A LESSON TO LYRUMBES.

A Man Horribly Treated My & Mob Kecapes and In Toledo, Iowa, there has been enseted real tragedy that would make a strong stage argument against lynch law. Four months ago John Hobon mysteriously disappeared and circumstances indicating foul play pointed to a wealthy farmer named Rhone as his probable murderer. The men had quarreled just before the disappearance at d and Rhone, who was Hohon's employer, had theed him from the house and followed him out, returning alone an hour after. Rhone was arrested for the murder and while under arrest a mob took him from the jail and threatened to hang him. He was asked to reveal the place where Hohon's lody was concealed, but after declaring he knew nothing of it, was repeatedly hung by the neck until he was black in the face.

the neck until he was black in the face. After the preliminary examination was over and Rhone was released, public anger rose to fever heat. A mob visited his home twice with the intention of lynching him. The first time he made his way out of a back door and conceated himself in the woods. The second time he crowded himself under a barrel in the cellar, and during the search one of the mob leaned his arm upon it without discovering him. Finally matters grew too warm for Rhone and he left the country. Tois fastened suspicion upon him stronger warm for Khone and he left the country. This fastened suspicion upon him stronger than ever, and a heavy reward was offered for him by the people at a mass meeting. After his escape, Khone diguised himself and hired a professional detective to assist him in finding his supposed victim. They searched all through lows and Northern Missouri. Khone then remembered that he heard higher frequently express a design to Missouri. Rhone then remembered that he heard Hohon frequently express a desire to live in Kansas City. The pair went there and searched the city without success. They were about giving up in despair when yesterday they dropped into a restaurant at 571 Walnut street. The waiter who came to take their order was Hohon. He started at the sight of his former employer, and the latter was so overcome at the sight of his hired man that he aimest fainted. Hohon consented to accumpany them back to Iowa and the pair he almost fainted. Hohon consented to ac-company them back to Iowa and the pair reached Toledo to-day. The appearance of the supposed victim produced the greatest excitement and a reaction in Rhone's favor set in which culminated in a mass meeting in which his character was vindicated. A subscription was then started to indemnify him for the choking and hanging and other trouble he had sustained.

A Woman Murders Another. At the Cartwright hotel, Summitville, Ind. Thursday atternoon, Mrs. Sarah Dawson, a colored laundress, made a remark reflecting on the reputation of a white woman name Mrs. Swops, who was in the hotel sitting room. So enraged was Mrs. Swope that setz a butcher saile she plunged it to the hill three times in the colored women's abdomen. The negress staggered to the door and fell dead across the side walk. Mrs. Swope gave herself into the custody of the town mar-

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. The Blood

In the source of health; therefore, to keep well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the secretions and exerctions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and effect matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and astin. It effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs, invigorates the nervous system, tones the digestive organs, and imparts new life and energy to all the functions of the body. A peculiarity of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it strengthens and builds up the system while it eradicates disease.

Caused by a Ppider Bite.

Caused by a Ppider Bite. "Seven years ago, while my little boy was playing in the yard, he was bitten by a spider. The poison entered his blood, and sores soon broke out about his body; they itched terribly and caused him intense suffering. Feveral times we succeeded in healing the sores up, but in apite of all we could do they would soon break out again. Finally we tried Hood's Sarssparille, and he took one bottle and one-third of another, when the sores disappeared. He has not a sore spot on him now, and I consider him perfectly cured." Wm. H. B. The wonderful efficacy of Swift's Specific as a remedy and cure for rheumatism and all blood diseases, has never had a more conspicuous illustration than this case affor's. The candid, unsolicited and emphatic testimony given by the venerable gentleman must be accepted as convincing and conclusive. The writer is a prominent citizen of Mississippi. The gentleman to whom Mr. Martin refers, and to whom he is indebted for the advice to which he owes his final relief from years of suffering, is Mr. King, for many years the popular night clerk of the Lawrence House, at Jackson.
