"Zo Z)" This Evening—This evening "Zo Zo," the great spectacular play, will be produced at fulton opera house by C. D. Gardiner's large company, headed by Blanche Curti-se, the charming and taient young woman, who is known as the "Yassar Beauty." George H.
Adams, whose name is familiar throughout the entire country, is the leading comedian, and there is a score or more handsome young ladies, who are seen in marches, drills, &c. The company was in Kingston, N Y., the other evening, and the correspondent of the New York Mirror at that place says: "Zo Zo' March 29: good performance. The drill scene was particularly impressive, eliciting much applause." The Mewburg correspondent writes: "Zo Zo came to good business. Miss Curtisse is an easy, selfpossessed actress, who takes well with her audicance." The company was in Allentown on Thursday night to big business, and the papers of that city speak in the highest torms of them.
The King Street Theatre.—The attraction at the King Street theatre next week will be Right
