These report on the cetate of Hearts. Bouchelie & Co. at Marcouli-cur-ay; this includes a remarkable piece of property named "Lee goisses," which can be shown to any foreigner traveling through France, as an illustration of the ideal accomplishment of a Champagne vineyard. "Situated on a hillslope," says our friend, "with the beams of the sun freely lavishing from dawn to sunset their beneficial warmth on it, this vineyard seems to cumulate all the qualities required for the production of perfect grapes. Its surface soil gives the fruit the fineness and bouquet, while the heat of the sun is counterbalanced by the freshness constantly drawn up from the lower ground by a network of roots, which spread themselves in a bed of chalk." There is a great deal of this product in the Bouche See Champagne, which explains its peculiar fineness and aroms so much renowned among the connoisseurs; but amateurs destrous of obtaining the wine coming from the "Golsses" estate only would have to ask tor the Bouche See Extra. Both of these wines are sold exclusively by H. E. SLATMAKER, REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE, 20 EAST KING STREET.

THE WHEELT INTELLIGENCES, If paid a year in advance, can be had for $1.50. Hundreds have taken advantage of this to secure their paper and to save one-fourth of the former price. Both the Daily and Wheelt are gaining rapidly in circulation. They contain all the news; and that is why the lists are on the increase.

The Champion Coming.—John L. Sullivan is making his farewell tour of this country previous to his departure for Australia. He is stopping in each town for one night only, and he will reach Lancaster on Saturday afternoon. The audience here promises to be very large, as the people are always anxious to see the champion. Sullivan will have book with Joe Lancaster. pion. Sullivan will have a bout with Joe Lan-non and will wind up with Steve Taylor.

"Ruddygore" Next Thursday.—The opers of "Ruddygore" will be given here by the Mc-Caull opers company with the same cast exactly that has appeared in it at the Broad Street theatre, Philadelphia. Lancaster people will always patronize the good class of entertain-ments, and the best evidence of this is the large audiences which have turned out this season to greet the fine companies that have visited us. The one coming includes such well known peo-ple as Digby Bell, Edwin W. Huff, Misses Lily Post, Annie Meyers, Mrs. Laura Joyce-Bell and a full orchestra. full orchestra.

The Big Minstrels.—The minstrel company of McNish, Johnson & Siavin, which appears here on Wednesday evening next, is conceded by all to be one of the finest ever organized. It includes forty-two people, headed by the great Frank McNish, the originator of the act, entitled "Silence and Fun." Bob Slavin and Carroll Johnson, Frank Howard, the popular singer and composer, are among the vocalists, and the great band and orchestra are big features of the show.

Skating and Dancing.—The large attendance at Meanerchor rink every Saturday evening
