the April Court. Monday afternoon when a member of the Lancaster bar called at Alderman McGlinn's office in behalf of Ida Shubert, charged with the larceny of her sister's bracelets and petti cost, both Ida's sister and mother were in the alderman's office. The sister, Mrs. Kate Dougal, John Hyson ; Hopewell, Rev. Cross, Baumgardner, wished to withdraw the com plaint, because she had discovered that the bracelets had not been stolen, but were found in a bureau drawer in her own house and that the girls were in the habit of wear ing each others petticoats as convenience required. The alderman however would not allow the complainant to withdraw the complaint, and even threatened to send her to fall unless she had the costs, about $8, paid by Sclock, and would not even set a time for Ida's hearing.
