He has been in the habit of leaving to return to the institution only after becoming right regged and dirty. He was violent at times and when he returned yesterday the officers of the institution determined to lock him up to a mafe place. This morning Dr. Shirk, one of the consulting physicians, was sent for and on examination of the man was made. He was found to be insane. Schrier at once walked off. Word was left at the station ouse and officers were told to arrest the man ers Pyle and Walsh started after him and found him sitting in a bakery at Orange and Plum street. As soon as the officers told him what they wanted be showed fight. An attempt was made to put the handcuffs on the lunatic's wrists, but is was unsuccessful. Finally the nippers were applied, and he "caved." He walked along quietly back to the asylum where he was locked up. In the struggle with the crasy man Officer Walsh was terribly bitten in the fleshy part of the hand by him, and Officer Pyle had the end of one finger badly Both officers were compelled to have their wounds dressed by a physician.

Got What He Was After. Milton Brady, of Millersville, came to town Wednesday and left his borse and buggy anding in front of the Stevens house from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 8 in the ing. Mr. Hiestand, proprietor of the tel, began to think that the horse was no being well treated, so he informed Officer Weaver. The latter took the animal to the Borrel Horse hotel and had it tied in the yard. Brady soon returned d, after making a great noise, threatened to have the officer arrested. Weaver did no worth a cent and then Brady turned his tre against Proprietor Hiestand, of the stevens house. He went to the hotel during Hiestand's absence, said he could whip him or any of his friends, and made so much noise that finally one of Mr. Hiestand's friends, who could no longer stand the abuse, took him in charge and thrashed him in great shape. Brady left for his home a sadder and wher man.

of his duties on the bench, where he was so often called upon to listen to the presentation of duli facts and prosy speeches. He carried this quality into private life, as will be shown by the recital of a single incident. The chief justice attended the inauguration of Governor Beaver last January in his official capacity, being called upon to administer the oath of office to the new executive. In the afternoon he was one of the many who took the special train coming east, and he was accompanied by his son-in-law, Colonel B. Frank Eshleman. Soon after the train pulled out of Harrisburg Colonel Eshleman iet the side of the chief justice to speak to a friend, and into the seat vacated dropped a well known and at one time eminent statesman, noted for his loquacity. The statesman at once opened his conversational batteries upon the chief justice and until the train reached Lancaster—occupying exactly one hour—did he pour into the ear of Judge Mercur his volumes of talk. It is safe to say that during this entire time the judge did not utter ten words. He sat and listened to the flow of talk with a degree of good nature that was simply wonderful, and he appeared to be thoroughly interested in all that was said. A Rure Chance.
