The chamber concert given on Monday evening in the rooms of Mr. Watter Bau-man, in the Rhonds building, was a thorough success. The mie of the limited number of sets some days before the event, together with the hearty appreciation shown by the audience, went far to retrieve the reputation of our people for knowing what is good. Tan bark had been spread on the belgian blocks in front of the building to deaden the noise of the street, and every effort had been made to contribute to the enjoyment of the entertainment and comfort of the audience.

The Mendelssohn club acquitted themselves even better than ever, singing with gree Kreutzer Sonsta, though very long, was listened to with rapt attention, and the three sections were marked by hearty applause the second being received with peculiar favor. The audience was charmed with the wonderfully delicate and clear notes that Mr. Thiele found in his violin. Mrs. Thiele at once stepped into the favor of the sudience, for this lady is gifted with a soprano voice of rare quality, and her singing, more especially in the lower parts of the music, was marked by refinement and purity of tone. Mr. Sherwood is a prime tavorite with Lan caster musical people, and while his playing last evening was all very fine, the "fire charm music" of Wagner, which he gave in response to persistent encores, was received with hearty enthusiasm. Mrs. Thiele sang it response to an encore a most beautiful "love song" by Edgar H. Sherwood, an uncle o the plantst. This composition is worthy of special praise. As a final encore Mrs. Thield ang a short ballad "Embarrassment"

JOHN DENNIS IN TOWN. The Man Who Caused Great Trouble to the

John Dennis, whose name figured for weeks in the daily papers a few years ago, was in the city on Monday. It will be remembered that when arrested for a conspiracy to defraud a Missouri horse dealer be kept the requisition from being honored for weeks by technicalities. He was eventually handed over to the Missouri authorities, was tried, convicted and sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of four years. After being in jall for a couple of years he set up a job with the prison physician, and by means of the loctor's certificate that his health was impaired and he would die if kept in jail, the governor of Missouri pardoned him last Noember. This story Dennis told on Monday to a number of his acquaintances. He still lives in the West and is in the horse tusiness. He looks well.

Stopped by a Telegram. Ezra Martin, a farmer living near Stannton, Virginia, died on Monday, aged about 35 years. He was a former resident of West Earl township and moved to Virginia five vears ago. His three staters, who live in Wes Earl, were about visiting him and came to this city on Monday afternoon to take a train Shortly before the time for the departure of the train they intended to take, they received a telegram announcing his death. The cause of death was not stated in the telegram. Officers Erected At a meeting of B. M. C club held at the residence of D.
