Work of the Pearyn Thieves.

It seems that the thieves who broke into the restaurant building at Penryn did not take snything of value away. Last evening Meera. Copland and Eckert visited the nds. They found that the thieves had effected their entrance by breaking open a window. Although nothing was missing, the thieves had packed up the best of the glassware, chinaware, &c., in boxes and bags, and had them all ready to move. It is likely that they were disturbed in their work or had intended to return for the goods. The visit was made on Sunday night, as a number of men are at work on the grounds during the day, and they made the discovery rday morning. The only thing that the thieves did get away with was some canned been tramps. tables. The guilty parties may have

In addition to her children there are living thirty-two grandchildren and 114 great grandchildren and one great grandchild. Mrs. Brunner, who makes her home at Derry with her daughter, Mrs. Christian Kegeries, is a remarkably active woman for her age.

She appears not to be older than about 80 years, has very few gay hairs, hossesses excellent sight and is especially delighted when she can relate incidents which occurred in her childhood. She has never been sick during her life time, and she enjoys an excilent appetite. On the occasion of her burthday celebration about one hundred guests besides her relatives were present from Denver, Col., Reading, Lebanon and this city, and a delightful time was spent. She was the recipient of many gifts, one of which was a lace cap with lavender ribbons, on which is embroderied "One Hundred which was a lace cap with lavender ribbons, on which is embroideried "One Hundred Yeara" It is very handsome and was from a Philadelphia firm, who makes it a point to present each woman who reaches the end of one hundred years of life with a similar cap, and this is only the fifth one they have had

Situated on East Orange strest, between Orange and Chestnut, one square east of reservoir, Lancaster, I have just erected a new distillery with all of the latest improved machinery for distilling I have just erected a new distincty with all of the latest improved machinery for distilling PURE EYE WHISKY.

This Distillery has been erected at the famous old Groffstown Spring, which has been noted for its plenteous and unfailing supply of the purcet water. At it our grandfathers drank when they were boys, and it has never been known to run dry even in the hottest weather. From this apring all the water used in the distillery is obtained, the pump drawing from it twenty-five gallons a minute.

Besides my own distilled Whisky, I also handle
