A Boston paper wants to know whether first-class postage rates should be charged for rejected manuscripts. This president has received a letter from L. M. Handy & Co., of San Francisco...

The Democratic senators refused to vote upon the final passage, and only four Republicans were recorded against the bill. The Democratic senators desired anti-discrimination legislation...

Traction and traction; and the greater of these is traction. This green was under the white when the snow began to fall yesterday. The Women's Christian Temperance union of the country declare that the liquor traffic is the cause of eighty per cent. of all the crime and ninety per cent. of all the pauperism in this country...

The Pittsburgh Dispatch has a report from Ottawa that the Canadian government, two months ago, proposed to the colonial office in London a scheme for the extension of the factory dispute by arbitration. It was suggested that "Great Britain should propose at once to the United States the settlement of all questions without reserve, in the probability of the appointment of a commission, consisting of a British and an American member, to be named by the governor in council of Canada, one from Newfoundland and with the consent of Great Britain, two from the United States and from some independent power..."

A Yankee Tells the Story of His Experiences With Cannibals. A wealthy citizen and prominent banker of Gardiner, N. Y., who had led an uneventful though industrious life, was called to the rector's room of his bank recently and told a story of his capture by cannibals in his younger days which is better than Robinson Crusoe's narrative, because it is true. He was the son of one of the leading shipbuilders and owners here in the city of New York...

Two Million Restored. Dr. Ayer's Pills are a certain cure for every disorder of the bowels, which in turn makes the system healthy. During the last fifty years they have restored to perfect health and enjoyment two millions of persons. Their success is due to their purgative effects, invigorating the digestion, stimulating the liver and bowels, and purging away all seeds of disease. One or two pills every night for a week or two will always cure.

Good News in Every Case. D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold, which had become chronic, and that he had tried many remedies without benefit. He was induced to try Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and he writes that he had entirely cured himself. He writes that he had tried many remedies without benefit, but that he had been cured by Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Garrett Gives $5,000 to Princeton. Mr. Robert Garrett, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Cochran, at Princeton, Pa., in addition to the $100,000 new art museum, has given to the city of Princeton, Pa., $5,000 to be used for the purchase of a new building for the city of Princeton, Pa. He has also promised Dr. Cochran to come with the Hon. John K. Cowen and read a paper at one of the literary meetings on "What the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company is doing for its employees." This will be supplemented by the paper on "Labor and Capital" which he will read at the recent literary meeting at Princeton, Pa.

Another Sudden Death. Hardly a week passes without the mention by the newspapers of sudden deaths, and of late the alarming frequency of the statement that death was caused by rheumatism or neuritis of the heart cannot fail to have been noticed in all probability many deaths attributed to heart disease are caused by these terrible diseases, which are so much more dangerous than is generally considered. In such a positive cure? The best answer to such a question is given by those who have been cured by the use of Athiophorus.

Showing Solitude. From Harper's Magazine. Father (to family physician)—Isn't George Saunpou a relative of yours, doctor? Family Physician—Yes, he is a nephew. Father—He wants my daughter Clara, but I've declined to give her to him. Family Physician—That's right, George was asking about your health to-day.
