

SHOWERS CAP.
Softly, oh, softly the rain swept by thee,
Touching thee lightly with tender care;
Sorrow and death they have often brought
Thee, yet have they left thee but heavy to wear,
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

Far from the storms that are lashing the ocean,
Nearer each day to the land, the winds are blown,
Far from the waves that are big with commotion,
Under full sail and the harbor in sight;
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

Fast all the winds that were easterly and chilling,
Fast all the winds that were westerly and keen,
Fast all the winds that were southerly and swiftest,
Fast all the winds that were northerly and keen,
Fast all the winds that were easterly and chilling,
Fast all the winds that were westerly and keen,
Fast all the winds that were southerly and swiftest,
Fast all the winds that were northerly and keen.

Never a feeling of envy or sorrow
When the bright faces of children are seen;
Never a year from the young wouldst thou borrow
— Thou dost remember what Ith had between;
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

Rich in experience that angels might covet,
Rich in faith that both gods and men prize,
Rich in a love that grows from and above it,
Something thy sorrows and hushing thy fears;
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

Hearts at the sound of thy coming are lightened,
Ready and willing thy hand to relieve;
Many a face at thy kind word has brightened—
"It is more blessed to give than receive."
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

Eyes that grow dim to the earth and its glory,
Have a sweet recompense youth cannot know;
Ears that grow dull to the words and its story,
Drink in the words that from Paradise flow;
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR.
Curing a Cough.
When you have a cough, it is simply nature's warning that some of the organs of the system are not properly performing their work. In most cases, it will be found to be the liver. When the liver or kidneys or perhaps both fail to properly perform their necessary functions, it is done in part by the mucous membrane. This sends a discharge of mucus or phlegm into the throat, lungs and bowels; constipation follows, and the phlegm, which should be ejected, remains until it is absorbed, thus poisoning the system. A dry cough is a symptom of a disordered liver. A physician's statement: "In the treatment of lung and bronchial diseases, the liver is often implicated to such an extent that a hepatic remedy becomes necessary in effecting a cure of the lungs. In the treatment of such cases I prescribe Simmons Liver Regulator, prepared by J. H. Zella & Co., with entire satisfaction. I find that it acts mildly but effectively in regulating the secretions of the liver, kidneys and bowels."

"It is more blessed to give than receive."
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.

Eyes that grow dim to the earth and its glory,
Have a sweet recompense youth cannot know;
Ears that grow dull to the words and its story,
Drink in the words that from Paradise flow;
Growing old gracefully,
Gracefully fair.
