suditors reassembled at 2 o'clock, and the first claim presented was a note for $2,400 given in 1858 to a nephew of the decedent. 3. M. Wiestling, esq., of Harrisburg, repre-sented this claim. Its payment is resisted by the executor. The auditors were still in session and nothing definite had been agreed upon when we went to press.

The therp ve Sharp Ferjary Case The case of Christian Sharp, of this city, against his brother, Albert R. Sharp, of Har-risburg, charged with perjury, was heard before Alderman Deen to day. The testipanie threatened. At the optiming the market was about standy at last night's figures. After the first fow dealings there was a sale of 10,000 shares of Manhattan at 61 MM, supposed to be for the account of some large holder deatrons of liquidating. The price of the stoer broke charply in the hour to 11 o'clock, and about that times a report reached the street that Jay Gould lied suddenly this morning. The report was coupled by others to the effect that Russal Sage and Cyrus W. Field were the sulers. Manhat-tan dropped from 61.56 to 61.15 and the brokers became panicky. There was great excitement. Up to the present no failures have been reported. There is a panicky feeling on Wall street this morning. Manhattan has further declined to 04,13. The rest of the market has sold down from 1 to 9% per cent. The weakest of the list outside Manhattan are Western Union, Mis-sourt Facile, Richmond & West Point, Chicago, Barington & Quincy, Jersey Central and New Thursday ovening was appointed by Alder-man Barr for the hearing of Louiss Sobants and Jame Districh for adultary, but the pros, contrin did not appear, and the alderman dismissed the complation. The drunkenness contrix did not appear, and the aldermain dismissed the complaints. The drunkenness and disorderly conduct cases against Charles Besses and Henry Constein, who were in the house of Mrs. Schents when it was raided by the police, were dismissed upon payment of costs, and the surety of peace against Con-cisin was withdrawn. This is the second suit for adultery against these parties, and in both cases the prosecutive did not appear. Stealing the Ony Water.

A writer signing himself "Tex-payer" has addressed a note to Mayor Morton, in which he alleges that he knows certain parties in this city have been using large quantities of the city water without paying for the same. Bariington & Quincy, Jersey Central and New York and New England. All sorts of rumor are circulating among them, one to the effect that Jay Gould died this morning Mr. Gould has, however, been seen in his office and is in The mayor seidom pays any attention to anonymous communications, but if "Tax-payer" will call at his office and make him-self known, and show that there is just good bealth.

5-3) r. s.-The stock market was steadler dur-ing the afternoon. Prices were given more sup-port and the closing figures show a recovery of ground for the charges made by him, the mayor will see that the guilty persons are 1% to 20 per cent. from the lowest point, the lat ter in Manhattan.
