The information comes from a very reliable source that the town has the prospects of a new industry in the shape of a nested in Chester county and has a very reliable to the county and ve trade. If a suitable location can be red the factory will be located here. The se interested are willing to pay a fair mial for a term of years or would purchase a tie if they can do so. Foreign capital is at he head of the industry. Installation of Officers.

The following officers were installed last night at a meeting of Susquehanna Lodge, No. 80, of Odd Fellows: Noble grand, John Mouk; vice grand, John Horn; secretary, R. J. M. Little; assistant secretary, Daniel Stape, jr.; tressurer, John S. Musser. The peremonies of installation were conducted by District Deputy E. J. Erisman, of Lancaster. Meeting of the Columbia Fire Company.

The Columbia Fire company held a special or the reception of the new fire engine. It led to hold a parade on Friday, May 20, at 10 a. m. ; in the afternoon the new ne will be tested and a grand firemen's mil, in the rink, in the evening. The music for the ball will be furnished by a brass band. About a dozen fire companies have been invited and the parade promises to be the largest ever held in town. The citizens should extend their aid to the company and dp them entertain the visitors and make the parade a success.

Notice has been given to the Susquehanna rolling mill company by the puddlers, heaters, and roll hands, that they want an ce of ten cents per ton. The company promised the men to pay the Philadelphia scale of prices and would increase or lower their wages the same as mills in that city. The Philadelphia mills have increased ten cents per ton, and the men at the "little" mill bave given two weeks notice for the increase. The company is now paying $3.95 per ton and the

An umbrella mender and a well-dressed man, as companions, both, drunk, were at the toll-house of the bridge yesterday afternoon. The first man wanted a tramp ticket, which was refused by Collector Uphleman, when they became very abusive. The tramp le several attempts to cross without a ticket but could not do so. The umbrella mender left the place and managed to secure enough money to buy a ticket and they were allowed to cross, Rev. Meminger Will Accept. Rev. Mr. Meminger, pastor of Brown-sch's church, East Coventry, Chester nty, some months ago received a call to he charge of the Second Reformed church,

The call has been renewed and the reverend gentleman has concluded to accept, provided the classic will dissolve his present relations ith Brownback's church, which will be emined upon on the 19th of May, when the classis meet in Heidelberg church, Philadelphia. The members of the Brownba'k's church part with Mr. Meminger with great reluctance, as the church has flourished greatly since he has been in pastoral charge, about seven months, during which time 40 members have been added to the church. Going to Columbus, Ohio.

William F. Lebzelter, son of Philip Leb elter, leaves Lancaster to night to make his home in Columbus, Onio. He goes there to take part in the management of the Columbus Wheel and Bending company works, in which his father and himself are heavily in berested. The young man has many warm friends in Lancaster who will regret his going from their midst, but they cannot but seel rejoiced at the higher opportunities that seel rejoiced at the higher opportunities that open up before him in his new field of duty.

Three Thousand Dollars Debt Paid. Rev. Dr. P. J. McCullagh, of St. Mary's Rev. Dr. P. J. McCullagh, of St. Mary's Catholic church, this morning received from John A. Coyle, esq., $3,000, for the building lots on West Vine street, opposite that church. The amount was at once applied towards the payment of the church debt, and there is yet left to pay about $4,000 of the debt contracted in the remodelling of the church. With the agentam adopted of recent by arch. With the system adopted of monthly liections, the entire debt will be paid in at two years.

Mesers. Raymond & Whiteomb's Pacific Coast Trips. Trips.

The advantages combined in a Raymond & Whiteomb Excursion to California are altogether too numerous to sum up in a brief newspaper notice. Suffice it to say that the oldest and most exacting class of travelers find most to commend in the Raymond system, which differs essentially from ordinary excursion methods. A party will leave Philadelphia April is in a special train, and under special conductorship, for a most attractive tour which is to in clude the Pacific Coast and the most interesting scenic points lying between the Atlantic and morning instead of being worn out from the effect of the long hours of the preceding day, bright and cheerful entering into their task with much better feeling toward both em-pleyer and customer. The excuse offered by the few firms who propose to break the contract they voluntarily signed last fall, when viewed in the correct light, is ridienscenic points lying between the Atlantic and Pacific. One section will return from San Fran-cisco via Salt Lake City, Manitou Springs, Den-ver and Omaha, and the other will extend its travels to Oregon, Puget Sound and British Columbia, returning over the Northern Pacific rail open two nights.
