Slight Fire at the Prison.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock there was a light fire at the Lancaster county jail. Mr. Hauffer, the contractor for tearing down the wer, had a number of workmen engaged in its demolition. They threw the lum down from the tower and some of it lodged on the flues that lead from the dwelling and bake-house to the main flue in the tower Here the lumber caught fire and the flames spread rapidly along the roof of the keeper's dwelling. A bucket brigade was hurriedly organized and the fire was soon extinguished. The only damage done was the burning of ne lumber and the soaking of the ceilings some lumber and the scaking of the central of the dwelling. No slarm of fire was Engagement Drawing to a Close. At the King street theatre last evening there was a large audience present to see "The Boss" played by Rightmire's company which closes the week's engagement this evening. Next week Walter Sanford's company appears in "Under the Lesh." That will be the last dramatic company of the season, as the house will only play variety people.

Returning to Their Studies, Stuart D. Hamilton and George M. Dor wart, students in the General Theological seminary, New York, who have been on a visit to triends in Lancaster, left here to day to resume their studies for the ministry.
W. H. I. Houghton, of Utab, who has been visiting his friend Wm. Dorwart, of this city, will leave here on Monday, accompanied by Mr. Dorwart, for St. Stephen's college, An nandale, Duchese county, N. Y., where both are entered as students. A New Mail Pouch,

This evening a new mail pouch will be put upon the 6:45 train between Lancaster and Philadelphia. This will be a great advantage, as heretofore the latest mail to leave this city in the evening for the East was on Day Ex. press at 4:45. Mail placed in the postoffice as late as 6:30, under the new arrangement, will reach Philadelphia by nine o'clock.

Judgment Against the County This morning, before Alderman McCon omy, a hearing was held in the case of Fred-rick Hoffman vs. the county of Lancaster. This is a suit to recover $67.19, the amoun of Hoffman's expenses in visiting Delaware, Ohio, and bringing Andrew Ehman to Lancaster. The district attorney told Hoffman, according to the latter's story, that the county would pay the costs, but when the bill was presented to the commissioners they refused o pay it. Their only defense is that Hoff man received $50, the reward offered for Eh man's return, and that was all be was entitled to. The alderman gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount of the claim. The Orion's Big Ball.

The Orion Gunning and Fishing club held their first ball in Mænnerchor hall last evening. The attendance was very large and in the promenade, which started shortly be-fore 10 o'clock, one hundred and thirty-five couples participated. Harry Resh and Miss Mamie Lutz led it. Taylor's orchestra furnished the music, and the affair passed off very nicely.

The Central Transportation Sait. Counsel for the Central Transportation is Philadelphia on Friday filed an answer in the United States circuit court to the bill in equity recently filed by the Pullman Palace Car company. Denials are made therein to numerous allegations made by the complain-ant and the court is asked to dismise the proceedings in equity upon the ground that the facts involved are determinable in a suit at law. A portion of the litigation between the two companies is set down for a hearing early in May.

To Attend the Funeral. At a meeting of Montery lodge last even ing the following committee was appointed to represent the lodge at the funeral of Past Grand Samuel Souders, of Donegal lodge, to be held at Marietta, Monday morning: Mesers C. G. Herr, E. J. Erisman, Joseph G. Kreider, C. F. Smith, J. G. Remiey and E. E. Snyder.

Marie Blanchard Dies. Marie Blanchard, a pretty girl of eighteen, died Friday afternoon at the house of her uncle, Wheaton Berault, a wealthy lawyer o Vineland, N. J. On the first of April abe shot herself, and since then she has been hovering between life and death. A love affair was the cause.

Measrs. Eater and Sharp, the young met who figured so prominently in the papers last week, in connection with an elopement, have returned to Marietta. Killed by the Cars.

D. Banks Hoffman, aged 47, of Harrisburg, was run over by a train there Friday evening, and almost instantly killed. Both his legs were crushed. He leaves a wife and four children.

Trout Fishing Begins. The anglers for trout are now whipping the brooks and hoisting the speckled beauties from their palaces in the currents.

A Grand Opening Rose Bros. & Hartman are baving to-day their grand spring opening of umbrellas and sunshades at their store, No. 14 East King street. The show windows are banked street. The show windows are banked with spring flowers, ierna, palms and other tropical plants, among which are placed parasols almost as gay as the flowers. The interior of the store is also elaborately decorated with lilies, roses, and other flowers, and hundreds of fine foliage plants. The display has been very beautifully arranged by Harry Schroyer. The exhibit of umbrellas, sunahades, &c., is the finest ever seen in Lancaster. The counters and cases are filled with them in all sizes, colors and styles, and from the ceiling are hung a great variety of parasols that at once attract the cultured taste of the ladies. Step in and take a look at the pretty store.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary.

It is announced that Monterey Lodge,
No. 243, I. O. O. F., of this city, will on next Thursday evening celebrate the 46th anniversary of their lodge. Past Grand Sira, James B.
Nicholson, of Philadelphia, one of the most prominent Odd Fellows in this country, will deliver an address. There will be vocal solos by Misses Leila Bair, Dollie Sener and others, and the Cecelian orchestra will furnish the teature. the Cecelian orchestra will furnish the instrumental music. E. J. Erisman will read the his tory of the lolge.

"Uncle Tom" This Evening.—This afternoon Holland's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company appeared in Fulion opera house, and this evening they will repeat the play. The company is well spoken of by the press of other cities, and it will no doubt draw largely here. They do not claim to have a double company with a big brase band and other sensational features, but do claim a complete troupe of actors and actresces.

Notics in "The Phanix."—Milton Mobies is one of the best-known actors in the country.

Nobles in "The Phanix,"—Milion Nobles is one of the best-known actors in the country, and as he has not been seen in Lancaster for several years the people will be pleased to learn that he will be here on Monday next, when he plays "The Phenix" in Fulton opera house. The play is very funny, and Mr. Robles' company, is strong. It includes Miss Dolly Nobles in the leading female character and many other require artists. " Under the Lash."-Next week Walter San-

"Under the Lash."—Next week Walter Sanford appears every night at the King Street the atre in the sensational play of "Under the Lash." Mr. Sanford is a celebrated young actor with a popular piece and strong company of people. The play should draw largely all week. "The Black Fing."—On next Tuesday evening Edward Thorne will play "The Black Fing." a very popular melo drama, in Fulton opera house, and there is no reason why he should not have a large audience. The New York World cays: "The part of the heroof the drama, Harry Giynden, is still played by Mr. Edward Thorne, who has so perfected it that it stands out an unrivaled piece of melo-dramatic characterisation. His power in the pathetic situations is shown to greater advantage than ever before."

Bhating and Daneing.—Don't forget that there will be good muste to night at Mmanerchor risk.

Donegai Lodge, No. 1:9, L. O. O. F., Monterey Lodge, No. 2:2 L. O. O.
