The Death of the Chief Justice.

The death of Chief Justice Mercur comes with a shock, as it was not expected that his illness would be fatal.

Secretary and Senator Quay will have an opportunity even earlier than he expected of setting up the supreme court against the corporations that he has lately and suddenly proclaimed his hostility to.

The Responsibility for the Failure. Firmness in an executive is a very good quality and we would be disposed to applaud Governor Beaver's refusal to listen to the general demand for a reconvening of the legislature to enact again the revenue bill, if we could see any good reason upon which his refusal may be founded.

It is apparent that a great deal of money is saved to corporation interests by the failure of the bill to become a law; and this fact has suggested that it did not honestly fail.

And it does not seem to be a sensible state of the law which will permit a bill to be killed because of the failure of the official signature of the president of one branch of the legislature. It is obvious that if bills may thus be kept from becoming laws it is the power of a presiding officer to nullify legislation.

But Governor Beaver, having discovered the mistake, took counsel with the Republican leaders and decided that there was no remedy; and to this decision clings. The responsibility for the failure of the bill is fully assumed by the governor and his advisers; and they need to show the people that it was a wise and honest decision, which it is doubtful that they can do.

THE MEMORY WOULD BE IMPROVED; there would be a tendency to adopt the statements of others and to use names that had been most familiar.

It does not require medical knowledge to infer that a brain pierced by a bullet may have its faculties impaired and to conclude that its statements may be unreliable.

He Escaped the Trap. The George and McElroy men in New York, have made an audacious attempt to strengthen their cause by a judicious use of William O'Brien, and that gentleman has flatly refused, allow Irish sympathy to be used as a tail for their kite.

From the Philadelphia News. The body of John Aka, of Altoona, Pa., second baseman of the Duluth team, drowned by the capsizing of a boat on May 12, was recovered Saturday near Lacrosse, Wis., by fishermen who had caught it in their net.

THE CONULAR REPORTS for April are divided into two volumes, the largest of which treats solely of emigration from Europe and the smaller of the labor interests and Canadian trade.

THE NEWS FROM ST. LOUIS is not very creditable to the Grand Army, but it is probably colored highly by a few individual wire-pullers.

THE BELLEFONTE TALK, to which the governor belongs, has endorsed the candidacy of Judge Williams for the supreme bench and may be Quay will let the governor appoint Judge Williams to the supreme bench.

THE FRANK MURDER TRIAL in New Jersey is being conducted by the defense with the aid of the best legal brains made the victim's statements available, as we have suggested.

PERSONAL. JAMES O. BLAIR died in New York Sunday morning and will be buried in Europe on Wednesday.

DR. McCOY, of Princeton, and Bishop Dr. Keenan, have been seriously ill for over a week, and are slowly recovering.

DR. KELLOGG lectured on the iniquity of liquor, tobacco, coffee and tea at the Seventh Day Adventist campmeeting, at Salamanca, N. Y., on Saturday evening.

THE LEAGUE GAMES of Saturday were: At Philadelphia: Boston, 5; Philadelphia, 1; at Washington: New York, 1; at Detroit: Chicago, 2; Detroit, 1; at Indianapolis: Pittsburgh, 1; Indianapolis, 1.

THE PHILADELPHIA BATTERS could do but little with Radbourne on Saturday, and they had only five hits.
