PAPA'S TRATA ARE BRING PIXED. Put away the beefstenk, Meilie, Chop the cutiets into heek; Turn the solids into saleds, Crush potatoes into mash. Intre the rice in little pattles, Have the much with dressing mixed, For the hour is fraught with danger— Papa's teeth are being fixed.

Mix the feetive pancahe batter,
Chop the lobster into bits:
Fry the soft and prastic doughnut
That the grinder never grits:
Cut the bread is yielding slices,
Lay an oyster in betwirt,
Hanish all the pleasant solids—
Papa's teeth are being fixed.

A Dakota Bride.

From Tid Bits.
Old Bud Jackson, one of the terrors of Mon tana, lost his fourth wife, and came over into Dakota for a fifth victim. He met and married the widow Beggs, a frail, gentle-looking little woman, who had just been left a widow for the third time and seemed crushed to for the third time and seemed crushed to earth by her losses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud wended their way to Bud's Montana home, and as the gushing bridegroom led his bride into his lovely cot of one room, and introduced her to his favorite dogs, he said tenderly:

"You want to remember, Mrs. Jackson, that I'm the boss hers. Don't you never fer git that. The four dear companions that I've laid away mighty soon found that out. All I ever had to do was to crook my finger and they come a runnin' to know what I wanted. There wan't no hangin' back nor askin' questions. You see that ox gad up there? Well, that's the little arbytrafer that useter settle any slight diff'rences I ever had with the four dear companions that are gone. They ginerally suckkumed after 'bout six licks, an' I hope you'il be equally obesjent.

"Now, s'posen' you take my boots an' clean em up an' grease 'em. They've got mighty muddy while we was on our tower. Clean 'em up good. I'm mighty perticular 'bout my boots, and I'd hate to take that air gad down the first day you was in your new home. Come an' pull off the boots."

The frait, sad-eyed bride did not move. Her pretty lips began to tremble, and her rentle bosom heaved.

"You comin'?" roared Jackson. "Hev I got to snatch down that air gad? Oh, yer got to snatch down that air gad? Ob, yer comin' eh?"

"You comin'?" roared Jackson. "Hev I got to snatch down that air gad? Ob, yer comin' ch?"

She came. She snatched down the gad on her way, and with set teeth and eyes that twinkled merrily she landed within two feet of Bud. He had faced wild-cats and hyenas, but never anything like this. A conflict ensued; it was short, fierce and decisive. It ended in Bud's crawling under the bed, and as the bride prodded him with a hoe handle she gayly shouted:

"Ye pore innercent thing, ye! Hain't no mo' sense ner to raise the dander of Lizy Jane Baggs Jackson, her that never did nor never will take a word of same from any man living. Ye'd better crawl under there! Ye'd better crawl under there! Ye'd better crawl clean through the wall. Ob, ye'll holier 'nuff, hey? Well, you go and cut a month's supply o' steve wood 'fore you show yer face in this cabin agin. I'll learn ye who's boss here!"

Heroes and Heroises.

There are few who endure bodily troubles without complaint. Did you ever meet among the herices and hervines of your acquaintance—it any such there have been—one with a yellowish cast of countenance and that jaintdired aspect generally, which the most unpractised eye recognizes as the product of a disordered liver, who did not complain, and previably too, of the soreness of the recalcitrant organ, of pains beneath the right shoulder blade, of dispeptic symptoms, constipation and headache? Of course you ming flostetter's Stemach Bitters, or he would not so have looked-so have complained. To purify the blood when contaminated with blue, and conduct the secretion into its proper channel, for e-establish reguand remove impediments to complete digea-tion, nothing can approach in efficacy this percless alterative and tonic. Malarial com-plaints, always involving the liver and kid-ney and bladder inactivity, are remedied by B. It is a capital appetiaer.

APROIAL BOTICES.

Do Not Move Blindiy. Go carefully in purchasing medicine. Many advertised remedies can work great injury—are worse than none. Burdock Blood Billers are pursily a vecetable preparation: the smallest child can take them. They hild dease and cure the patient in a sale and kindly way. For sale by R. B. Cochean, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Depend Upon It. Mother Shipton's prophesies and Louisiana elections are very uncertain things, but Thom-as' Relectric Oil can be depended upon always, it cures aches and pains of every description. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Orem attreet Language.

First Bate Evidence.

How Much Will Do It.

How much of Thomas' Relective Oil is required to care! Only a very little. A few drops will cure any kind of an acho; and but a triffe more is needed for sprales and amenes. Bhounatism is not so readily affected; an ounce and sometimes two ounces are required. No medicine, however, is so sure to cure with the same number of applications. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

"Don't Hurry, Gentlemen," Said a man on his way to be hanged, "there'll be no fun till i get there." We say to the dyspeptic nervous, and debilitated, don't hurry thought-lessly for some remedy of doubtful merit, uncertain of relief, when you can get at the drug gists for one dollar Burdock Blood Butters almost sure to cure and certain to benedi. For saile by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A New-paper Editor.

O. M. Holcomb, of Bloomville, Ohio, rises to explain: "lida that terrible disease catarth, for twenty years; could't taste or smell, and hearing was failing. Thomas' Electric Oil cured me. These are facts voluntarily given against a former prejudice of patent medicine." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lanacater.

Is to raise's nice family of boys and girls and then have them carried into an early grave by that terrible disease Consumption. Heed the warning and check it in its first stages by the prompt use of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, warranted to cure and relieve all cases. Frice Sec. and $1. For sale by H. C. Cochess, druggist, No. 137 North Queen street.

MOR COUNTY AUDITOR. CHAS. W. PUSEY, HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

The Blood

Is the source of health; therefore, to keep well, purity the blood by taking Rood's Parsaparille. This medicine is peculiarly designed to not upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has appeade action, also, upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and effect matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually alds weak, impaired pad debilitated organs, invigorates the servons system, tones the digestive organs, and imparts now life and energy to all the functions of the body. A possiliarity of Hood's Sarasparilla is that it strengthens and builds up the system while it eradicates disease.

Caused by a Spider Bits. "Seven years ago, while my little boy was playing in the yard, he was bitten by a spider. The polson entered his blood, and sores soon broke out about his body; they itched terribly and caused him intense suffering. Feveral times we succeeded in healing the sores up, but in spite of all we could do they would soon break out again. Finally we tried Hood's Barsaparilla, and he took one bottle and one-third of another, when the sores disappeared. He has not a sore spot on him now, and I consider him perfectly cured." WE. H. B. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, Atlanta, Ga.:

Genilemen.—I have been an invalid pensioner for forty years, having contracted pulmonary and other diseases in the Mexican. War, but not till the lat of March, 1875, did i feel any symptoms of rhoumatism. On that day I was suddenly stricken with that disease in both hips and ankies. For twenty days I walked on crutches. Then the pain was less violent, but it shifted from joint to joint. For weeks I would be totally disabled, either on one aide of my body or the other. The pain never left me a moment for eleven years and seven months — that is from March I, 1876, when I was first attacked, to October I, 1886, when I was first attacked, to October I, 1886, when I was cured. During these eleven years of intense suffering I tried innumerable prescriptions from various physicians, and tried everything suggested by friends, but if I ever received the least benefit from any medicine taken interhally or externally, I am not aware of it. Finally, about the first of September I made arrangements to go to the Hot bptings of Arkansas, having despaired of every other remedy, when I accidentally met an old acquaintancy, when I accidentally met an old acquaintancy of a s. S. as a remedy for rhoumatism. His return from Hot springs he heard for the first time, of S. S. as a remedy for rhoumatism. His river from Hot springs he heard for the first time, of S. S. as a remedy for rhoumatism. His river is one four bottles, and by the first of October I was well—as far as the rhoumatism was concerned. All pain had disappeared, and I have no interest in making this statement other than the hope that it may direct some other sufferer to a sure source of relied, and if it has this regult I am well rewarded for my trouble. I am very respectfully and truly your friend,
