mih anniversary was celebrated. A Jabiles Service. The members of the Second Street Lutheran church are making arrangements for holding a jubilee service, on next Sunday morning and evening in honor of the free-ing of the church from debt. On Sunday morning the choir will render special music; Rev. Wm. P. Evans will deliver a short his-torical address; Rev. F. W. Coursd, D. D., of Philadelphia, editor of the Lutheran Observer, will be present and make an ad-dress. The most interesting feature of the service will be the cremation of the bonds morigages, etc., showing that the members are indebted to no person. On Monday evening another service will be held. It is expected that some of the former pastors will be present. On this evening the music will be rendered by the Columbia Macaner-
