PARTEGUARE INVESTIGATIONS. Fred. John E. Stahr, of Tata Oity, New Heatin Up Lecel Phenomena.

Prof. John S. Stahr has received letters from Captain E. C. Dutton, of the United States geological survey, requesting him to collect all information attainable with regard to the earthquake of August 31, 1886. So far very little data has been received with regard to the tremore fait in this vicinity, and the authorities are anxious to establish as nearly as possible the time when this ripple of the Charleston earthquake reached Lancaster. Readers of the INTELLIGENCER having any facis bearing on the subject are requested.

soy facts bearing on the subject are requested to communicate them to Professor John S. Stahr, 437 West James street. In order that sail may be prepared to note valuable facts with regard to past or fature earthquakes the following list of questions, prepared by the United States geological survey, is pub-

United States geological survey, is published:

1. State whether an earthquake was felt at your place August 31, 1886, (naming place of observation.) (Negative answers will be of great interest from points within the disturbed area.)

2. At what time or times, giving hour, minute and second of standard time, was it felt? (When this can be accurately given it is of the greatest importance.) Be carreful to state whether it is attandard railway time or local time, whether the watch or clock was compared with some standard clock, when, what the error was, and whether you corrected your observation by this comparison or not.

3. How long did the perceptible motion continue?

4. Was it accompanied by any unusual noise? If so, describe it.

5. Was more than one shock felt? If so, how many.

6. Was incre than one sneek left? At so, how many.

(Where several are felt give as accurately as possible the number, the duration and character of each, and the interval between them.)

6. Which of the following measures of internative would best describe what hap-

No. 3. Moderate—sufficient to set suspended objects, chandeliers, &c., swinging, or to overthrow light objects.
No. 4. Strong—Sufficient to crack the plaster in houses or to throw down some bricks from obimneys.
No. 5. Severe—Overthrowing chimneys and injuring the walls of houses...
No. 6. Destructive—Causing widespread devastation.

7. Do you know of any causes other than 7. Do you know of any causes other than an earthquake for what was observed?

Give also any further particulars of interest stating whether they are from observation or hearsay. Whether the shock seemed like a tremor, a jar or an undulatory movement and whether it seemed to come horizontally or vertically. If a chandelier was noticed to swing describe it and state direction and amount of swing.

If pictures wing state direction of wall and whether pictures on other walls, at right angles to first, were also put in motion.

If doors were closed or opened by shock state direction of the wall in which they are set. If clock was stopped give time it indicated and anything known as to how fast or slow it was, its position, the direction in which it was facing and the length of the pendulum. Mention any unusual condition of the atmosphere, any strange affects on animals (it is often said that they will feel the first tremors of a shock before people notice it at all.) Springs, rivers and wells are often noticeably affected by even slight shocks and information in regard to such changes will be valuaffected by even slight shocks and information in regard to such changes will be valuable.

TRAT COURT HOUSE CLUCK.

The Hands Move and It Records Correct Time, Ent Cannot be Seen at Night. The trouble with the large clock in the court house in the early part of the winter was that it was out of repair, and would hor run. The gentleman having the clock in charge gave it his attention and it has been doing very well since. Now another trouble appears. For about two weeks past the faces of the clock have not been illuminated, and after 7 o'clock, p. m. it is impossible for anyone to tell the time. Last week the moon gave a little assistance, and that did not cost the county anything. This week the moon s not on hand until too late to be of much service to persons desiring to know the time of night. It is said that the electric light which is now used in the dome does not do its work as well as the gas did. It is also said that the matter is not given the attention it should receive at the hands of the janitor. Two of the county commissioners live in the the time for the lights of the clock to burn. They therefore baye not likely seen it since the eclipse upon it. The other commissioner lives in Lancaster and if he has seen the clock lately he must know of its condition. Whoever is responsible for this state of things had better be looking after it.

York's New Prosbyterian Church. At the last meeting of the Westminster presbytery, which was held in Lebanon, a ommittee was appointed to organize a new church in York. That committee consisted of Rev. H. E. Niles, D. D., Rev. James Mc-Dougal, Ph. D., Rev. T. Crawford, Rev. Geo. L. Smith, and Elders J. M. Brown and I. W.

A meeting was held Monday evening in the Presbyterian chapel, York. Thirty-eight members of the First Presbyterian church were dismissed to organize themselves in the new one to be known as the Westminster church of York. Rev. Crawford preached the sermon, and Prof. A. B. Carner and H. S. Myers were elected elders. Dr. McDougal made the ordination prayer, and Rev. Geo. L. Smith gave the charge to the congregation. Prof. A. B. Carner, Messra H. S. Myers, George A. Shetrone and W. L. Crosley were elected trustees.

The new congregation have purchased a lot and will erect a stone church the coming summer. Rev. McNair is the pastor.

Arrested on Suspicion. Constable Merringer and Officers Beech-ler and Leman arrested a stranger at Ziegler's hotel this afternoon on suspicion of being a thief. He was taken to the station house, where he gave the name of John Smith and said he worked at Litiz He had in his possession two silver watches but these he accounted satisfactorily for and was re-leased from custody. The officers were put on the trail by residents of the Seventh ward, who said that the man had offered a number of watches for sale at a price far less than their value.

Death of John Beidieman. Mrs. Miller, wife of J. W. Miller, of No. 44 South Ann street, received a telegram today announcing the death of her father, John Beidleman, who resided at Towands, Brad-ford county. He has been confined to bed for eight years with inflammatory rheuma. tiem. His age was 70 and by occupation he was a builder and contractor. One of the handsomest blocks of buildings in Towards, which was erected by him, bears his name.

A Dinner to Brisbin Skiles. The friends of Brisbin Skiles, of Gap, the king of the fox hunters, whose reputation is well known throughout the entire eastern part of the state, intend giving him a complimentary dinner on Thursday next. A large crowd is expected. Photographs of the old unter, his pack of hounds and fourteen oxes, which he has in his cellar, will be taken by Frank Saylor, of this city.

Payment of Pensions Delayed.

The pensioners residing in this city and county have not all yet received checks for the amounts due them. The cause of the delay is that Southern New Jersey was added to Gen. Davis' territory, and he was Eot given any increase to his cierical force. The amount of psyments added by the above addition is $800,000. To Attend the Annual Meeting. Delegates from this city will attend the thirteenth annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian association of this district, to be held in Steelton on Thursday and Friday.

A writ of replevin was insued to-day against Altred D. Conard for a horse and cart at the suit of Joseph D. C. Pownail.

The Hammersty Open Company's Trockie.

The Hammersty opers company, which played an engagement in Lebanon last week, had difficulty getting out of town Monday. Sheriff Yordy, at the instance of Cyrus Shants, of the City hotel, seized four boxes of contumes to satisfy a claim of over $200 for board, and C. M. Bowman and Sowers Brothers had warrants served for their printing bills. Manager Hammersly finally gave an order on the box office at Columbia, where the company sang Monday night, and they departed for that town.

George Williams, a stranger, was com-mitted on Monday evening by Alderman Barr to the county jail for eight days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The mayor added four to the population of he work-house this morning. They will earn their board there for the next thirty days.
