AMOS RESTRE. re's a lively little creeter which is known as Amos Rector and it couldn't be much fleeter if it tried;

It is ever sweetly singing while about ? swiftly winging, seeking out a place stinging through your hide;

In gore 'tis ever wadin', lanced from grandam and from maiden, till its veins are over ladened with the stuff; And yet, though rich its diet, the small creeter ne'er is quiet, and you really can't come nightt-which is tuff;

You think you're sure to lam it, and against the wall you jam it, but you'll sadly mutter, damuit, as it skips,

Oh, smart is Amos Koeter, on your very nose he'll teeter, and he says "this my most'er" as he ntps.

Confound the wretched creature: he swells your every feature, as he bleeds you like a leed or dineth off your face.

Oh, if he sang in Eden, no stronger proof I'm needin' of the cause of the secedin' from the place.

WITH THE PUNNY POLES Why They Don't tio.

From the Omaha World. First Mosquito - What a queer smell Wonder what it is ? Second Mosquite—Guess somebody's cook ing cabbago. "Oh, I see now. He! he! This fellow is smoking so as to drive us away." From the Chicago Tribune.

"Can't somebody stop that runsway?"
yelled a stranger in Detroit, excitedly, as a cab came tearing down the street at breaknick speed, driver and passenger both apparently frautic with terror.

"That ain't no runsway," said an old resident carelessiy; "it's an umpire getting away from the baseball ground. The boys must have got beat." Gave Himself Away.

such grower ? Suspicious Party – Yes, sir. Magistrate – How is the crop this year ? Suspicious Party – Big, enormous. Magistrate – Lock him up. – He's no Delawate peach grower. Popular Among the People

He (after church) - What a very elequent man the Rev. Dr. Whitechoker is, Miss Breezy. I was delighted with him.

She (of Chicago)—Yes, there are no flies on Dr. Whitechoker. A Mild Bentence.

Magistrate (to policeman) - What's the charge against this man ? Policeman—He asked me if it enough for me.
Magistrate—Six months.

"The Bully of Berks County." Moses Rothermel, a well-known young farmer, brother of ex District Attorney Roth ermel, and Frank Templar, a butcher, met Wednesday afternoon in an open field near Fleetwood, Berks county, to decide who was Fleetwood, Berks county, to decide who was "the bully of Berks county." They fought with bare knuckles stripped to the waist, without a referee, kicking and biting being allowed. They brutally gouged and kicked each other in regular hammer-and-tongsstyle for fifteen minutes, when their friends took them in charge. Bothermel had both eyes closed, and was badly kicked in the ribs and abdomen. Templar's face, was fearfully punished. Five hundred people witnessed the fight.

A Jeffersonian President. From the New York World.

When the train containing the president and Mrs. Cleveland arrived at Holland Pa-tent, no carriage was in attendance to convey them to "The Weeda," Miss Cleveland's residence. So the president, instead of waiting, picked up a bundle, said, "Come on," and the conjugal pair started at a slow walk up the village street to their destination. The president deserves credit for this Jeffersonian proceeding, especially as he carried the bundle.

Breaking Down and Building Up. When a man breaks down in the matter of physical strength, the question of his recovery depends in great measure upon the length of medicinal means to recuperate it. A tonic which gives a sperily and powerful impulse to the processes of digestion and assimilation, is the best auxiliary by can employ, and he should consort to it promptly. The most reliable dependence of the breide, the agest and the nextons, hastver proves to be flowether? Stomach Britters, an invigorant of national reputation and proven worth, commended by methed most of distinction not only for building up a broken-down welcom, but as a remedy for dispersion, constipation, liver complaint, fever and aguse, and kidney trouble. While not dispined to be a pannece, it is a most useful dispersion of the property of the processor. to the processes of digrestion and assimilation. termeds. In all diseases of the massi nuccus membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been allow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents or any similar applications, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years been ealithe worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Croan lish. ju20-2wdeod&w

H. B. Cochran, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancastor, Pa., is selling SHILOH'S COUGH CUBE as a guarantee to cure all throat and long troubles.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than masal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most distressing, nauseous and disgusting life the desh is helr to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the multitude of modes of treatment until the introduction of Hy's Cream failm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and curprising.

Mexican War Veteran

The wonderful efficacy of Switt's Specific as a remedy and cure for rheumatism and all blood diseases, has never had a more conspicuous illustration than this case afforcs. The candid, illustration than this case after?s. The candid, unsolicited and emphatic testimony given by the venerable gentleman must be accepted as convincing and conclusive. The writer is a prominent citizen of Mississippi. The gentleman to whom Mr. Martin refers, and to whom he is indebted for the advice to which he owes his final relief from years of suffering, is Mr. King, for many years the popular night cierk of the Lawrence House, at Jackson.
