COMMOND TO THE WASTE BARRIES. THE INTELLIGENCES.

Cancaster Intelligencer

LANCASTER, MAY 18, 1867.

The new license law cannot in one sense sailed a high license law, for while there is doubt that it does greatly increase the me fees that will be paid, it does not se large a license fee upon taverni be present law does; or would at least ly executed. Under the law as it stands every tavern of which the estid yearly sales, according to the mer atile appraiser's return, are ten thousand Hare is in the first class and must pay bundred dollars for its license. When estimated sales are eight thousand dolthe license fee is four hundred dollars s thousand dollars of sales call for two andred dollars; four thousand demands a andred, but no license is less than fifty

None will doubt that there are a num ber of tavern bars in Lancaster where more than ten thousand dollars are taken in during the year ; but none pay, we under-stand, more than fifty dollars. It is simply a failure of duty upon the part of the greantile appraiser and a fraud upon the law which ought to scandalize the adminration of justice ; but it does not seem to ave done so. The court gravely grants es year after year and the clerk gravely takes fifty dollars where the law nands seven hundred; and no voice about the temple of justice has ever been heard in protest.

We have caused the present mercantile poraiser to be asked for an explanation of an appraisement of tayerns that is so manifestly incorrect; and he replies that he followed in the footsteps of his predecessors the returns which he made. But how he habit inaugurated of charging fifty dollars when seven hundred was due, and how it has run so long a course undisturbed by the officers of the county, is not explained. Mr. James Black, who has from time immemorial stood as the friend of the the court and the champion of the temperance cause, to object to the granting of nes, has never, we believe, protested against the low grading of the taverns. This is consistent, however, with his present declaration of hostility to high license. once as the advocate of the tavern keeper and teetotaller.

The State of Europe.

survey of Europe reveals a more superfily tranquil state of affairs than has existed for a long time. The only thing the belfigwent correspondents can find of an alarming nature relates to the doings of Russia in Afghanistan. It is said that forty thousand Russians are under arms in Dalmatia prepared for a campaign, and that the Montenegrin army is ready for action ; but this is the normal condition of standing ies and they exist chiefly for the purpose of being ready for use on short notice, is would be rather surprising if Austria and the little mountain country were not in this menancing attitude. That forty sand of the Austrian army should be in Dalmatia, simply means that it is believed that if trouble comes it may come from that quarter; and it would not be at all surprising if another forty thousand were found massed on the eastern frontier.

There are all kinds of rumors about Servia and that country seems to be going to the dogs about as fast as its king can take Austria, Russia and Germany have ared the political atmosphere a little by storm in their great newspapers over their intrigues of a dozen years ago, the result of it all being that Germany has proved that Austria had a secret agreement with Rusis for the division of Turkey. The Bermans express their disgust at this exhibition of Austrian duplicity, just as though instances of that quality did not abound in European diplomacy. It is not very long since Emperor William sived the congratutations and "sincere" od wishes of all the governments of turope, and yet we find him reviewing his my as though he did not believe a word of their peaceful speeches.

That Court of Ours.

Our court maintained its repute for the ity, to use a mild term, of its nts, in distributing the postponed sec. There are several of the that excite much comment. The Total Lancaster, applying for a tavern tessee, was refused it, with no reason assigned, and no good reason apparent; between it is a new hostlery, well fitted up for tel, situated at the depot where hotels restaurants are particularly useful; the licent for the license, though now in license, where he keeps a hotel of high ter, advised the court through his ey, of his readiness to remove his to Lancaster and reside in the hotel that should be made a condition of to a license. Judge Patter-parties, during the argument, the a secret or more of the square; but that fact did making man of a botal license to

Providence township, which has been a licensed house for seventy-five years, was refused a renewal, only because the late enant, being maliciously disposed to the water, failed to apply in January for a license, as he had agreed to, and so permitted a lapse of it for three months. The Knapp's Villa license, in Lancaster township, also was refused, though no good reason can be assigned why a proper application for a restaurant license in this location should not be granted. The East King street railroad is running its street cars on Sunday, to the great dissatisfaction of Judge Patterson's plety; and perhaps this may have had something to do with the refusal of a license to a place at its tar-

It is unfortunate for Lancaster county that it does not have a court more distinguished for good judgment and more disposed to concurrence of opinions. It is unfortunate, too, for the judges that they cannot think together and that the court is so often condemned for the folly of one.

THE survivors of the Philadelphia brigade which helped to meet and repel Pickett's charge at Gettysburg, have sent a letter to the Pickett's Division association urging them to reconsider their decision not to visit Gettysburg on July 3s. This decision was the result of the despicable meanness of men who happen to have authority over the battlefield and used it to forbid the placing of mon uments to the men who fell in the gree With a chivalry that chimes well with bravery the men who met that charge meet there as the guests of the Philade phia brigade, to enjoy the hospitality tha we will extend to you, and upon that occa sion, with the fraternal feelings created by reunion, the first of the kind held sin the war, and with our sincers sympathy and aid, to complete the arrangements you have begun toward dedicating an imperiahable monument to commemorate American they who withstood the shock of your charge a charge not surpassed in its grandeur and since time began." Could there be a more fitting reproof to the bloody shirt wavers who are doing all they can to make enmity between North and South. Some men seen to think that only one side of the story of the battle should go into history.

THE Children's Country Week association of Philadelphia has done a vast amount of good in a quiet way in the Quaker City. Its tenth annual report just issued shows that the total number of the poor of Philadelphia who got a chance at invigorating country seventy-four persons for visits averaging about eight and one-half days each. Of these one hundred and seventy-six were adulta Two hundred and sixty persons were sent on free invitations for periods averaging thirteen days. Of these fifty were adults. Ninety-one persons (54 children and 37 dults) were sent to the sea shore for periods averaging nine days. Ten permanent homes were found for children outside the city. More than twenty persons were sent to the park, to the sanitarium and the rivers, on exursions for a day. The fund contributed during the year by the public for this work smounted to $12,403.31, of which $12,073.30 was used during this season. There is a balance in hand of $1,002 is. It is a good cause and deserves encouragement. The only entertainer from this section was John

(3) Unmarried Persons of Reading, Pa," is in a capital a few years ago. At first the above organization seemed to prosper. It was run on the mutual plan, without capital stock, and the benefits were made dependent upon assessments on members upon the marriage of a policy holder. Some members held policles ranging in amount from $1,000 to $5,000.

The rate of payment was $10 per $1,000 in monthly installments, and when a marriage occurred the contracting party was allowed 20 per cent. on the face value of his policy. After a number of members had entered the matrimonial yoke and secured the cash it began to dawn on the management that the scheme could not be made successful. Whether it was because the members married too last or paid up their assessments too slow, there is crape on the company's door and a number of lawyers are trying to recover money for clients who obtained neither part ners for life nor the cash that was to go with these desirable tressures

Lying as a Fine Art. Parkersburg, W. Va. Dispatch to Fittsburg

Probably one of the most remarkable cases on record of the devotion of a dumb animal to its master happened a few miles from this city, in Ritchie county. John Templeton, a well known blacksmith, was the owner of a powerful mastiff, which was his constant companion. While at work to his above, he heated to almost a white owner of a powerful mastiff, which was his constant companion. While at work in his shop, he heated to almost a white heat a piece of steel for the purpose of weiding it. In attempting to do so it flew all to pieces, one sharp pointed piece penetrating the blacksmith's head, near the eye. Shrieking with pain, but unable to extricate it, he fell to the ground unconscious. For some time he lay there, when he was awakened by the piteous howle of his dog, whose mouth was all awolten, and which presented a terrible sight. The faithful animal had, when its master fell, gone up to him and with its teeth extracted the burning steel from his forehead. The piece of steel was lying near the dog with the impressions of his teeth in it. The animal has since died, but its master is about again.

otton Mather Smith in The Epoch. It is the fashion to cry down pie and accuse it of causing all the dyspeps is in the country; but there is pie and pie, and good pie does not cause dyspepaia. It is, moreover, one of the most palatable dishes that can be set before a true and patriotic American. Emerson are ple for break fast all his life and Carlyle never ate any. Yet, which was the dyspeptic? Go to, ye imitators of English clothes and French dishes! Ye cannot abolish pie! The rich gold of the pumpkin, the bright canary of the custard, the carmine of the cherry, peeping through the demi-luces in the flaky top crust will still cheer the eye of the true American epicure when English and French fashions are gone out of style and though every bill of fare in the country should become a carte de

About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statemen in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was bealing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking ough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking siq bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and is rapidly disappearing. 1 would at vise every one with cancer to give 8. S. S. a fair trial.
