Recovered the Booty.

On last Saturday night Officer Schill attempted to arrest a colored man, whose actions he deemed suspicious, and who carried two large bags over his shoulders. The man managed to escape but, left his booty behind. The bags were of the Woonsocket make and two bushels capacity. They contained seven Leghorn hens. One hen was of a dark mouse color, and the other six entirely white. The owner can recover his property at the office of Squire Solly, on Union street.

Large Amount of Benefits.

The voluntary relief department of the Pennsylvania railroad have issued a statement for the month of April. The employes of the company at Columbia have received relief as follows: For accident benefits, 14 employes, $280 60; for sick benefits, 14 employes, $137 20 Total amount of money paid, $417.70.

Alleged Theft of a Boat.

Officer Wittick arrested Charles Loring for stealing a boat from Peter Rodenhauser. He will be given a hearing this evening.

The funeral of the late John Balbach took place this morning at 9 o'clock and was very largely attended. Services were held at the Holy Trinity Catholic church.

The High School nine went to York on Saturday afternoon where they played a game with the College club. The town boys were defeated in a seven inning game by the score of 15 to 12. In the eighth inning the High School club made five runs when the umpire called the game, bringing the score back to the seventh inning.

FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION.

Special Service Inaugurated in St. Mary's Catholic Church by a Jesuit Father.

The services of the Forty Hours' devotion were begun in St. Mary's Catholic church at the 8 a. m. mass on Sunday. Solemn high mass was celebrated with Rev. Dr. McCullagh as celebrant, Rev. Kenny, deacon and Rev. Brady, S. J., sub-deacon. The choir sang Werner's mass in beautiful style. At the end of the mass the procession of the Blessed Sacrament took place, the celebrant intoning the "Pange Lingua Gloriosa." ... followed the benediction. At the 10:30 ... high mass, Rev. Kenny was celebrant, ... the Jesuit father, Rev. Brady, who is conducting the services, preached a sermon on the love of the Sacred Heart of the Saviour. At this service Millard's mass was splendidly rendered by the choir.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock Millard's vespers were given by the choir, and Rev. Brady acted as celebrant for the occasion. Miss Annie Lowell sang with rare sweetness and power "O Cor Amoris," and Webbe's "Magnificat" was given. A sermon on the League of the Sacred Heart was preached by Rev. Brady, after which benediction was given. The masses this morning were at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock, at which hours they will also be celebrated to-morrow. The evening service is at 7:30 o'clock, and the devotions will close to-morrow evening. The altars of the church are very profusely and handsomely decorated with flowers.

PRIVATELY UNMARKED.

The Body of Herman A. Schimmelfinnig Who Died a Tragic Death in Washington.

The remains of Mr. Herman A. Schimmelfinnig, of Washington, D. C., a son of the late Gen. Schimmelfinnig, reached Lancaster this morning at 10 o'clock, and were taken at once to the crematorium and privately cremated. The remains were accompanied by Miss Hannah Schimmelfinnig, a sister of deceased, and Mr. S. G. Nottingham, an intimate friend.

Mr. Schimmelfinnig's death was a tragic one. On Friday night he called to see Miss Margarette D. Miller, in Washington, and as they were about to leave the house the young lady discovered a pistol in the pocket of his light overcoat as he threw it across his arm. She remonstrated with him for carrying a pistol. He said it was not loaded and to assure her of that fact he placed the weapon to his mouth and pulled the trigger. He fell to the floor mortally wounded, a bullet having passed through the roof of the mouth and entered the brain. He lived until Saturday morning, when death relieved him. He was a bright young man, 27 years of age. He was born in Washington, D. C., and at the time of his death held a clerkship in the pension department. His ashes will be taken to Reading, Pa., and be buried in the grave of his father in Charles Evans' cemetery. It is not believed that Mr. S. intended to commit suicide. He was in very cheerful mood just previous to the shooting.

The Grau-Gordon Opera Company.

On Saturday afternoon the Grau-Gordon opera company gave a matinee and sang "The Mikado" instead of "Queen's Lace Handkerchief," which they advertised. There was but a small audience. In the evening "Olivette" was given to more people. Miss Ethel Lynton took the part of Olivette, and her singing as well as her acting was very good. She created a good deal of amusement at the close of the second act. While doing some high kicking her slipper flew off and went sailing towards the ceiling of the opera house. It fell upon the piano in front of the orchestra leader, and the whole house roared. Miss Dressler sang well as the ... less, but was unfamiliar with her lover. ... majority of the company did not seem ... know what to say at times. The girls ... looked very pretty in their abbreviated cos...

Assault and Battery.

Michael Gorman and F. Doman of this city had a hearing before Alderman Deen on Saturday afternoon on the charge of assault and battery. The prosecutors were Clement McKeon and Thomas Chamberlain, who hail from Brandon. They alleged that on the night when Barnum's circus exhibited here these men with James Donnelly (of the sixth ward) attacked them on the New Holland turnpike. Gorman and Doman were held in ... for costs, but no case could be made out against Donnelly.

Prosecution Withdrawn.

In the early part of last week George ... brought a suit of assault and battery against Fred Kohler, before Alderman ... Suit was entered for a hearing, but on Saturday evening the parties arranged their ..., the prosecution was withdrawn ... the costs paid.

MENNONITES AT NEFFSVILLE.

The Union Brethren Church Have a Gala Time on Sunday.

NEFFSVILLE, May 30.—Neffsville presented a lively appearance yesterday, the occasion being the rededication of the U. B. church. The old Shissler meeting house, which stood about one and one-half miles north of here, was removed to Neffsville, where it was enlarged and rebuilt and the occasion yesterday was the re-dedication of the same. The exercises commenced on Saturday, with the quarterly meeting of the Lititz charge In the evening Rev. G. W. M. Rigor, of Vineland, N. J., preached a sermon. And on Sunday the exercises commenced at 9 a. m., with a meeting of praise and prayer; at 10 a. m., the bishop, Jonathan Weaver, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, senior bishop of the U. B. church, preached sermon, from Psalms 77, 13: "Thy way, O God, is in the Sanctuary."

In the afternoon another prayer meeting was held, followed by the administration of the holy communion. In the evening the Rev. Dissinger, of Wisconsin, preached a very able discourse. Subject, "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

The church was rebuilt at a cost of about $900, of which about $250 had been subscribed and during yesterday an additional $400 was made up.

The services were conducted throughout by the Revs. Bishop Weaver, Rigor, of Vineland, Funk, of Lancaster, Lightner, of Manheim, Loose, of Reading, Balzell, of Harrisburg (the presiding elder of that district), Salt, of Intercourse, and a number of others—about a dozen ministers being on hand. The exercises were interesting from more than one view, it being the 121st anniversary of the founding of the U. B. church at Isaac Long's barn, near Oregon, in 1766, by Revs. Martin Boehm and William Otterbein. The exercises were largely attended throughout and the best of order prevailed.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Prominent Philadelphians and Government Officials Visit Lancaster.

Samuel Gustine Thompson, esq., a distinguished member of the bar, and Geo. F. Parker, the well-known journalist, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city and county the guests of Major B. F. Breneman and W. U. Hensel. The party drove down over the Martic hills on Saturday to Quarryville, where they were entertained by George W. Hensel, and returned on Sunday to Lancaster by the route across the Mine Ridge and by way of Strasburg. They were joined here on Sunday by First Assistant Postmaster General A. E. Stevenson and Col. Bates, chief of the free delivery system of the postoffice department at Washington, D. C., and by Postmaster W. F. Harrity and Assistant Pastmaster Henry Drake; and the entire party dined with Mr. B. J. McGrann at "Grand View."

Steven J. Hart, formerly of this city, now of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, is spending a few days with old friends in this city. He has long since abandoned politics and is doing well in the real estate business in his new home.

A Double Funeral.

On Sunday a double funeral took place from the church in Conestoga Centre, when two ladies were buried. Their names were Mrs. Frank Henry and Mrs. Lydia Eckman. They had been neighbors and died within a few moments of each other. The former was 35 years of age. She was a daughter of the late George Aument and leaves a husband and five small children, the oldest being but eleven years of age and the youngest eleven months. Mrs. Eckman was 65 years of age and left a husband and family of children. The funeral was very largely attended and it is said that there were over 2,000 persons present. Rev. Scott preached a strong sermon and tears came to the eyes of many persons at witnessing the affecting scene of Mrs. Henry's five little children gathered around their mother and crying as though their hearts would break.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.

He Assaults and Threatens His Wife, is Arrested and Sent to Jail.

William Heida, a rolling mill employe, residing on West Grant street, was arrested on Saturday night by Officers Ritchey and Weaver on a warrant issued by Alderman Donnelly, of the Eighth ward. He was complained against for assaulting and threatening his wife. It was not his first arrest for those offenses, he having served one term in jail and paid the costs in two or three other similar cases. He gave the officers great trouble to arrest him, but he was finally lodged in the station house. Being unable to furnish bail, he was committed to prison on Sunday for a hearing. Heida is the young man who refused to dress himself one night last winter and was taken to the station house in his night clothes.

Christian Nissley's Troubles.

On Saturday Christian Nissley, who resides near Fiorin, and has been in prison here several times recently, for surety of the peace, was taken to Harrisburg on Saturday by Chief Smith, to answer a charge of embezzlement. During the latter part of January, William Russ, of that city, entrusted Nissley with a horse, instructing him not to sell it for less than $250. Nissley sold the animal, but it is claimed by Mr. Russ, who is prosecutor, that he never returned a cent of the money. The defendant will be heard before Alderman Maurer. Nissley was formerly a prosperous farmer but failed. Since that time he has been of unsound mind.

Punish the Guilty.

From the Philadelphia Press.

It is encouraging to learn that the Anti-Corruption society intends to take cognizance of whatever frauds may have been committed, and that it also is collecting evidence to that end. This society was organized to do that very thing. Its president is ex-Representative John H. Landis, through whose energy in the right direction the act to prevent bribery and fraud at nominating elections was passed in 1881. It now largely rests with him to maintain the integrity and demonstrate the usefulness of that law in Lancaster county, and we are prepared to believe that he will do his utmost in that direction. If fraud has been committed there should be prompt punishment for the guilty.

The Republicans of Lancaster in general owe it to themselves and their party to assist in the work now evidently in progress The constant repetition of frauds and failure to punish those who perpetrate them must sooner or later prove a serious injury to the party. No party is strong enough anywhere to carry such loads. The charges now made cannot be overlooked, and every Republican who has the interest of his party at heart will assist in the punishment of all who have been guilty of fraud.

Shot Himself in the Foot.

John Gasser, a son of the late Conrad Gasser, accidentally shot himself in the right foot at What Glen park this morning. He was carring a small rifle muzzle downward when the accident occurred. The wound is painful, but not of a serious character.

To Reside in South Carolina.

A. N. Breneman, who until recently had a boot and shoe manufactory on West King street, removed with his family to South Carolina this morning, leaving on the 8:10 train.

A Flying Horse.

In the rear of the Fourth ward hotel a flying horse was erected this morning, and the lads and lasses have been riding the steeds all afternoon."

To Preach in a Barn.

Mrs. George Steiger, of Lititz, died and interment will take place at Brickerville. In view of the Old Lutheran congregation not allowing any but their pastor to preach in the church, Rev. Leware will preach the funeral sermon in the barn.

Is Hiestand Seeking Another Term?

From the Examiner.

Give a man a taste of office, and he thinks of nothing else the balance of his life.

Chauntibrand's Trouble.

Bruce Chauntibrand, the piano man, detective, &c., who was arrested in Scranton for adultery with the wife of a pedestrian, is in more trouble now than ever. The gentleman who became his bail surrendered him to the police, and despite the efforts of Chauntibrand to obtain new bail he was unsuccessful. He is now in the Lackawanna county jail, and promises to leave the county if the charge against him is withdrawn. No such an arrangement will be made, however. It is said that Chauntibrand has a wife at Manheim.

An Incorrigible Boy.

Wm. Taylor, the fifteen-year-old son of Sam'l Taylor, living at No. 509 Middle street, was arrested on Sunday by Officer Beecher. The charge against him is being incorrigible and beyond the control of his father. The boy ran away from home about two weeks ago, since which time he has been tramping around the country. Alderman A. F. Donnelly committed him for a hearing and in the meantime his father will consult with the judges with a view of having him sent to the House of Refuge.

A Quaker Church Treasurer Short.

Edwin Blackburn, who has been treasurer of the Lombard street meeting of Friends in Baltimore for four years, has been displaced for shortage in accounts. The amount involved is about $6,000. Mr. Blackburn came to Baltimore from Pennsylvania. He did not speculate or live extravagantly. His business did not prosper, and he took the money, hoping to replace it. When he found he could not do so and when the committee discovered something wrong he confessed fully and aided in the examination of the books.

It is said to be the first case in the history of the Friends that one of its fiscal officers has defaulted. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Blackburn.

A West Chester Assignment.

George B. Hickman, a broker at West Chester, has made an assignment, naming Joshua K. Hollingsworth, of that borough, as his assignee. His total liabilities are not stated, but it is understood that the assignment is the result of suit having been instituted against Mr. Hickman by the estate of his father, the late Marshall B. Hickman, for $163,070, for which aggregate sum sundry notes had been given to the latter during his lifetime.

Well Known Thieves.

Among the pickpockets who were drawn to Washington by the crowds when the Garfield monument was unveiled was Eddie Tully. This is one of the men who robbed H. K. Keller, of this city, and served a term in the Eastern Penitentiary for it. Last week's Police News has a good picture of him With Tully was his partner, Josh Mully, but as neither could be identified by persons who had been robbed they were discharged.

Thrown From a Horse.

William Bransby was exercising the horses of Engine company No. 1, this morning, when he met with a mishap. While on West King street the horse he was riding made a sudden jump and he was thrown off. His horse and the one he was leading ran down Manor street, and were caught after running a few squares. Mr. Bransby was not injured.

List of Letters.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Lancaster, for the week ending Monday, May 30, 1887:

Ladies' List.—Ann C. Bochler.

Gents' List.—George Albright, Lieut. Ed. D Bruner, William H. Dumont, Rev. Dr. Emerson, John Emlbrink, Gen'l H. Ewing, Chas. Gollitt, Henry Martil.

Not Made For Fun.

From the Philadelphia Times.

Lancaster county Republican boodlers and Lawrence county Democratic boodlers should both be taught that the laws against corruption were not made for fun.

To Leave for Omaha.

Revs. Sylvanus Stall and Wm. P. Evans will leave to-day for Omaha, Nebraska, to attend the sessions of the general synod of the Lutheran church of the United States.

FOR WOMEN,

It is a natural support, lifting and supporting the bowels, sending warmth, action and life to the back, kidneys and bowels, bladder and pelvic organs. Millions of women are suffering now who would soon be relieved and cured by the use of this genuine warm belt. If the backaches or pains you, this belt is the quickest relief. If your kidneys are inflamed or otherwise diseased, the belt will soon distribute the congested blood by revitalizing it; consequently removes the trouble. If the bowels are inactive or too active, the warmth or life given by the support soon restore them to natural action. If there are any forms of female troubles, we can assure you this belt furnishes very speedy relief. Ladies, you suffer more from "local" congestion in the abdomen and pelvic cavities than from any other troubles. This belt distributes and revitalizes, and consequently it is the best possible remedy for our wives, mothers and sisters who suffer from their many peculiar ailments.

FLOUR A SPECIALTY!

The day will be intensely cold When Sam'uel Clarke is undersold.

Flour a Specialty!

We have the pleasure of introducing to the people of Lancaster an entirely NEW FLOUR, manufactured on the latest improved system, and would request all lovers of good, sweet bread to give it a trial. We introduce this brand of Flour with these claims:

1. Equal in richness and color to any Flour in the United States.
2. Equal in strength to any Flour made.
3. Superior in healthfulness to any stone or roller Flour in the United States.

These facts can be substantiated by a fair trial of this brand—the high straight grade. Sold only at
