JULY.

July comes with burning sun;
School is over, work is done;
Vacation, with its many joys,
Comes to all the girls and boys.
To the fields the children hie,
In the long grass love to lie,
Gaze at clouds that overhead
By the south wind quickly sped,
Bring the soft and gentle showers,
Watering the fragrant flowers.
Or with the mowers, in the hay,
Sport and shout in merriest way;
Watch the busy, working bees,
Near the row of apple trees,
Humming in the summer heat,
Storing up the honey sweet.

To the beaches let us go—
See the waves, that to and fro
Rush upon the sandy shore,
White with foam, with thund'rous roar
Or in the salt, refreshing spray,
Wash all the stains of play away.
In the boat we'll row afar,
Where the cool, green islands are,
And beneath the old oak trees
Laugh and sing our childish glees.
Till the length'ning shadows come,
Warning us 'tis time for home.
There, underneath the starlit sky,
The hammock swings our lullaby.
All this fun, you'll not deny,
Comes to us with hot July.

Different Styles of Riding.

Cavalry Officer in Globe Democrat.

Few people who have not given the matter their attention are at all aware of the numerous styles of riding deemed the best by the adherents of each and the wide variation between the different types. The variety of horse furniture is as great as the different styles of riding, and the advocates of each are able to see little good in any other. The English fox hunter rides on a flat saddle, with short stirrups, stepped well forward; the Arab uses even a shorter stirrup, but rides a deep saddle, while our horse Indians, as fine equestrians as can be found in the world, ride with a nearly straight leg, as do the Mexicans and cowboys. The English saddle and seat is excellent for the purpose it was intended, for riding over obstacles, when frequent falls are inevitable, but is out of place anywhere else, and it is absurd to see people copy the English saddle and seat where the reasons for it do not pertain.

For all around purposes the cavalry saddle and seat is the best, and cavalry horsemanship throughout the world differs but little. A deep saddle, a short seat, and a straight leg give the firmest hold, and are far less fatiguing to the rider. An army saddle would be out of place in the hunting field, but scarcely more out of place than the hunting seat in park riding. The wretched jiggering up and down on a flat saddle with short stirrups, that is so generally seen among the green riders in Forest park, is at once offensive and ridiculous to the eye of every good horseman, and a very little reasoning should show those who practice it its absurdity.

Composite Photographs.

From the Boston Transcript.

Carrie—Oh, Frank! Tillie has been telling me about composite photographs. How are they made?

Frank—Very simple. You draw the portraits of any number of persons on thin trans parent paper, and then place one upon another, right eye upon right eye, left eye upon left and mouth upon mouth—

Carrie—But Frank, can't the thin paper be dispensed with?

It could and was.

Woman's Authority Questioned at Last.

From the Omaha World.

Little Dick—I don't want to do that.

Omaha Mamma—But you must.

"Why?"

"Because I say so."

"What's the reason I have to mind you? I ain't your husband."

What an Indian Never Has.

From the San Francisco Alta.

A physician says that a wild Indian never has a cold in his head. True, but there are other things in his head which are abhorrent to civilization.

Driven to Desperation.

From Tid-Bits.

Jack—What! Are you smoking cigarettes?

Harry—Yes, dash it all! Cora refused my offer of marriage last night, and I don't care now what becomes of me.

Breaking Down and Building Up.

When a man breaks down in the matter of physical strength, the question of his recovery depends in great measure upon the length of time he allows to elapse before adopting medicinal means to recuperate it. A tonic which gives a speedy and powerful impulse to the processes of digestion and assimilation, is the best auxiliary he can employ, and he should resort to it promptly. The most reliable dependence of the feeble, the aged and the nervous, however proved to be Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an invigorant of national reputation and proven worth, commended by medical men of distinction not only for building up a broken-down system, but as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, fever and ague, and kidney trouble. While not claimed to be a panacea, it is a most useful and comprehensive household remedy. It is moreover, eminently safe as well as effective.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, No. 137 North Queen street. (5)

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents or any similar applications, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

[Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere 25 cents a bottle. may31-lyd&w

H. B. Cochran, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa., is selling SHILOH'S COUGH CURE as a guarantee to cure all throat and lung troubles. (6)

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most distressing, nauseous and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the multitude of modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising. jy5-2wdeod&w

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a rush of trade at Cochran's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free. Every bottle warranted. (3)

Caution.

We would caution the Public to beware of Dealers offering Kemp's Balsam at less than the regular Price, 50 cents and $1, as oftentimes imitations or inferior articles are sold as the genuine in order to enable them to sell cheaply. H. B. Cochran, druggist, No. 137 North Queen street is our agent for Lancaster. Sample bottle given to you free. oct5-1w&w

MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

All Run Down

From the weakening effects of warm weather, by hard work, or from a long illness, you need a good tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. If you have never tried this peculiar medicine, do so now. It will give you strength and appetite.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me new life, and restored me to my wonted health and strength." WILLIAM H. CROSBY, Tilton, N. H.

Given Up to Die

"I was completely run down, and was for nearly four years under medical treatment, being given up to die by physicians. My mother urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. At last I consented, and I have never taken anything which helped me as much as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which restored me to health and vigor. I have been taking it about four months, and am now a different being. I can work all day with very little fatigue. I recommend it to anyone whose system is prostrated." NELLIE NOBLE, Peoria, Ill.

A Good Appetite

"When I bought Hood's Sarsaparilla I made a good investment of one dollar in medicine for the first time. It has driven off rheumatism and improved my appetite so much that my boarding house mistress says I must keep it locked up or she will be obliged to raise my board with every other boarder that takes Hood's Sarsaparilla." GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

DRUNKENNESS

—OR THE—

LIQUOR HABIT POSITIVELY CURED BY ADMINISTERING DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by CHAS. A. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.

Mexican War Veteran.

The wonderful efficacy of Swift's Specific as a remedy and cure for rheumatism and all blood diseases, has never had a more conspicuous illustration than this case affords. The candid, unsolicited and emphatic testimony given by the venerable gentleman must be accepted as convincing and conclusive. The writer is a prominent citizen of Mississippi. The gentleman to whom Mr. Martin refers, and to whom he is indebted for the advice to which he owes his final relief from years of suffering, is Mr. King, for many years the popular night clerk of the Lawrence House, at Jackson.

JACKSON, Miss., April 29, 1887.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, Atlanta, Ga.:

Gentlemen.—I have been an invalid pensioner for forty years, having contracted pulmonary and other diseases in the Mexican War, but not till the 1st of March, 1875, did I feel any symptoms of rheumatism. On that day I was suddenly stricken with that disease in both hips and ankles. For twenty days I walked on crutches. Then the pain was less violent, but it shifted from joint to joint. For weeks I would be totally disabled, either on one side of my body or the other. The pain never left me a moment for eleven years and seven months — that is from March 1, 1875, when I was first attacked, to October 1, 1886, when I was cured. During these eleven years of intense suffering I tried innumerable prescriptions from various physicians, and tried everything suggested by friends, but if I ever received the least benefit from any medicine taken internally or externally, I am not aware of it. Finally, about the first of September I made arrangements to go to the Hot Springs of Arkansas, having despaired of every other remedy, when I accidentally met an old acquaintance, Mr. King, now of the Lawrence House of this city. He had once been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and, as I supposed, had been cured by a visit to the Hot Springs. But when I met him he told me that his visit to the Hot Springs was in vain—he found no relief. On his return from Hot Springs he heard for the first time, of S. S. S. as a remedy for rheumatism. He tried it and six bottles made a complete cure. Several years have passed since, but he has had no return of the disease.

I immediately returned to try it. In September I took four bottles, and by the first of October I was well—so far as the rheumatism was concerned. All pain had disappeared, and I HAVE NOT FELT A TWINGE OF IT SINCE.

I have no interest in making this statement other than the hope that it may direct some other sufferer to a sure source of relief, and if it has this result I am well rewarded for my trouble. I am very respectfully and truly your friend, J. M. H. MARTIN.
