THE SUMMER FISHERS.

Three fishers went sailing out into the lake,
Out into the lake as the sun went down;
Each thought on the biggest lie he could make—
And the reporters stood watching them out of the town;
For fishers will lie and reporters believe,
For 'twas ever their wont though they seldom deceive—
For we've all been fishing ourselves!

Three editors sat in their offices high,
And they made up their sheets as the moon went down;
And each murmured, "I'll glance at the usual lie,"
And they picked up the "copy" with dark-some frown;
"For papers must print the fisher's tale
Though it calmly tells of hooking a whale—
For we've been fishing ourselves!"

Three journalists lay on the office floor
In the gaslight gleam when the foreman came 'round,
For each had read the tale from the shore
And each had sunk down in a deadly swound;
For the fishers had said and the scribes had written
That all that eve not a fish had bitten—
And truth was stranger than fiction!

A Famous Coral Necklace.

Queen Margherita, of Italy, possesses a coral necklace which she always wears day and night. If the queen wears a dress with which the ornament does not harmonize, she keeps her necklace on, although hidden. The following story is told in connection with the necklace: Five years ago the Italian Crown Prince Victor Emmanuel was out walking in Venice with his tutor. He noticed some corals in a jeweller's window which pleased him very much. "I shall buy those for my mother," he said; and so saying entered the shop to ask the price of the corals. On hearing the sum, he said: "I have not so much money at present, but I will make you an offer. I will buy five corals to-day and you keep the rest for me, and as often as I have saved some money I will send it to you and you will send to me as many of the remaining corals as the money will buy." The bargain was concluded, but two years elapsed before the prince had the pleasure of presenting his mother with the necklace. The queen, on hearing the circumstances of the purchase, was very much affected and said to her son, "This is now the most precious of all my jewels, and I will never cease to wear it, for it will always remind me of your tender love for me."

An Intelligent Crab.

From the Boston Courier.

"Would you believe it," she gurgled, "while I was bathing in the sea the other morning a nasty crab fastened itself on my toe."

"Quite an intelligent crab, I should think," her lover replied.

"Intelligent! Why do you think so?"

"Because it knew how to catch on to a nice thing."

Then she blushed, and when he attempted to take a kiss she made scarcely any resistance.

Heroes and Heroines.

There are few who endure bodily troubles without complaint. Did you ever meet among the heroes and heroines of your acquaintance—if any such there have been—one with a yellowish cast of countenance and that jaundiced aspect generally, which the most unpractised eye recognizes as the product of a disordered liver, who had nerves plain, and peevishly too, of the soreness of the recalcitrant organ, of pains beneath the right shoulder blade, of dyspeptic symptoms, constipation and headache? Of course you never did, and of course the individual was not using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, or he would not so have looked—so have complained. To purify the blood when contaminated with bile, and conduct the secretion into its proper channel, to re-establish regularity of the bowels, banish biliousness and remove impediments to complete digestion, nothing can approach in efficacy this peerless alterative and tonic. Malarial complaints, always involving the liver and kidney and bladder inactivity, are remedied by it. It is a capital appetizer.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Do Not Move Blindly.

Go carefully in purchasing medicine. Many advertised remedies can work great injury—are worse than none. Burdock Blood Bitters are purely a vegetable preparation; the smallest child can take them. They all diseases and cure the patient in a safe and kindly way. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Depend Upon It.

Mother Shipton's prophesies and Louisiana elections are very uncertain things, but Thomas' Eclectric Oil can be depended upon always. It cures aches and pains of every description. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

First Rate Evidence.

"Often unable to attend business, being subject to serious disorder of the kidneys. After a long siege of sickness tried Burdock Blood Bitters and was relieved by half a bottle." Mr. B. Turner, of Rochester, N.Y., takes pains to write. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

How Much Will Do It.

How much of Thomas' Eclectric Oil is required to cure? Only a very little. A few drops will cure any kind of an ache; and but a trifle more is needed for sprains and soreness. Rheumatism is not so readily affected; an ounce and sometimes two ounces are required. No medicine, however is so sure to cure with the same number of applications. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

"Don't Hurry, Gentlemen."

Said a man on his way to be hanged, "there'll be no fun till I get there." We say to the dyspeptic nervous, and debilitated, don't hurry thoughtlessly for some remedy of doubtful merit, uncertain of relief, when you can get at the druggists for one dollar Burdock Blood Bitters almost sure to cure and certain to benefit. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Newspaper Editor.

O. M. Holcomb, of Bloomville, Ohio, rises to explain: "Had that terrible disease catarrh, for twenty years; could't taste or smell, and hearing was failing. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. These are facts voluntarily given against a former prejudice of patent medicine." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Sad Misfortune.

Is to raise a nice family of boys and girls and then have them carried into an early grave by that terrible disease Consumption. Heed the warning and check it in its first stages by the prompt use of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, warranted to cure and relieve all cases. Price 50c. and $1. For sale by H. B. MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

VIGOR AND VITALITY

Are quickly given to every part of the body by Hood's Sarsaparilla. That tired feeling is entirely overcome. The blood is purified, enriched and vitalized, and it carries health instead of disease to every organ. The stomach is toned and strengthened, the appetite restored. The kidneys and liver are roused and invigorated. The brain is refreshed, the mind made clear and ready for work. The whole system is built up and rejuvenated by this peculiar medicine.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"Thanks to the use of the successful medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, all that poison in my blood, which caused sores to break out and made life almost a burden, has been driven into exile, and though seventy-six, I am enjoying life, and feel active and strong as at fifty. 'Hold fast to that which is good' is my motto. I shall recommend to all my friends similarly affected that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the true elixir of life." WILLIAM HENDERMAN GROSSECK, Brooklyn, N. Y.

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG

"I was in bad condition with fainting spells and general debility. I was run down, ate hardly anything, and hardly dared go out on the street alone for fear of having a fainting spell. Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me a wonderful amount of good, and I am now in good health again. My appetite has been good ever since taking the medicine, and I can eat a square meal with relish." Mrs. MOLLIE CURTIS, 119 Eleventh St., Covington, O.

A POTENT REMEDY FOR

Indigestion, Acute and Atonic Dyspepsia, Chronic and Gastro-Intestinal Catarrh, Vomiting in Pregnancy, Cholera Infantum, and in convalescence from Acute Diseases.

Over 500 physicians have sent to us the most flattering opinions upon Digestylin as a remedy for all diseases arising from improper digestion.

For 20 years we have manufactured the Digestive Ferments expressly for PHYSICIANS' use, and for the past year DIGESTYLIN has been by them extensively prescribed, and to-day it stands without a rival as a digestive agent. It is not a secret remedy but a scientific preparation, the formula of which is plainly printed on each bottle. Its great DIGESTIVE POWER is created by a careful and proper treatment of the ferments in manufacture. It is very agreeable to the taste, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach. For the reliability of our statements we would respectfully refer to all Wholesale and Retail Druggists, and PHYSICIANS generally. Price $1.00. Sold by Druggists, or

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.

Mexican War Veteran.

The wonderful efficacy of Swift's Specific as a remedy and cure for rheumatism and all blood diseases, has never had a more conspicuous illustration than this case affords. The candid, unsolicited and emphatic testimony given by the venerable gentleman must be accepted as convincing and conclusive. The writer is a prominent citizen of Mississippi. The gentleman to whom Mr. Martin refers, and to whom he is indebted for the advice to which he owes his final relief from years of suffering, is Mr. King, for many years the popular night clerk of the Lawrence House, at Jackson.

JACKSON, Miss., April 29, 1887.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, Atlanta, Ga.:

Gentlemen.—I have been an invalid pensioner for forty years, having contracted pulmonary and other diseases in the Mexican War, but not till the 1st of March, 1875, did I feel any symptoms of rheumatism. On that day I was suddenly stricken with that disease in both hips and ankles. For twenty days I walked on crutches. Then the pain was less violent, but it shifted from joint to joint. For weeks I would be totally disabled, either on one side of my body or the other. The pain never left me a moment for eleven years and seven months — that is from March 1, 1875, when I was first attacked, to October 1, 1886, when I was cured. During these eleven years of intense suffering I tried innumerable prescriptions from various physicians, and tried everything suggested by friends, but if I ever received the least benefit from any medicine taken interbally or externally, I am not aware of it. Finally, about the first of September I made arrangements to go to the Hot Springs of Arkansas, having despaired of every other remedy, when I accidentally met an old acquaintance, Mr. King, now of the Lawrence House of this city. He had once been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and, as I supposed, had been cured by a visit to the Hot Springs. But when I met him he told me that his visit to the Hot Springs was in vain—he found no relief. On his return from Hot Springs he heard for the first time, of S. S. S. as a remedy for rheumatism. He tried it and six bottles made a complete cure. Several years have passed since, but he has had no return of the disease.

I immediately returned to try it. In September I took four bottles, and by the first of October I was well—as far as the rheumatism was concerned. All pain had disappeared, and I HAVE NOT FELT A TWINGE OF IT SINCE.

I have no interest in making this statement other than the hope that it may direct some other sufferer to a sure source of relief, and if it has this result I am well rewarded for my trouble. I am very respectfully and truly your friend, J. M. R. MARTIN.
