A Very Fine Concert. concert under the auspices of the Greenwald Choral society, given in Trinity Lutheran chapel Thursday evening, was the best of the many fine entertainments given there. The bright particular star was Miss Sallie A. Shearer, of Reading, Pa., a soprano soloist, who astonished and delighted all nt by the wonderful culture and sweetness of her voice, and the expression with h she sang the pieces assigned her. These were "I'll follow thee" (Farmer); "Last Night" (Kjeruli); "I've Somthing Tell You" (Faning); "Sunshine and "Good Bye" (Tosti). Mr. Wm. B. Hall and Mr. George Hambright sang "Ship Aboy" in fine voice. Miss Gussie Diffender-

ARMORY OF LANCASTER DIVISION, NO. 6, UNIFORM KANK, KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS, LANCASTER, PA, APTII 16, 1897. The Sir Knights of Lancaster Division, No. 6,

Knights of Pythias, mourn for Henry Short, our respected and beloved Sir Knight Commander In the full tide of manhood, a little over two-score and three years of age, he was suddenly and unexpectedly called from the command of our Division to join the grand battalion of Si

At the early age of ten years he left his native fatheriand and came to this country and adopted this land-free America, as his future home. At seventeen years of age, when the late civil was broke out, he made the tender of his own life that the Union might live.

The country needing its best and bravest men accepted his offer. He went to the front with enthusiasm and personal courage. He survived the conflict of armed men with a wound and ruined health and returned to his home, to renew his career as a citizen in our midat As a citizen and neighbor he was respected by all who knew him. He was the best type of a kind and loving father. He joined our ranks and ever indeed proved himself a true Sir Knight. He was also true to neighbor, friend, comrade and Sir Knight, and it may well be said of himthis was a man. As our Sir Enight Commander we cheerfully obeyed his commands, and willingly followed where he might lead. To the bereaved willow and fatheriess chilfren, whose great grief, words cannot express, we the Sir Knights of Lancaster Division, No. 6, C. B. #### A CHAMPAGNE VINETARD.

Very few people, even among those who ap preclate the quality and fineness of the genuine French Champagne wines, have a correct idea of he extreme care and solicitude with a new restriction of the second seco vineyards are kept in the district of Champagne, which undoubted is is one of the richest and best cultivated parts of the world. One of our irlends lately returned from France gives th culogious report on the estate of Messrs. Bouche flis & Co. at Marseull-sur-ay; this includes a remarkable piece of property named "Less golesce," which can be shown to any foreigner traveling through France, as an illustration of the ideal accommishment of a Champagnee to a traveling through France, as an illustration of the ideal accomplishment of a Champagne vine-yard. "Situated on a hillslope." says our friend. "with the beams of the sun freely lavishing from dawn to sunset their baneficial warmth on i', this vineyard seems to cumulate all the qualities required for the production of per-fect grapes. Its surface soil gives the fruit the fineness and bouquet, while the beat of the sun is counterbalanced by the freshness constantly drawn up from the lower ground by a network of roots, which spread themselves in a bed of chalk." There is a great deal of this product in the Bouche See Champagne, which explains its peculjar fineness and aroma so much renowned among the connoiseurs; but amateurs desirous
