* A BERBATION PALLS. The Bellef That Some One Was Mysteriously

The southern portion of the city was considerably exercised to-day over what was supposed to be a mysterious burial in Zion's ne time ago, and on Sunday morning she went to the cemetery to place some flowers on his grave, and was shocked to see a newly made grave upon her lot. She informed Mr. Borger, the sexton, who new nothing about any one having been buried on the lot. There were rumors that a light had been seen in the cemetery late Saturday night. This greatly increased the ent, but the sensational story was soon ploded. Mr. Borger made an examination and found that although the ground had been arranged like a grave no one had been buried. During the forenoon the mystery was entirely cleared up. It appears that a a grave that had sunk. He got on this lot by ke and thinking there was a grave there he shaped the earth like a grave.

Francis of Rice, Theory A. Roenty.

MARRIER, June d.—It is two years this west these the Rev. Warren J. Johnson became paster of Ric. Francis Reference congregation, this beauty, and the overst we celebrated by a special service lest evening in the presence of a large congregation. The young ladies of the congregation had decorated the pulpit with beautiful cut flowers arranged in elegant deelgu. Standing on the front of the pulpit in front of the Bible was a lovely floral anchor and at each corner was a lovely floral anchor and at each corner of the pulpit hung wreaths, one of laurel the other of box and flowers. On bouquet stands in front of each pillar of the recess were placed large bonquets, and on the commu-nion table a basket of roses. In the rear of the recess from a bank of ferms rose a large white cross twined with vines, the whole presenting a beautiful appearance, and filling the large audience room with sweet perfume. The sermon of the pastor was most appro prists, delivered in an elequent and forcible manner, and was full of rejoleing and encoursgement. This two years' pastorate has been most successful. The congregation has ontributed $9,100, of which $3,300-have been for benevolent purposes. During the past year $7,500 has been given, of which $3,100 has been devoted to benevolent obects. 52 new members have been added to the charge, and the Mite society and sewing circle have raised almost $400. The beautiful church, large congregations, and well at tended weekly meetings speak plainly of the vigor and life of this people. The pastor has labored hard and actively, yet he must feel himself amply repaid by these signs of pro-perity. The music of the choir was ad. mirably rendered and won many commendations. Surely the congregation enter upon the third year of the present pastorate with

A BROW AGENTS DEATH. Frank Gibson, a Popular Advance Mar, Dies of Consumption.

Frank Gibson, a well known show agent, died on Saturday night at the residence of father-in-law, John D. Clinton, No. 306 West Orange street, of throat consumption. He had been in ill health for some time past. Mr. Gibson was born in Philadelphia, and at the time of his death was in his 35th year. His parents died when he was quite young, and he went to Washington to live. He entered the show business when but sixteen years of age, and was first with Signor Blitz. Although a young man he had a wide experience in amusements. His line was that of an advance agent, and he visited every city and town of any size in the United States. Among others he was soon employed by J. H. Haverly, Hyde & Behman, James Wallick, M. B. Leavitt, Buff do Bill, Charles Gardner, Burger Family, Barlow & Wilson, and many others. The last company that he was with was that of the "Big Four," who took the road after the failure of Simmons & Slocum's the past season. He was with them for several weeks, when he returned to Lancaster. For months past he had been unable to do anything, and was confined to the house much of the time. Mr. Gibson was an energetic agent, and worked hard for his employers. He was well posted in all branches of the show business, and had a large acquaintance. He was a valu able man to any company. Mr. Gibson was married to Miss Ciara Clinton, daughter of John D. Clinton, the well-known baggage agent of the Pennsylvania railroad company, three years ago. They had one child, which is now dead. The "Standard's" Optotop. LONDON, June 6 -The Standard does not believe that Lord Hartington or Mr. Chamberlain will be lured by such bait as Mr. Glad stone's hint to make the exclusion of the Irish members from the Westminster Parliament non essential. Far greater points than this are involved, says the Standard, on which Mr. Gladstone has not yielded. There are imperative reasons why they could not be accepted. These are the imperial administration of justice, the supremacy of executive power, the guarantee of religious liberty and the rights of property. If a Parliament at Dublin is once granted, everything else, says the Standard, follows as an inevitable consequence,

HAGER & BROTHER,

Finding it so difficult to supply genuine brands of Coffees in good, fresh condition, we have decided on reasting our own. Thus buying our Coffees in the green state. In original bags, direct from the Largest to be as represented, besides having the advantage of being always newly rousted. As it is well known that however good originally, Rousted Coffees soon lose their rich aroma, which is the essence of a cup of Coffee. Baron Liebig, the Celebrated the terman Chemist, says: "The berries of Coffee once roasted lose every hour somewhat of their aroma is consequence of the influence of the ovygen of the air, which, owing to porosity of the roasted berries, can easily penetrate. Coffee bornains a crystaine substance named Coffeine or Thime, because it is a compound part of Tea. This matter is voia till as and every care must be taken to contain in the Coffee. Secting is believing. Any person doubting it should call and be convinced, as we roast daily in the Note our prices—126, 18, 18, 20, 21, 23, 25 and 25 cts per pound. We are still giving the convinced, as we roast daily in the Coffees with our Teas and Coffees, which are as good as gold to exchange for tiles—are as good as gold to exch At CLARKE'S ORIGINAL TEA AND COFFEE STORE, No 52 West King St.
