty imposed by the magistrate. From that penalty Able appealed to the quarter sessions court.

The defense was that Johnson and Finnefrock agreed to do certain things on the farm which they failed to do. Mr. Erb then employed Able to plough the grass field, and it was while carrying out the instructions of Erb, the tenant of the owner, that the alleged trespass was committed.

At the conclusion of the testimony the court instructed the jury to render a verdict of not guilty, with county for costs, as there could not be a conviction.

CURRENT BUSINESS.

William Gast, city, was granted a renewal of his soldier's license to peddle goods in the county of Lancaster.

Elizabeth Neber, of Manor township, was granted the benefit of her separate earnings.

Counsel for Kate Reilly and Abe Hess, convicted of keeping a bawdy house, has filed reasons for a new trial. The case was partially tried before the district attorney discovered that a plea had not been entered. A juror was then withdrawn and the case retried. It is claimed that this procedure placed the accused in jeopardy twice, which is contrary to the law of the state. The court refused to grant a new trial.

A verdict of not guilty was taken in the false pretense case against Wm. Moore. The district attorney stated the case could not be made out.

A new trial was refused in the suit of David M Sauder vs. John Myers' administrators, tried a few weeks ago.

Had His Foot Injured.

Andrew Baker, of Poplar street, is a laborer at the Penn iron works. On Wednesday he was at work in the blacksmith shop when a heavy piece of iron fell upon his foot, crushing it badly. He was taken to his home where he is confined.

Discharged on a writ.

Yesterday morning James Linthurst was committed to prison for 10 days for drunken and disorderly conduct by Mayor Morton. In the afternoon he was taken before Judge Livingston on a writ of habeas corpus and was discharged from custody.

Made an Assignment.

David L. Paules, of East Donegal township, made an assignment to day, for the benefit of creditors, to John H. Houseal, of the same township.

A Stove Stolen.

One night this week thieves broke into the Baptist church on Chestnut street by the rear door, and stole a No 7 cook stove which was the property of the congregation, and stood in an ante room. The thieves entered this room by forcing the door. That kind of larceny seems to rather heavy work, but the men who committed it seems to have gotten away successfully. It is not known exactly when the stove was stolen, but the discovery was made yesterday.

Amusements.

"The Lights o' London."—This popular drama will be given at Fulton opera house to-morrow evening. If popularity can be taken as an evidence of merit this play must be a great one for it has proven one of the most popular dramatic productions of recent years, both on the English and American stages. The company is said to be very strong, and they carry their own scenery, properties, etc.

"The Humming Bird."—This is the name of the new comedy in which the Troubadours will appear in Lancaster on next Tuesday evening. It made a great success in New York, and the press speaks very highly of it. At the head of the company is Miss Nellie McHenry, one of the brightest soubrettes on the American stage, and another of the ladies is Miss Marie Hoskel, who has several times been seen here in opera. There is a great demand for reserved seats and the audience will undoubtedly be large.

The Hagan Lecture.—All the indications point to a packed house at Fulton opera house to-night.

Parties having sugars in case lots that they want to dispose of at low figures can find a buyer by calling on I. A. Rich, Stevens House, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Telephone Connection.

D. H. Kulp & Co.'s pattern and machine shop, No. 118 East Chestnut street, is connected with the telephone exchange.

THERE IS HARDLY A TAX THAT does not weigh heavily upon farmers and merchants. In addition to the usual local taxes, there are the state and county taxes. Here we have a constant outgoing without any return save what comes back in an incidental way. A high license law, however, would operate very differently, especially if the tax collected should be paid into the city, borough and county treasuries, as they ought to be. High licenses is making rapid headway all over the land. Men have pretty generally agreed that as complete prohibition is impossible at the present time, it is best to accept the best thing we can get in its place.—New Era.
