ABLIGHT FIRE.

The Roof of the Enterprise Foundry Building

Damaged Somewhat.

The sounding of the fire starm shortly before one c'clock this morning gathered the fire department at box 35, at Walnut and Lime streets. The fire was in a brick building on Fulton street between Lime street and Cherry alley, which is occupied by John J. Cochran as the Enterprise y John J. Commission the front in the roof in the restern end of the building and, as it was mader the tin, the firemen experienced some isfaculty in getting at it. They finally cut se roof, and it was but a short time until the fire was entirely extinguished. The fire originated from the stack, which is in that and of the building, and it was discovered shortly by Private Watchman Shubrooka. There was a hole burned in the roof and the see to the building, which is owned by the estate of A. W. Russel, will probably be $25.
Mr. Cochran's loss will not be more than $10.

Shot in the Foot, Jacob Shissler, son of Henry Shissler, living one mile north of Neffeville, met with a serious accident on Tuesday. He had loaded his gun and while holding it in his hand, it was accidentally discharged and the contents entered his foot. Dr. theact was summoned and dressed the round. The fourth of a series of educational conventions was held in St Paul's Reformed church, Manheim, on Tuesday evening. The pastor loci, Rev. W. J. Johnson, presided, conducting the devotional exercises. Rev. D. B. Schneder, of Marietta, appointed to speak first, was unavoidably absent, much to the regret of the good-sized audience in attendance. Rev. J. H. Pannebacker, of Columbia, delivered a forcible address on the subject, "Church Membership—Its Significance," followed by Rev. S. M. Roeder, of Elizabethtown, on "Mutual encouragement of Church town, on "Mutual encouragement of Church members—especially of the older towards the younger." This address was practical and eloquent, and both speakers were listened to with marked attention. The choir, rendered a beautiful anthem at the opening of the service in their usual admirable style The hymns by the congregation were sung with spirit and feeling and the entire service

Pictures Restored to Their Owners. The publication in the INTELLIGENCER on Tuesday of the names of persons who had entrusted highly valued photographs to a couple of rascally canvassers who made contracts with the parties to furnish enlarged copies of the same, and instead of doing so left the pictures at Philip Sescrist's shoe-shop corner of Prince and Orange streets, has been the means of restoring several of the pictures to their owners. The tollowing have been handed over by Mr. Seacrist: Mrs. Titus, Mrs. King, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Kircher, Sallie King, Mrs. Steinhiser, Mrs. Coegrove. Mrs. Kleiss called for a breastpin picture that had been handed to the canvasser, but it could not be found among those left at Mr. Seacrist's. Mr. Seacrist hopes that persons who have los pictures through the canvassers will call at his shop and examine those in his posses

Reunion of the Pennsylvania Reserves. A reunion of the survivors of the Pennsyl vanio Reserves corps will be held in this city some time during the month of June. Last evening a preliminary meeting to make arrangements was held at the hotel of Theo-dore Wenditz, on Chestnut street, and about twenty-five members were present. Captain William D. Stautler was elected president and M. N. Stark secretary. After a talk over the matter the meeting adjourned until next Tuesday evening when the members will meet again at the same place. On the day of the reunion there will be a street parade and picnic during the day with a banquet and speeches in the evening. During the war two companies of the reserves were recruited in this city and one in the county. There are now about forty survivors in the city.

Mrs. Bartholomew's Funeral. The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Bartholomew took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, there being a large attendance of relatives and friends. There were impressive religious services at the house, No. 624 South Prince street, conducted by Rev. J. Y. Mitchell, D. D., and Rev. Thomas Thompson, after which the remains, followed by many mourners, were taken to Woodward Hill cemetery and laid to rest. The following named gentlemen acted as pall bearers : C. M. Howell, John M. Babill, H. R. Fulton, Frank Skeen, John Black, H. C. Moore, James R. Garvin and J. L. Bauman.

Aiding the Peddler. burdened with the information that there is at least one damsel in Elizabeth township who can, with a little training, meet John L Sullivan. The writer says :

Prosecuted For Perlary.

Fred Gettler, jr., was granted a marriage license on February 8, upon making affidavit that he was over 21 years of age. This morning John Hood, a neighbor, made complaint against him for perjury. He alleges that the young man was only between 16 and 17 years old when he was granted the license. This prosecution is the result of a difficulty between the Gettler and Hood families; the tween the Gettler and Hood families; the si 75@5 00; common, 43 togs to tween the Gettler and Hood families; the this week.

Prosecution Withdrawn. Robert Coffee, a resident of Middle street, was prosecuted on Taesday evening by Jennie Dalias for assault and battery. The accused was locked up and after an incarcera tion of an hour the prosecution before Alderman A. F. Donnelly was withdrawn and the defendant released upon payment of costs.

The Copsent Was in German The clerk of the orphans' court granted a license to a couple who have only been in the country a few weeks. The lady was a minor, but she came to the office prepared with the consent of her father, who still lives in Germany. The consent is a formidable looking document and bears the great seal of Preparing for Arbor Day. Hundreds of trees, mostly fruit, were disposed of by nurserymen at the Central market this morning, which indicates there will be considerable tree planting in this city on Friday.

The Lamp Committee. The lamp committee of councils met on Tuesday evening for organization. William Riddle was elected chairman and Jacob M. Chillas clerk. The committee decided to place electric lights at the corner of Harris-burg avenue and Mulberry atreet and at Rockland and Ann streets.

The Slander of Parnell In the House of Commons, Tuesday after-noon, Mr. Caldwell, Liberal Unionist, gave notice that he would move for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the charges made by the Times against Mr. Parnell and other Irish leaders in connection with crime in Ireland. Gladstone has affirmed his faith in Parnell's denial.

Commissions Ready.

The commissions of the justices and aldermen of the county elected in February, have all been recorded and are now ready for distribution at the recorder's office to those who are entitled to receive them.
