The management of the Woman's Exbenge, after a successful season, with results ir exceeding their most sanguine expectations, make public the outcome of their storia. During the season which at first was limited to three months, but afterwards exlanded to five months, owing to the liberal patronage the enterprise received, one hundeed and two women offered work for sale.

Of these, a few unfortunately brought unsaleable criticles and therefore were unsuccessful;
but the majority found prompt sale for their work and received among them the sum of $1,50.30, less 10 per cent, which percentage

Coivin's Livery Sale.

The sale of horses, carriages, harness, &a, a Coivin's livery and exchange stables, rear of City hotel, closed Thursday afternoon. The sale was a fair one, though some of the well-broken horses sold for less than they were worth. The big bay carriage horses was bought by Mr. G. W. Wales, agent of the Eureka fire hose company, New York, for his own use. The pair of small bays were bought by Mr. W. L. Lawson, of Lancaster, lets of Honeybrook. The ordinance passed select opt stated meeting as reported by the comby striking from the tax list the follows by striking from the tax list the following:
4 horse wagon $5, two horse wagon $3, one horse wagon $1.50, dray $1, cart $1, other vehicles $1 and by adding the following to the section, taxing telegraph, telephone and electric light poles. "That this shall not include poles used by any electric light company or companies doing lighting for the city."

In common council there were present the the following members: Mears. Auger, Bare, Baumgardner, Cormeny, Cummings, Eaby, Eberman, Everts, Frailey, Goodell, Hartley, Hershey, Knapp, Sing, Stormfelis, and Beard, president. After the object of the meeting had been been stated, and the the cierk was about to read the ordinance as amended, Mr. Everts moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance was amended, and it was adopted by a vote of 11 to 4.

The ordinance as adopted by select council was then read section by section. When section 6 was reached providing tax for vehicles owned and used in the city, Mr. Kuapp said the section should be amended, so as to pro vide that the tax shall be on the number horses instead of the number of vehicles. He stated that many of our business men have duplicate wagons, and under the ordin-ance tax would have to be paid for each, al though only one would be in use.

Mr. Baumgardner said the object is not to make the tax exorbitant. The blanks that are signed by the owners of vehicles when applying for license will contain a provision that will cover the objections of Mr. Knapp The ordinance was adopted by a vote of ayes, all the members present except Mr. Auxer, who declined to vote for the ordi-nance. He gave as his reasons that the ordinance was too indefinite. It must be con strued as printed, and he was opposed to legislation which provided a certain tax and then left it to the judgment of a committee as to what was meant

Mr. Baumgardner said experience alone will point out the defects in the ordinance. and they can be remedied by the next coun-

Mr. Auxer gave as another reason for not voting that the ordinance was not legally adopted. This council was called to consider an ordinance as amended, and by a simple otion to reconsider, an ordinance is consid ared which was not before council.

Mr. Baumgardner took the position that the ordinance had been legally passed. Select council was in session to consider urther amendments to the ordinance, but as t finally passed the common branch, there was no necesity of further action, and that body adjourned.

The ordinance was approved by the mayor this morning, and will be found in the advertising columns.

Accepted the Call. Rev. Meminger, pastor of the First Re-formed church at Vincent, Chester couty, has accepted the call extended to him to take ge of St. Paul's Reformed church, which charge of St. Paul's Reformed church, which has been without a pastor since Rev. Shu-maker removed to Montgomery county. He will enter upon his pastoral duties on July 1. Rev. Meminger is a graduate of Ursinus college and, although a young man, is con-sidered one of the ablest pulpit orators in the church.

Cancelled Their Engagement. Barry & Fay, the Irish comedians, who were to have appeared here on Saturday eve-ning, have cancelled their engagement. The first telegram received by Mr. Yecker came from Martinsburg, West Virgina, and it ere by the sgent taken to the Pennsylvania railroad by noon yesterday in order that he could get them going through. The next ispatch came from Philadelphia and stated that the company would be unable to appear here owing to Mr. Barry's sudden illness.

It is not known whether or not that is the trouble. Taswell Acquitted. The trial of John Tawell for the murder of April. his wife, Catharine Taswell, near Ardmore, on the evening of October 31, was summarily ended in Norristown, on Thursday, when Judge Boyer instructed the jury to acquit the prisoner without even hearing the de-fense. The evidence adduced yesterday was not of the slightest importance, save to show that Mrs. Taswell's death was due to heart failure, which might have been superinduced by sudden fright, terror, surprise or alarm. Such was the testimony of Dr. Charles Brad-ley, who made a post-mortem examination of Arrests Cause Surprise. Great surprise has been occasioned in Car-liale over the arrest of Ph. Lesher and Wiliam Smith, well known citizens of Centreville. Cumberland county, on the charge of robbing the express office on the Harrisburg & Potomac railroad. The amount missing is considerable. Lesber and Smith are now lodged in jail and Paxton Davis is wanted,

The third of the illustrated lectures was given in Fulson opers house on Thursday evening. A large audience was greatly delighted with "Picturesque Ireland," and Mr. Ragan's description of the scenes were intensely interesting. The trip started from Queenstown, and the cities of Cork, Limerick, Dublin, Galway, Belfast, Wicklew and the West and North of Ireland were visited. The parks, mountains, castles and lakes were beautiful and evoked considerable applause. The last lecture this evening will be upon Yosemite and Yellowstone park.
