CHARGED WITH LARCENT. A Man Who Tries to Get Away With

Cow and Calf Jacob Heney was arrested at Landis Valley yesterday by Officers Barnhold and so, on the charge of steating a cow and a calf, the property of Samuel Ludwig, of Chester county. Ludwig is a drover and for conser county. Ludwig is a drover and for some time past had been purchasing cows in the neighborhood of Nefisville. On Monday night he placed a number of cows and calves in a lot at Grube's hotel in that village. About two o'clock the next morning Michael Becker, the health here. the hostler, heard a noise among the cattle. He went to the lot and found Heney in the act of tying the legs of a calf, which he was about to put in his burgy near by. One of the cows was missing and she was found at the farm of A. M. Hoover, at Fruitville, where she had been purchased by Mr. Ludwig. The supeition is that Heney either drove the cow ible for her to get out of the field, and the fences were all up when the hostler made the discovery. Heney, who is a butcher by occupation, was committed for a hearing by

THE REW MAILEUAD. One Will be Built Connecting Quarryville With

King's Bridge. The committee of Lancaster ho went to Philadelphia to confer with Reading railroad officials as to the feasibility of building a road from Quarryville to King' Bridge, a distance of eight miles, had a very ole interview with General Manager A. A. McLeod, in Philadelphia, on Wednesday. Mr. McLeod heard the arguments in favor of the road, and they struck him with favor. He referred the whole matter to Chief Engier Nichols, of the Reading road, who will at some future time make a personal investion. It is probable that an organization for the building of the road will be formed soon among the people in this vicinity intersated, and when this is done, the Reading & Columbia road will probably take hold of

This new road will be of vast service to Lancaster, as it will bring into direct communication with this city the trade of Cole raine, Fulton, Little Britain and Drumore townships, which now have an outlet only by Oxford and Baltimore.

Two Unfortunate Indians. Harry Raven and Kies Siouxman, Indians, of the Carlisle Industrial school, who for some months past have been working in Bucks county, the former with Wallace Pax ton and the latter with Wm. Akens, were charged a few days ago and started to go back to the Carlinle school. They were caught in the " washout " at Coatesville or day and not having much money, and not being acquainted with railroad rules, they bought tickets as far as Leaman Piace, and having no money left walked on to Lancaster, where Harry Raven wrote to Captain Pratt, superintendent of the Carlisie school, telling him of the trouble they were in. This afternoon Captain Pratt tele graphed to the chief of police to hold them and he would send an agent for them to orrow morning. They are lusty boys, full grown, quite intelligent and speak English Accident to a Heavy Wagon. This forencen a large dray of the Reading freight depot, which was heavily loaded with arble, lost a burr from the axle on North on street near Chestnut. The wheel cam off in front of the postoffice, and when the burr was found it was sometime before everything was straightened out, although no damage was done. The wheel came off when the dray was on the Millersville car track. The driver of the car pulled his horses ide and drew the car around the wagon over the belgian blocks, giving the passengers a simost as well as the whites.

This morning before Alderman McCon-omy, Moses Pieso made complaint of mail-cious trespess against James Myers. Last evening Myers entered the yard attached to Mr. Picco's dwelling house, shot his dog, and insuited Mrs. Picco, badly frightening her. Myers states in excuse for his conduct that Picco's dog had bitten one of his children. The time for hearing the case has not yet han first.

ARRESTED IN YORK COURTY. Borse Thief Abandons a Team and

The man who stole the team of H. Holtz-house, liveryman of Lititz, has been arrested and the property recovered. Office Wittick, of Columbia, and Special Officer Pat Burns. of this city, effected the capture. When it became known that the team had been taken these officers went to work on the case. They found that the name of the man who hired the team was J. Anthony Emmenheiser, of Prospect, York county. After leaving Little he drove to Coumbia. He left the horse and buggy at Hauck's saloon, on Union street, where the officers ound it and returned it to the owner. Emmenheiser was then traced to Washington perough, to which town he had walked from Columbia. He hired a cance there and rowed scross the Susquehanna to the York county side. He walked from the river to Prospe a distance of five or six miles. The officer ollowed up the trail, and yesterday after noon arrested Emmenheiser at the home of his parents in Prospect. He was taken to Columbia and 'Squire Evans committed him to iail.

Emmenhelser is a young man of more than ordinary intelligence and he is said to be a graduate of Millersville normal school. At present he is engaged writing a book. He is a cigarmaker by trade and had been working at Littiz. He has been in numerous scrapes of this kind before. He is the same person who stole a horse from J. Herr, Manor, which hetook to Columbia and sold to Fam'i Camp. beli, liveryman, for $65. A few months ago he stole another from his uncle in York county and he is charged by Frank Neisley with obtaining money from him under false pretense. Alderman Spurrier has lodged a detainer with the officers of the jail for Em helser, to hold him for stealing Mr. Herr's horse and he will be given a hearing on next Wednesday.

THE SOUTHERN MARKET.

The Report of the Committee on Sites - A Com mittee on Purchase Approved. The parties interested in the erection of uthern market met at Daniel M. Moore's Swan hotel, Wednesday evening, to receive the report of the committee on sites.

The committee reported that the Lamb hotel and the adjoining property known as the Fourth ward hotel could be bought for about $25,000. The Effinger property and the adjoining property of E. O. Henry could be bought for $32,000. The Odd Fellows hall property could be bought for $10,000. The purchase of Joseph Wacker's Swar hotel property was not considered, as Miss Cassidy and Mrs. Kurtz, who own the properties adjoining on the south, refuse to sell and a right of way owned by them through Mr. Wacker's property renders it untit for market purposes. The committee in their report made no recommendation of either o the above sites. The report of the committee was received, and after some discussion another committee consisting of the following named gentlemen was appointed: Julius Loeb, John Leibley, George Hasting, with instructions to receive in writing from the owners of the several properties above named, the lowest terms at which they will sell, and secure from them the refusal of the properties; and also to make an estimate of the probable cost of a market on each of the above sites, and report to an adjourned meet ing to be held at the Swan hotel on Saturday morning next at 9 o'clock.

THE COATRAVILLE WEECK. It incidentally Causes Delay in the Kemoval of the Hig Genesions Bridge.

COATESVILLE, July 28.—It has been widely stated that the icases resulting from the washout on the Pennsylvania railroad at Coatesville will aggregate $45,000. This is a gross exaggeration. The railroad company suffers most, and its damages will require an expenditure iscent field into which the 3 000 yards of earth was washed by the flood looked ruefully at the scene on Wednesday when he saw his growing crops buried. The trouble was due to the breaking of the breast of the Coates ville water works, the immense volume of water thus liberated descending upon the railroad tracks and washing away the embankment beneath. Trains are running as usual now over a temporary trestle work, but for six weeks to come these 150 feet of

The Town of Dillerville. Among the papers of the late James C. Car-penter has been unearthed a large handbill, printed by Hugh Maxwell in September 1835, for Adam Diller, by whom the town of Dillerville was laid out. The handbill contains a map of the town, which is laid out into 75 building lots, which are offered at $85 each, the choice of lots to be drawn for after all of them have been sold. Dillerville is described as " a beautiful situation for a town or place of business; the whole space be tween this town and the city of Lancaster, along the railroad, will within a short time be built up in one connected city." So thought Mr. Diller fifty-two years ago, but alas, the population of Dilierville is hardly as large to-day as it was then.

Runsway Accident.

Wednesday evening about 6 o'clock, as R. Carson McCully and George McCully were driving on East Chestnut street, the breech band of the harness tore and the wagon in which they were riding ran for-ward against the horse's legs, frightening him and causing him to run off, along Chest-nut from Lime to Prince, down which street he turned and upset the wagon in front of Dr. Yeagley's office, throwing both men beavily to the ground. They were bruised somewhat, but not seriously injured. The horse was caught after running a short distance further. Violating a City Ordinance C. S. Herr, furniture dealer at North Queen and Wainut atreets, was prosecuted some days ago for violating the city ordinance by blocking up the pavement with his goods.

This morning there was a hearing before Alderman Fordney who imposed a fine of $10 and costs.

Muhlenberg, of this city, has opened an office for the general practice of medicine at his handsome renodeled home No. 214 East Orange street. Dr. Muhlenberg, having had a number of years' experience in the hospitals and in private practice in Philadelphia, has but recently returned from a two years' sojourn abroad in the hospitals of Berlin, Vienna, Paris and London, where he had been giving special attention to professional work.

New Fire Alarm Boxes

Chief Vondersmith, of the fire department received to-day from Boston, Mass., three new non-interfering fire alarm boxes. One of them will be placed at the corner of East King and Duke; another at South Queen and Vine and the third at West Orange and Prince. The advantage of these boxes over those now in use s that even if the lever is pulled more than once there will be no interference with the stroke. The new boxes cost $125 each.

The Rote Brake.

A telegram from Robert M. Agnew states that a second trip from Chicago to New York with a full train equipped with the Rote automatic brake was as con cessful as the first trip. Thus far the Rote brake has proved itself to be more efficient than any other brake ever applied to a train of freight cars. There appears to be a great uture before it.
