One sweet, rare, harmonious face we met there
Filled to repletion that vast, crowded room.

I know 'tis truth that there were gathered there
Much youth and grace and beauty, passing fair,
But 'mid the glittering jet, pale plumes and costly lace,
I saw but one, to me, exquisite face.

'Twas said, so well I played the actor's part!
Ah, me! those words were bursting in my heart,
And leaped through quivering lips, with soul replete;
I laid them, full of meaning, at her feet.

What though applause rang out both long and loud,
My only true reward, as low I bowed,
Was hurried face with proud, approving smile;
That did indeed my reeling sense beguile.
The flowers they showered upon me prostrate lay,
Till I bethought me that another day
I'd bring them all to her whose presence fair
The inspiration gave to call them there.
Oh, lovely face! where soul all beauty lends,
What wonder that my heart none else commends!
In all this wide, wide world, where'er I'll go,
There is for me but one such face, I know.
And if I were in heaven, and she were there
Among that multitude of beings fair,
In all that radiant, heaven-perfected race,
There'd be for me but one angelic face.

—Hannah More Kohans in Inter-Ocean.

What Mrs. Brown Thought.

From the New York Sun.

"Where have you been?" asked Mrs. Brown, at the theatre, of Mr. B., just out between the acts.

"Oh, just out to see a man," replied Brown.

"When did he die?"

"When did who die?"

"The man you went out to see."

"What are you talking about?"

"Well, judging from your breath, it must have been a spirit you saw."

Not All Slaves.

From the Boston Courier.

"We are all slaves," said an English socialistic orator, as he pounded the desk on the platform.

"Not all of us," said an old man, rising.

"Yes, sir," answered the orator, "every one of us. We may sing 'Britons never, never, never shall be slaves,' but we are slaves for all that."

"Some of our mechanics are free, you'll admit?"

"Who are they?"

"The Free Masons."

Then the orator sat down.

On the Avenue.

From Town Topics.

Professional Host—Dear boy, glad to see you. Come and dine with me to-day.

Rich Friend—No, thanks. I'd sooner lend you $2.

Seemingly Eradicated

With repeated and powerful doses of quinine, chills and fever, in some one of its various forms, springs into active existence again, often without the slightest apparent provocation. To extinguish the smoldering embers of this obstinate and recondite malady, no less than to subdue it when it rages fiercely in the system, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is all sufficient. When every resource of the pharmacopœia has been exhausted against it in vain, the Bitters conquer it—will remove every lingering vestige of it. Nay, more, the Bitters will protect those brought within the influence of the atmospheric poison that begets malarial disease from its attacks. Disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, are among the complaints to be apprehended from the use of miasma-tainted water. These are both cured and prevented by the Bitters. Rheumatism, constipation and renal complaints, yield to its action

UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER is the only external remedy that has the unqualified recommendation of professional as well as that of the public in general.

It is the only genuine porous plaster, and all other so called porous plasters are nothing more than perforated counter irritants made to sell on the reputation of ALLCOCK'S. Beware of them

It's all very well to talk about building new Railroads and new Steamships—but how could men, women, and children travel on them without Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup? Think of it. Ponder it.

"Neither a borrower or lender be;" but take your own twenty-five cents, and go round to your own druggist, and buy yourself a bottle of Salvation Oil for your sprains, aches, and pains.

A good Appetite

Is essential to good health; but at this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, derangement of the digestive organs, and the weakening effect of the changing season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion, and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, and am glad to say it has cured me of a very severe pain in the small of my back. I also gave it to my little girl. She had very little appetite; but Hood's Sarsaparilla has increased it wonderfully and from our experience I highly recommend this excellent medicine." MRS. M. V. BAVELER 126½ Van Hoen Street, Jersey City.

Makes the Weak Strong

"I must say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least work I did fatigued me over so much. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon I felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is voracious." MRS. M. V. BAYARD, Atlantic City, N. J.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me new life and restored me to my wonted health and strength." WILLIAM H. CLOUSE, Tilton, N. H.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.

TRIED IN THE CRUCIBLE.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK

About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and is rapidly disappearing. I would advise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial. MRS. NANCY MCDONAUGHEY, Ashe Grove, Tippecanoe, Co., Ind.
