The ministers conducting the services were Rev. J. Y. Mitchell, D. D., of this city; Rev. John Galbreath, of Chestnut Level; Rev. Jas. Conway, of Port Deposit, and Rev. D. M. Davenport, of Slate Ridge, York county. These gentlemen met in Mount Joy Tuesday forencon, and accompanied by the pastor-elect and his venerable mother visited the family of Dr. J. L. Ziegier, by whom an elaborate dinner had been prepared for the party.

After dinner all drove over to Donegal church, where a large congregation had as-sembled to witness the installation services which began at 2 o'clock. Rev. Davenport presided and Rev. Galbreath preached the ermon, his text being "Jebovan Shammah -The Lord Was There." After the sermon the moderator, Ray. Daverport, propounded the constitutional questions, which we canswered affirmatively by the pastor elect and the members of the church, after which Dr. Mitchell delivered the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Conway the charge to the people Then followed prayer and singing and the congregation was dismissed with benediction by the new pastor.

On returning to Mt. Joy the party went to the residence of Eider James Patterson, where they were handsomely entertained.

At 7 o'clock they met a congregation in Mount Joy Presbyterian church, where installation services similar to those held at Donegal were had. Rev. Dr. Mitchell presided and proposed the constitutional quesions, which were affirmatively answered. Rev. Conway preached the sermon from the text "The son of man came not to be min istered to but to minister." Rev Davenpor delivered the charge to the pastor, and Rev Galbreath the charge to the people. The se vices closed with prayer and singing and

It is worthy of note that the music of "Old Donegal," consisted of selections from the old, old hyruns sang there a hundred year ago by "the rude fathers of the hamlet. The hymns were well sung and th music enjoyed by the congregation. At Mount Joy, on the contrary, the music was of a more modern style, two five an thems being sung by the choir.

Rev. Snook, who thus takes charge of tw flourishing churches, is a single young man of superior attainments. He comes from Wil mington, Del., where he is well and favora bly known. His present field of duty is large one and affords opportunities of doin good work. Mr. Snook has already taker possession of the Presbyterian parsonage in Mount Joy, which has been renovated an nicely furnished by the congregation, who have added many valuable presents to set him up in bousekeeping.

viously acknowledged Amusements, The Minstrels To-night.—This evening the fa-mous McNish, Johnson & Slavin's minstrels will appear in Fulton opera house. The company is composed of artists, who in their lines are second to none, and they give a remarkably bright entertainment. The comedians are the best, while the vocalists, clog dancers, &c., are of the same kind. The fine band and orchestra furnish excellent music. Lanca-ter has had very few minstrel companies, and this one should draw largely.

"Kuddygore" To morrow Night.—A sufficiently large number of seats have already been sold for the production of "Euddygore" to insure a large audience to-morrow night at Fulton oper house. There is no doubt that the company is an excellent one, and it could not be otherwise with such people as Digby Bell, Edwin H. Heff, Misses Lilly Post, Annie Meyers, Mrs. Laura Joyce Bell, Ellis Ryse and others.
