THE WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER. PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.

THE LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER. LANCASTER, JULY 19, 1887.

A Story of Neglect. We publish to day a careful and unembellished account of the old pest-house...

When church members in good health lose their members in dealing with flies, it is hard to imagine the misery of a man too weak to defend himself against them...

Southern Iron Competition. A Birmingham, Alabama, letter to the Philadelphia Dispatch says that it is doubtful whether last year's production of pig iron...

To Keep Warm in Winter. Just now philosophy is useful, and it may serve to reconcile one with his present lot to consider how much trouble it takes to keep warm in winter...

A Plan in Farming. A scheme of co-operative farming has been under trial in Minnesota, where a colony of half dozen families from Minneapolis have settled in Crow Wing county...

One of Our Cousins. The Philadelphia News notes that Consul General of Montevideo, has resigned his position because the salary is inadequate...

A Fortune Gains in Speculation. Christy Moore, a school teacher residing near Campbelltown, Lebanon county, has just lost $12,000 in stocks and grain in Philadelphia...

At $12,000 a year. Out of this he had to pay $800 a year for a wretched six room house and $400 a year for clerk hire...

This is the Russian system brought home with a vengeance, and if true, calls for prompt attention. But it must be possible in many cases for an American engaged in business in a foreign port to undertake the discharge of consular duties...

The commissioner of patents has very properly refused to permit the registration of a trademark in which the words Knights of Labor and K. of L. distillery appear.

SENATOR PAYNE, of Ohio, will have his election as delegate to the Cleveland, Ohio convention contested. Standard oil and Democracy seem not to mix well.

THE Delaware county Record in its last issue publishes seven columns concerning the pretty town of Media, its past history, steady growth, present status, future prospects, public works, buildings, churches, educational institutions, topographical features, railroad facilities, its healthfulness and attractions. And the work is very well done.

THE total production of gold in the United States last year was $1,869,000, an increase of $3,008,000 over that of the previous year. California, the pioneer, not content with having come to the front as a grower of grain and fruit, still leads all the states in her yield of gold, being credited last year with $1,725,000.

As a matter of fact, not one tenth of the people of this city go away for summer vacations. An amusing incident occurred in the House of Commons on Monday when Mr. Walter Hume Long, Conservative member of Parliament for the Devon division of Wiltshire, tried to secure a public reproof for Mr. Charles Turner in Parliament for Middle Creek. Turner had called Hume "a damned snob" at the time the Parnellites were excluded from voting, and Hume thrived for vengeance.

It is sound advice that the Philadelphia Record gives: When you choose to go boating, don't also go boating. The Philadelphia Times wants the board of pardon to pardon the late Senator Johnson was during the hour when Sharkey was murdered. Can the editor who wrote this prove beyond a doubt where he himself was at that hour?

ALFONSO XIII., King of Spain, is now seventeen years old and receives a salary of $1,000,000. MICHAEL DAVITT's action in counseling Irish tenants to resist eviction has been everywhere celebrated with honor and respect. PRINCE JEROME NAPOLEON is about to publish a book entitled "Napoleon the First and His Dictators." It will be a complete exposure of Napoleon's ideas.

CHARLES T. PARKY, one of the senior members of the firm of Burns, Messers, Williams & Co., proprietors of the Baldwin locomotive works, died at his cottage at Beach Haven, N. J., aged 65 years. COLONEL H. GOOD, proprietor of the Grand Central hotel, Reading, died suddenly Monday evening, of nervous prostration, brought on by loss of rest. He had been superintending the erection of an addition to his premises. He was in his 57th year.

At the time that he intended to invest in real estate. From the time that he intended to invest in real estate. From the time that he intended to invest in real estate.

He Protests Against Girls Selling Men's Underclothing. Editor Daines's Truth. In the name of the beautiful masculinity I want to protest against the employment of women in stores devoted to the sale of what are known in the trade as "gentle" furnishing goods.

A Pointer for Crematoriums. From the Sanitary News. The cremation society at Zurich, Switzerland, one of the best organized associations in the world, has adopted the Bourry system, which is described as follows: "Like Siemens, Mr. Bourry allows only heated air to communicate with the body. In both systems the corpse burns directly, no flame is to be seen singing at the head, but it burns itself by the abundance of hot oxygen which surrounds it. Bourry uses carbonic acid gas, prepared in a coke regenerator, for heating the crematorium. During the process of cremation he uses mainly chimney gases for heating the air before it touches the corpse, which allows a more economical use of the heat. It is of great advantage that the chimney needs be thirty-five feet high from the base of the cellar, so that it is fully covered up by the building without being touched, by an almost automatically working apparatus into the urn. The distillation of the body is done in the dark, unseen and uncontrolled, but the whole action is clear and open. Bourry and Venini place the crematorium, which has the shape of a sarcophagus, and which can be approached from all sides, in the midst of the hall in which the service is to take place. There is a little window on the back of the sarcophagus through which the process of cremation, which is completed within one to one-and-a-half hours, without smell or smoke, and which is clean, beautiful, and avoids every unesthetic manipulation."

Unnecessary Fears. From the New York Sun. Employer (to new clerk) - "Didn't I see you coming out of a billiard saloon last night?" New Clerk (frightened) - "Yes, sir, Employer - "You play billiards, then?" New Clerk - "Yes, sir, Employer - "Well, after we close up I'll go around and play you a game for the drinks. I'm something of a player myself."

HOT JULY. Hot July, Brassy day, Slightly rainy, We seek relief, but no relief we find, And the bell tolls a loud to human kind. MIDSUMMER SUNSETS. I love midsommer sunsets, rolled Down the rich west in waves of gold, With blinding crests of billowy fire, But when the sun has set, and the stars are in, In noiseless ebb, low-singing, grand, By gentle twilight's flickering strand, In gentle mood I love to mark The slow gradations of the dark: Till from Orient's mists withdrawn, Light to the moon's resplendent dawn; On dusky vale and shadowy dale, Her radiant falls like balmy rain; Gaiety glows of shadows own her night, She bathes the reedwood wood in light, As that which is the life of the day, Ere while did breathe its life away, Methinks, what'er its hours had won, Hath not perchance been shadowy dale, But o'er the moonlight's silvery tide Comes back, subdued and purified. -Paul Hamilton Hayne.
