WE THEE HAIL.

On many banks beneath the trees
The violet loves to dwell;
It casts its scents on every breeze
That sweeps its native dell.

The woodland copses with primrose flowers
When April paints the scene;
Soon bluebells haunt the self-same bowers,
And orchids blush between.

The honeysuckle's sweet perfume
Revives the sultry air,
When songsters throng the forest gloom,
And warble everywhere.

But you, sweet daisy, lend no shade
To soothe your sunny form;
You dwell not in the leafy glade,
But breast the rising storm.

Where other flowers would droop and die,
You deck the grassy sod;
And upward glance with golden eye
To meet the gaze of God.

Mrs Cleveland's Dog Eats Soup.

Washington Letter to Baltimore American.

Every one wondered one day last week why "the physician to the president" had been summoned to the White House in such haste. Many thought that dreaded attack predicted by Dr. Somers had fallen on the president, but the fears of the country need not be overworked. The president still is well, and it is only Hector that was ill. The Antwerp poodle had gotten upstairs and into one of the bedrooms, where he found two delightful-smelling cakes of soap. The imported "purp" ate both of them, and he was ill—that was all. The dog was banished to Red Top, and there made night hideous with his yells and howling. The steward had just gotten a new set of servants who had not heard of the "spooks" at the place, and when they heard Hector howl they packed up their bag and baggage and left instantly. For they believed that if the dog howled he either saw or heard something supernatural. Hector is now back at the White House, but in close quarters.

Five Prisoners Publicly Lynched.

At 4 o'clock Tuesday morning about sixty undisguised men forcibly entered the jail at Yorkville, S. C., and broke open the cells occupied by Giles Good, Bailey, Dowdle, Dan Roberts, Printy Thompson and Moss Lipscomp, colored, charged with the murder of John L. Good, a young white lad, in December last. Taking the prisoners one mile north of the village they hanged them to the limbs of trees. These men organized a conspiracy in the fall of 1886 to steal cotton, and to murder if necessary to conceal their crimes, and they killed young Good.

A New Travers Joke.

Correspondence Philadelphia Record.

I thought all the William R. Travers stories had been told. But here is one told at luncheon the other day apropos of a refractory pepper bottle which I had never heard before: "Travers was struggling with a pepper bottle that wouldn't work one day, when he suddenly set it down with the remark: 'P-p-p-cor d-d-elivery, like m-m-myself.'"

Unpleasant Features of Hotel Life.

Stomach Bitter Acids.

These, if existent in a natural quantity, and unvitiated by bile, play their part in the functions of digestion and assimilation. But the artificial acid resulting from the inability of the stomach to convert food received by it into sustenance, is the producer of flatulence and heartburn, which are the most harassing symptoms of dyspepsia. The best carminative is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Far more effective is it than carbonate of soda, magnesia or other alkaline salts. These invariably weaken the stomach without producing permanent benefit. No man or woman chronically dyspeptic, and consequently nervous, can be in possession of the full measure of vigor allowed by nature. Therefore, invigorate and regulate the system, and by so doing protect it from malaria, rheumatism and other serious maladies.

It speaks for itself is what a lady said of Dr Bull's Cough Syrup the other day. A single bottle had cured her child of a most dreadful cough. It never fails to give speedy relief and permanent cure

One application of Salvation Oil well rubbed in cured me of rheumatism in the arm, of two months standing. I never intend to be without it. M. B. KRAMER, Washington, D. C.

A Voice Restored.

AMITYVILLE, N. Y., March 5, 1886.

Two years ago my son was attacked with a severe cold which settled in his throat, and he entirely lost his voice. I was advised to put ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS around his neck. I applied two. In one day he was much better, and in four days he was perfectly well. I, for one, can recommend Allcock's Plasters as first-class. MRS. JOHN DAY.

Even If You Buy a Dozen

common porous plasters—which you can get for a song at any of the Cheap John druggists—you have merely thrown away your money, for one Benson's Capcine Plaster is worth them all. The reason is this: Benson's is the only porous plaster in the market that is honestly and skilfully made, and scientifically medicated. Others are no more than nominal imitations of Benson's. They are cheap because they possess none of the ingredients which render Benson's valuable. The latter are prompt to act, pleasant to wear, and cure in a few hours ailments which others will not even relieve. The public are especially warned against so-called "Capucin," "Capalcum" "Capsicin," "Capsicine" plasters, as worthless articles intended to deceive. Ask for Benson's and look for the "Three Seals" trademark, and the word "Capcine" cut in the centre. apl M,W,S&W

OUR BOWELS REMOVED A CURE.—Mr. Oscar H. B. Koch, of Allentown, Pa., was bedfast with inflammatory rheumatism in the winter of 1885. Doctors could do nothing to relieve him. He commenced using Oscar's Rheumatic Remedy By the time he had used half a bottle he could leave his bed; when he had finished the bottle he was cured and has not had a return of the disease since. In his own words, "I feel better than ever before." Price $1, by all druggists.

All medical authorities agree that catarrh is no more nor less than an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nasal air passages. Nasal catarrh and all catarrhal affections of the head are not diseases of the blood, and it is a serious mistake to treat them as such. No competent physician ever attempts to do so. It is held by eminent medical men that nearly or quite a specific will be found for every disease from which humanity suffers. The fact justifies us in announcing that for catarrh in any of its forms only one remedy exists in Ely's Cream Balm. myl6-lydAw

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Purify Your Blood

Good health depends upon pure blood; therefore, to keep well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the scrofulous and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and waste matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs, invigorates the nervous system, tones the digestion, and imparts new life and energy to all the functions of the body. A peculiarity of is that it strengthens and builds up the system while it eradicates disease.

"I must say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least work I did fatigued me very much. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon I felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is voracious." MRS. M. V. BAYARD, Atlantic City, N. J.

N. B.—If you have made up your mind to get Hood's Sarsaparilla do not take any other.

Now is the time to purify the blood, for at no other season is the body so susceptible to benefit from medicine. The peculiar purifying and curing qualities of Hood's Sarsaparilla are just what are needed to expel disease and fortify the system against the debilitating effects of mild weather. Every year increases the popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is just what people need at this season. It is the ideal spring medicine. If you have never tried it, do so, and you will be convinced of its peculiar merit.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has driven the poison from my blood, and though 76, I feel active and strong as at 50." W. M. GROSMIRE, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Spring Medicine.

"I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring medicine, and I find it just the thing. It tones up my system and makes me feel like a different man. My wife takes it for dyspepsia, and she derives great benefit from it." FRANK C. TURRIN, Hook & Ladder No. 1, Friend Street, Boston.

"I had salt rheum on my left arm three years, suffering terribly; it almost disabled me from work. I took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the salt rheum has entirely disappeared." H. M. MILLS, 71 French Street, Lowell, Mass.

Cancer of the Tongue.

My wife, some three or four years ago, was troubled with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half-dozen small-sized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.
