In love and liberty CHARLES JAMES PAULKNER

Becentiy Elected United States Secuto Frem West Virginia.

The withdrawal of Camden's name from the West Virginta senatorial candidacy, was the cause of the Democratic convention's ina bility to agree on a candidate, until the as sembly determined to let events dictate the course of who should be favorite. When the votes were all told it was found the majority were cast in favor of Judge C. J. Faulkne who received the election for the United States senatorship in May, 1887. Senator Charles James Faulkner has never held any public office except that of judge of the Thirteenth judicial circuit. He is a man of liberal education and as a jurist stands among the first in the state, being both an able orator and a debater of considerable power. He is the son of Charles James Fanikner, who represented Virginia and power. He is the son of Charles James Fanikner who represented Virginia and West Virginia in the Congress of the United States before the late war, and served as minister to France under the administration of President Buchauan. The son, the present secutor-elect, was born in Martinsburg. Berkley county, West Virginia, where he is now a resident. Mr. Charles James Faulkner Jr., i apparently ferty years of age and promises to mit the position for which he was elected with all due dignity and honor.

the Lebanon Times. Mr. Robert H. Coleman, while on his recent visit to Florida, proved his good marksmenship by shooting an alligator 14 feet in length. He had been for the past ten years the terror of the neighborhood, and had suc the terrot of the neighborhood, and had suc-ceeded in kelling a young negro lad. The alligator had been riddied with shot, but never hit at a vital spot. Mr. Coleman nav-ing got a gilingue at him at 30 yards, fired and succeeded in his capture. The alligator was to be seen on Saturday in a large box in the baggage room of the C. & L railroad, this city. Many persons took a look at it.

A Nea-Nick Passenger. On the ocean, cares little about a storm. He is positively indifferent whether he is washed overboard or not. But, set right by a wineglassful or two of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. he feels renewed interest in his persona safety. This fine corrective neutralizes in brackish water-often compulsorily drank on shipboard, to the grievous detriment of health-the permicious impurities which give rise to disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. To the mariner, the tourist, the Western pioneer and miner, the Bitters is invaluable as a means of protection against malaria, when its seeds are latent in air and water. To the effects of overwork, mental or manual, it is a most reliable antidote, and to the debilitated and nervous, it affords great and speedily felt relief and vigor.

HOOD'S BARBAPARILLA.

That Tired Feeling

Is experienced by nearly every one at this sesson. You teel all tired out, without strength to do anything: ambition seems to be all gone, and you have little or no appetite. This condition may be due to change of season, climate, r life, to overwork, or nervous aliments. Whatever the cause, Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes it quickly, creates an appetite, rouses the liver, cures headache, and gives renewed atrength and vigor to the whole body. He sure to get Hood's rarsaparilla, which is peculiar to their. Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I never took any medicine that did me so much good in so short a time as Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was very much run down, had no strength, no energy, and feit very tired all the time. I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had used one bottle felt like a different person. That extreme tired feeling has gone, my appetite returned, and it toned me up generally. My brather and slater have also received great benefit from it." Clara W. Purles, Shirley, Mass.

Makes the Weak Etrong "I must say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least work I did fatigued me ver so much. I began to take Hood's sarraps tills, and soon I felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My ap petite is voracious." Mas. M. V. Bayand, Allan andigestion, Acute and Atonic Dyspepsia Chronic and Gastro Intestinal Catarrh Vometing In Pregnancy, Choicea Infantum, and In conva-iescence from Acute Diseases.

A POTENT REMEDY FOR

Over 500 physicians have sent to us the most flattering opinions upon Digestylin as a remed; tor all diseases arising from improper digestion.

For 20 years we have manufactured, the Digestve Ferments expressly for PHYSICIANS use. and for the past year DIGESTYLIN has been by them extensively prescribed, and to-day it at not a secret remedy but a scientific preparation, the formula of which is plainly printed on each bottle. Its great DIGESTIVE POWER is created by a careful and proper treatment of the forments in manufacture. It is very agreeable to the taste, and acceptable to the most delicate atomach. For the reliability of our statements we would respectfully refer to all wholesale sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statemen in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for o hers similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking siq bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and is rapidly disappearing. I would ad vise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair MES.
