

HIGH LOVE HAS NO PLACE OF BIRTH.
The world has outlived all its passions:
It is men and women and boys,
It is women and puppets of fashion:
Life now is a comedy of errors,
Our Abolish signs for a season,
Then yields with decorum to fate:
Our Abolish signs for a season,
And needs a new main.
By the ladylike minds of our mothers
We are taught that to feel is bad form;
Our affectionate fathers and brothers
Keep carefully away from our loves
Our worshipful nuns, and our lovers
Are calmly devout with their brains;
And we laugh at the man who discovers
Warm blood in his veins.
But you, O twin soul, passion-mated,
Who loves as the gods loved of old,
What blundering destiny fated
You live to be lost in this world!
Like a lark in the morning
In pasture, prairie and gray
You seem, with your fervor primal,
Among us to-day.
You dropped from some planet of splendor,
Falling, as it circled afar,
And your coming was a blessing and tender,
You learned from the course of that star.
Fly back to the bosom, I warn you,
As back to the bosom of the dawn,
The millions of earth will but adore you
Because you can love!
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in Lippincott's Magazine.

SEEKED FOR HER MURDER.
Four Murdered Maggie McCarthy Placed in Her Last Resting Place.
Maggie McCarthy, the pretty young girl, who was the wife of Rev. W. M. Smith, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Cleveland, who died defending her honor, was buried Tuesday. Rev. Father Thorpe, of St. John's cathedral, delivered the sermon. Among other things he said: "This martyrdom belongs to a class that females would be justified in arming themselves against. They would be justified in striking down the man that insulted them. I know of no other class that would be so that of this wretch who still lives, but who will be judged by God. Oh, friends, is it not a consolation that we have found women in our land who will lay down their lives in honor? Such chastity and virtue is a consolation of mourning friends. She died for honor; she died for purity; she died a martyr's death, and God have mercy on her soul. That spirit that so base hand on her touch upon has gone to God, and may God meet her."

Deceased His Child.
Caleb Foster, a negro, living near the south line of Harrison county, Texas, suddenly became crazed a few days ago, and killed his 3-year-old child by the legs, dashed his brains out against a tree, and ran with the body to the creek bottom. When found Foster was raving the child's body with his teeth, spitting fire on the ground, and uttering words jabbering to himself. Upon being captured he was conveyed to his home and closely guarded. Three days after, recovering his normal condition and his child's body was found playing around his bed, he inquired for him. The truth was not told him, and a strict investigation was conducted, but he retained no remembrance of the awful tragedy.

Purify Your Blood
Good health depends upon pure blood; therefore, to keep well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and other matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectively aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs, invigorates the nervous system, tones the digestion, and imparts new life and energy to all the functions of the body. A peculiarity of Hood's Sarsaparilla
is that it strengthens and builds up the system while it eradicates disease.
"I want to say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least exertion I did fatigued me ever so much. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon I felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is voracious." —H. V. VAN DYKE, of the City of New York.
"I have made up your mind to get Hood's Sarsaparilla do not take any other."
