BATS PORSTER'S APPRAMANCE. gold Play to a Rather Sma

The audience which greeted Miss Kate Fursyth upon her first visit to this try as a clar, last night, was by no means large. The house was not one-third filled, and the gallary was almost entirely destitute of occu pants. There were several reasons for the considerable opposition at low prices, and him Forayth's were rather high for an actress whose name is no more familiar than her's to the amusement lovers of this city.

The play presented was "Faithful Hearta."
It is one of great merit, and is destined to become popular with the public. Miss property of Mudeling, the

THE KALFE FOUND

With Which George W. Pontz Was Stabbed.

His Condition To-day.

This morning, Henry Hoffman, who was one of the witnesses of the stabbing of George W. Pontz, found the weapon with which the deed was committed. It was under the step of the house in which Mr. Pontz was injured.

ey, it is supposed, threw the knile away his arrest. It is an ordinary two-Labeley, it is supposed, threw the knile away before his arrest. It is an ordinary two-binded pocket knife, and the cutting was done with the large blade, which is a trifle over two inches in length. There are blood marks on the knife, near the point. The weapon was delivered to Chief Smith and he handed it over to Alderman Barr. It will be identified at the hearing before that magistrate, after which it will be given to District Attorney Weaver to be used in the trial of the case at the April quarter sessions court. Mr. Ponts, the injured man, continues to be prove, and it is pretty certain that all danger from his wound is past. He is suffering from pleurisy, however.

The annual election for directors of the Pennsylvania railroad company resulted in the re-election of the old board. All general passes of the company will be taken up after April 1. It is possible that when free passes are handed in, in response to the call for their return, they would be marked good for use in the state in which they were issued. Trip passes may be issued to roins. sued. Trip passes may be issued to points in the state without violation of the inter-state commerce bill.

THE SEVENTE DAY BAPTISTS. It Has Been Decided to Call in a Third Judge to Settle the Controversy.

The court heard argument on Tuesday afternoon and this morning of all cases on the common pleas and orphans' court lists ready for argument, and are now in the quarter There is a probability of an early adjudication of the Seventh Day Baptists' troubles Every fourth year trustees are elected, and last January at the election held each faction returned to the court rival sets of trustees. The same difficulty presented itself as formerly existed on account of the division of our judges as to who were the legally elected trustees. The trustees of each faction presented their bonds for the approval of the court and the court granted rules in each case to show cause which one of the bonds should be appproved. The rules were called for argument this morning and the court announced that counsel interested should en deavor to agree upon a judge from a neighboring county to decide the matter. No one at yet has been agreed upon, but it is probable that a judge will be agreed upon in a few days.

The Intelligences advocated this step a few years ago when our judges disagreed, but it was not thought proper to heed the suggestion made then.

Andy Ehman's Pardon. The board of pardons held a secret session at Harrieburg on Tucsday atternoon. The petition of Andy Ehman for a pardon was considered and it was unanimously decided to recommend a pardon in his case. It was erroneously stated last week that the pardor had been recommended then, but the pardor board had so much business that there was no time then for the consideration of his petition. The pardon, it is expected, will arrive here some time this afternoon, and he will be released when it arrives. Death of Dr. Barton Evans.

Dr. Barton Evans, a prominent citizen of Wrightsville, where he had resided for sixty years, died on Monday afternoon, after an illness of six days, aged 87 years. He was born near Churchtown, Lancaster county. He served for many years as director and president of the Columbia National bank, and at the time of his death was a director of the First National bank of Wrightsville. One sister, Margaret, aged 84 years, survives him. He retired from practice 40 years ago. His wife and only child died five years ago. The funeral services take place at his residence on

CARPET CLEANING BARD & MCELROY,

WORKS.

Four years ago, as an experiment, we put up a small machine for cleaning carpets by steam power instead of hand-beating. Each year since we have been compelled to enlarge our works, put in additional machinery of the latest improvements, and we this season have a plant second to none in the State, and with a capacity for cleaning over 5,000 yards per day.

This addition of new machinery was necessitated by our rapidly increasing business each year. All this is the result of doing what we promised when we started. That is returning carpets the same day without regard to weather, and returning them thoroughly clean-a thing that cannot be done by the old plan of beating carpets by hand. We have cleaned many carpets sent to us from Harrisburg, York, Columbia, Lebance, etc.

All we sak is a trial, feeling sure when once tried you will never have a carpet beaten by hand again. The steam-power cleaning has rapidly grown in the larger cities, Philadelphia having no less than fitteen different carpet-cleaning works.

As usual, with every new thing interested (f) persons have circulated reports to the effect that carpets are torn, spoiled or shrunk by the steam, &c. In reply, we will say such is not the case; that if we tear your carpets anywhere we will give you a new one of the same quality.
as far as the steam spoiling and shrinking, that is another "fairy tale," as the steam does not touch the carpet, merely drives the machinery. In the last four years we have cleaned thousands of yards of curpet, and have torn but one, and that by carelessness of an employe. It was an old one and the owner received a new one in its stead.

Customers are always welcome to in-spect the machinery and see how the cleaning is done. You can see at a glance that the carpets are in no way injured. We are owners of the patent process of cleaning carpets without removing from the floor—a very good thing in its way, but we always advise taking up the car-pets if at all possible. This is the only proper way to do where it can be done; where it cannot be done, the other is a good substitute.

The machinery for beating carpets simply removes the dust and dirt and brightens the colors. For removing ink, grease or stains from carpets we have another process, which is perfect in its work and will thoroughly remove all traces of sull, and will restore colors as bright as Our prices are but little more, if any, than band-beating, and you are sure 'n' having it done right, and when promised, rain or no rain. Not only are the moth removed from the carpet, but they are not likely to attack it for a year or so to Come.
We have no connection with any other carpet cleaning works. Be sure your orders get at the right place. Works-Oblie's Building, corner Church and Duke Leave orders at
