THE SOUL OF NATURE.

For the INTELLIGENCER

In Spring, when all the earth bursts forth in gladness,
Then is my soul oft filled with bitter sadness,
And my restless heart seems all on fire,
With a hungry longing and desire,
Which this heaven of beauty doth inspire.

Within this perfect beauty which I see,
Deep in the heart of lily, rose and tree,
Throbs a soul in sympathy with mine,
Awakened by the holy love divine,
To which must all our noblest thoughts incline.

And yet that soul of nature pure and fair
Doth make me turn from earth'y, sordid care,
And long to rise to higher, nobler spheres,
Where mourning shall not be, nor sins nor fears,
And where supremest love shall wipe my tears.
—H. R.

The Spring Appetite.

From the New York World.

With the first mild days of spring and the enervating relaxation which they bring to the system, comes the dull desire for food and the fussiness in regard to eating that is known as "the spring appetite."

There is no good reason why the appetite should not be as good in the spring as at other seasons, and it would be in healthful persons if they would treat their stomachs as sensibly as they do their stoves. But men who know enough to diminish the amount of fuel in the furnace as the cold weather moderates, and to lighten their clothing gradually, continue to "stoke" the stomach, which is the furnace of the body—or to wish to do so—as vigorously in April as in December. As a result the system becomes overheated and clogged, and the unintelligent sufferer begins his regular course of "spring bitters," pill and "blood purifiers."

Lighter and fresher foods, substituting eggs and fish, uncooked vegetables like lettuce and water cresses, grains and fruit, for the heartier diet of the winter, and a recourse to more exercise in the open air, will in a majority of cases make the "spring appetite" as pleasant in its way as the sharper one of winter. A little common sense in regulating the regimen of our lives would save no end of trouble—not to mention the doctors' bills.

Less Tobacco Smoked in France.

Paris Dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph.

The growing virtue of the French in the matter of tobacco smoking bids fair to create yet another difficulty in the arduous task of balancing the budget of the republic. It appears that the tax on this pleasant vice produced last year 6,000,000f. less than in the year 1885. The theory has been broached that as men get on in life they smoke less, for the reason that they gradually become so saturated with nicotine that they cannot hold any more. This would not, however, explain the diminution, seeing that the place of old men is taken by the rising generation. So the theory is pushed still further, and it is argued that as the process of absorption of nicotine goes on from generation to generation, the sons of smokers are not able to consume so much tobacco as the children of non-smokers. Oddly enough, the diminution of consumption is only in smoking tobacco, while as much snuff is sold as formerly. The enormous sum of 80,000,000f. is annually spent in snuff. Where the snuff-takers live is an enigma. In Paris, at all events, the habit, if one may judge from one's own experience, is unknown.

She Sobered Him.

From the Omaha World.

Omaha man (time 2 a. m.)—M'dear, open door (hic), shus from bus-business, m'dear (hic), ope door.

Wife (at upstairs window)—Who are you? Go away or I'll call the police.

"M'dear, I'm your husband, m'dear, ope' door——"

"My husband, indeed! My husband came in four hours ago and is fast asleep. You are an impostor."

"Eh! Wha—m'dear?"

"My husband is here asleep."

"What——"

"Here as'eep. Go away."

"What?"

"You are an impostor."

"Wha! My gracious! Oh! This is terrible!"

"Well, now that you are somewhat sober I'll let you in."

A Leader of Renown.

From the San Francisco Alta.

The really great leader is the partner who leads trump opportunely.

Opera Costume.

From the Boston Courier.

Wife—Will you take me to the opera to-night, dear?

Husband—Yes, go and undress.

In Town and Hamlet.

The seeds of intermittent and bilious remittent fever germinate and bear evil fruit. No community has altogether escaped it. In populous wards of large cities bad sewage causes it, and in their suburbs stagnant pools in sunken lots breed it. There is at once a remedy and a means of prevention. Its name is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is, without peradventure, the most potent antidote in existence to the malarial virus. Fortified with this incomparable, saving specific, miasmatic influences may be encountered with absolute impunity. Disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, begotten by miasma tainted water, or any other cause, succumb to the beneficent corrective named, and rheumatic, kidney and bladder troubles are surely removable by its use when it is given a persistent trial.

Stop that coughing; if you do not, it may kill you. A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup only costs you 25 cents, and its timely use may save your life.

I had always been much annoyed by neuralgia and headache. At length I determined to try Salvation Oil. I am glad to recommend it, as it made a perfect cure in my case.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and North Queen street, Lancaster.

Glad to Hear It.

"For several months I endured a dull pain through my lungs and shoulders; lost my spirits, appetite and cover, and could with difficulty remain from my bed. My present healthful condition is due to Burdock Blood Bitters." Mrs. E. A. Hall, Binghamton, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Mr. George Dodge Speaks.

This gentleman lives in Emporium, Pa., and says, "One of my men, Sam Lewis, while working in the woods sprained his ankle so bad he could hardly hobble to the house. Used Thomas' Eclectric Oil and was ready for work the next morning. I have never yet seen so good a medicine. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Sowing Wild Oats.

How many waste their time and resources in foolish experiments, with nasty worthless medicines that can never do them a whit of good. If you are sick and want help get a reputable remedy of established merit. The curative virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters have never been questioned. For an extended circulation or a weak stomach they are splendid. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

What We Can Cure. Let's Not Endure.

If we can cure an ache, or a sprain, or a pain, or a lameness, or a burn, or a bruise, or a bite, by using Thomas' Eclectric Oil, let's do it. "Thomas' Eclectric Oil" is known to be good. Let's try it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

From Syracuse, N. Y.

"I felt weak and languid; had palpitation of the heart and numbness of the limbs. Burdock Blood Bitters have certainly relieved me. They are most excellent." Mr. J. M. Wright. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Purify Your Blood

Good health depends upon pure blood; therefore, to keep well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs, invigorates the nervous system, tones the digestion, and imparts new life and energy to all the functions of the body. A peculiarity of is that it strengthens and builds up the system while it eradicates disease.

"I must say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least work I did fatigued me ever so much. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon I felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is voracious." MRS. M. V. BAYARD, Atlantic City, N. J.

N. B—If you have made up your mind to get Hood's Sarsaparilla do not take any other.

Now is the time to purify the blood, for at no other season is the body so susceptible to benefit from medicine. The peculiar purifying and reviving qualities of Hood's Sarsaparilla are just what are needed to expel disease and fortify the system against the debilitating effects of mild weather. Every year increases the popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla for it is just what people need at this season. It is the ideal spring medicine. If you have never tried it, do so, and you will be convinced of its peculiar merit.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has driven the poison from my blood, and though 76, I feel active and strong as at 30." W. E. GROSSMAN, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Spring Medicine.

"I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring medicine, and I find it just the thing. It tones up my system and makes me feel like a different man. My wife takes it for dyspepsia, and she derives great benefit from it." FRANK C. TURNER, Hook & Ladder No. 1, Friend Street, Boston.

"I had salt rheum on my left arm three years, suffering terribly; it almost disabled me from work. I took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the salt rheum has entirely disappeared." H. M. MILLS, 71 French Street, Lowell, Mass.

Cancer of the Tongue.

My wife, some three or four years ago, was troubled with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half-dozen small-sized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.
