

Table with columns for various items and prices, including 'THE WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER' and 'THE LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER'.

The Weekly Intelligencer. Published every Wednesday morning. Price 10 cents.

The Lancaster Intelligencer. Lancaster, Pa. August 1, 1887.

The Poor Directors and Dr. MacCreary. The poor directors have held a special meeting to consider the charges brought by this paper against the management of the hospital.

So long as the city is crowded and crowded every market day with produce and vendors of it there is need for additional shelter and accommodations for producers and patrons.

Some of our civil service reform friends are getting impatient. They are impatient because in the department of internal revenue at Washington they see radical Democratic and yet the figures show that the more Republicans are retained the more revenue is collected.

His essay on charity is interesting reading to men who have in mind his practical application of charitable principles.

Tuttle's Record. General J. B. Tuttle, the hot-headed commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, for the state of Iowa, is presented to the country by official reports on file at Washington as one of the perspiring patriots who made gain of his military position.

PERSONAL. REV. PETER A. GALLAGHER, of St. Patrick's Catholic church, Pottsville, died here on Saturday. He was highly respected, and his death has occasioned universal sorrow.

JOSEPH W. DREKEL, the New York banker, has written to Commander-in-Chief Sherman, offering him the services of his company, through him, to surviving Union soldiers of the late war, in perpetuity, the cottage on Mount McGregor in which Gen. Grant died.

Tuttle belongs to that wing of the Grand Army of the Republic which concerns itself far more about pensions, back pay and office-holding than about any patriotic principle or the historic memory of valorous deeds.

The French Duel. France and Frenchmen are wrapped up in such narrow egotism that, even should they happen to hear what the outer-bark-thinks of their dueling, no Anglo-American irony, no pungent ridicule, could penetrate their self-conceit.

Disappearance of a Wealthy Hermit. Rev. Thomas Edwards, pastor of a Welsh church in Pittsburgh, has mysteriously disappeared. He has lived the life of a hermit since the death of his wife, in 1877. He was wealthy but would allow of no relatives to visit him for fear they would ask for money.

of introducing this French fashion; our interest lies solely in the effect which this incident may have on French affairs. We must then take the French view of the matter and this view, we may rest assured, is a serious and respectful one.

Only last summer the English and American press was exhausting itself in ridicule of a Boulanger duel which came so near to Mark Twain's celebrated description of a French affair of honor, that Mr. Clemens must have been extremely flattered by the confirmation of his representations.

Who can say that this week may not bring forth a coup d'etat and carry the poing general to the pinnacle of his ambition, and who is ready to predict that in a few more days the Boulanger comet will vanish from the sky of European politics?

To-day the registers of the voters are hung in the polling places by the assessors of the districts and all voters should satisfy themselves that their names are properly registered therein. The assessors will sit on two days for the registration of voters, the last day being of days before the November elections and it would be well for all voters to give this matter prompt attention.

As long as the city is crowded and crowded every market day with produce and vendors of it there is need for additional shelter and accommodations for producers and patrons.

Some of our civil service reform friends are getting impatient. They are impatient because in the department of internal revenue at Washington they see radical Democratic and yet the figures show that the more Republicans are retained the more revenue is collected.

His essay on charity is interesting reading to men who have in mind his practical application of charitable principles.

Tuttle's Record. General J. B. Tuttle, the hot-headed commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, for the state of Iowa, is presented to the country by official reports on file at Washington as one of the perspiring patriots who made gain of his military position.

PERSONAL. REV. PETER A. GALLAGHER, of St. Patrick's Catholic church, Pottsville, died here on Saturday. He was highly respected, and his death has occasioned universal sorrow.

JOSEPH W. DREKEL, the New York banker, has written to Commander-in-Chief Sherman, offering him the services of his company, through him, to surviving Union soldiers of the late war, in perpetuity, the cottage on Mount McGregor in which Gen. Grant died.

Tuttle belongs to that wing of the Grand Army of the Republic which concerns itself far more about pensions, back pay and office-holding than about any patriotic principle or the historic memory of valorous deeds.

The French Duel. France and Frenchmen are wrapped up in such narrow egotism that, even should they happen to hear what the outer-bark-thinks of their dueling, no Anglo-American irony, no pungent ridicule, could penetrate their self-conceit.

Disappearance of a Wealthy Hermit. Rev. Thomas Edwards, pastor of a Welsh church in Pittsburgh, has mysteriously disappeared. He has lived the life of a hermit since the death of his wife, in 1877. He was wealthy but would allow of no relatives to visit him for fear they would ask for money.

Reasons Given by Rev. Johnson, a Colored Man, Who Declares It Not Worth His While to Emigrate. From the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Rev. C. A. Johnson, a colored clergyman from Hamilton, Ont., and who announces himself as the well-known professional, economical lecturer, philanthropist, literary and educational writer, editor, publisher and proprietor of the British Lion and American Eagle, delivered a scientific lecture in the Green Street hall, Allegheny, last evening.

As for himself he was thoroughly familiar with earthquakes and all manner of terrestrial and heavenly convulsions. It was not a few weeks ago that, on account of his scientific attainments, he was honored as no man has been honored in Canada before.

Mr. Johnson, however, had come to Pittsburgh to explain the causes of earthquakes and not to indulge in biographical reminiscences, and he was to mark the occasion with a few weeks at most Pittsburgh would be shaken by an earthquake to which the one that occurred here at Charleston would compare only as a mere atom to a sun.

Some of our civil service reform friends are getting impatient. They are impatient because in the department of internal revenue at Washington they see radical Democratic and yet the figures show that the more Republicans are retained the more revenue is collected.

His essay on charity is interesting reading to men who have in mind his practical application of charitable principles.

Tuttle's Record. General J. B. Tuttle, the hot-headed commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, for the state of Iowa, is presented to the country by official reports on file at Washington as one of the perspiring patriots who made gain of his military position.

PERSONAL. REV. PETER A. GALLAGHER, of St. Patrick's Catholic church, Pottsville, died here on Saturday. He was highly respected, and his death has occasioned universal sorrow.

JOSEPH W. DREKEL, the New York banker, has written to Commander-in-Chief Sherman, offering him the services of his company, through him, to surviving Union soldiers of the late war, in perpetuity, the cottage on Mount McGregor in which Gen. Grant died.

Tuttle belongs to that wing of the Grand Army of the Republic which concerns itself far more about pensions, back pay and office-holding than about any patriotic principle or the historic memory of valorous deeds.

The French Duel. France and Frenchmen are wrapped up in such narrow egotism that, even should they happen to hear what the outer-bark-thinks of their dueling, no Anglo-American irony, no pungent ridicule, could penetrate their self-conceit.

Disappearance of a Wealthy Hermit. Rev. Thomas Edwards, pastor of a Welsh church in Pittsburgh, has mysteriously disappeared. He has lived the life of a hermit since the death of his wife, in 1877. He was wealthy but would allow of no relatives to visit him for fear they would ask for money.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. COLIC, INDIGESTION, SOUR STOMACH, HEADACHE, BRUISES, SWELLINGS OR ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE LIVER.

DRY GOODS. J. B. GIVLER & CO. SILKS. EMBROIDERED PONGEE SILKS and Embroidered Trimmings to Match reduced to less than half price.

NEW YORK STORE. Summer Goods. WATT & SHAND, 6, 8 & 10 EAST KING ST., LANCASTER, PA.

Little Hop Pills. The People's Favorite Liver Pills. They act slowly but surely, do not grip and do not irritate.

ROCHESTER LAMP. Sixty Candle-Light; Burns them all. Another Lot of CHEAP GLOBES for gas and Oil.

John P. Schaum & Sons, 24 SOUTH QUEEN ST., LANCASTER, PA. SPECIAL NOTICE. Reflect, O Lord, of Creation, and his eye at once to KIEFFER & HERR'S, Flanne Shirts. "Economist" Vapor Cook Stoves.

"SPLENDID" PLUMBING, GAS FITTING, STEAM HEATING, TIN ROOFING AND REPUTING.

FOUR ROOMS. A Seven-Room Brick House situated on East Frederick street, April 1st, 1887.

PRIVATE SALE. Will be sold at private sale the valuable property corner Lemon Mulberry and Charlotte streets.

BAUMGARDNER'S COMPANY. COAL DEALERS. Office: No. 120 North Queen Street, and No. 64 North Prince Street.

Levan's Flour. THE BEST. H. Theis. LANCASTER, PA.

PHILIP DOERSOM'S. Carriage Works---Nos. 126 and 128 East King St. The Largest Assortment of NEW AND REBUILT HAND BUGGIES, Carriages, Phaetons, Market Business Wagons that has ever been shown to the Public.

Philip Doersom's Old Reliable Carriage Works, NOS. 126 AND 128 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA. WINE AND LIQUORS. PURE RYE WHISKY.

Old Groff Spring Distillery. Situated on East Orange street, between Orange and Chestnut, one square east of reservoir.

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE. BOUCHE SEC. IPER HEIDELBERG, FOMMEY SEC, MOUZET SEC.

H. E. Slaymaker, Agt., No. 29 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA. CALL US BY TELEPHONE.

FLINN & BRENNEMAN. CARD! We have a number of Goods which are just in season, and which, owing to our giving special attention, we can offer great inducements.

FLINN & BRENNEMAN, No. 152 North Queen Street. WATCHES, CLOCKS, CHAINS AND JEWELRY.

CHARLES S. GILL. LATEST DESIGNS. SILVER JEWELRY! No. 10 WEST KING STREET.

NEW SPRING NECKTIES. There is no garment concerning the fit of which more particular than a shirt.

J. B. Martin & Co., No. West King & Prince Sts., LANCASTER, PA.

WILLIAMSON & FOSTER, 32, 34, 36 and 38 East King St., LANCASTER, PA. IMPROVED CUSHIONED EAR DRUMS. CURE FOR THE DEAF.

PHILIP DOERSOM'S. Carriage Works---Nos. 126 and 128 East King St. The Largest Assortment of NEW AND REBUILT HAND BUGGIES, Carriages, Phaetons, Market Business Wagons that has ever been shown to the Public.

Philip Doersom's Old Reliable Carriage Works, NOS. 126 AND 128 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA. WINE AND LIQUORS. PURE RYE WHISKY.

Old Groff Spring Distillery. Situated on East Orange street, between Orange and Chestnut, one square east of reservoir.

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE. BOUCHE SEC. IPER HEIDELBERG, FOMMEY SEC, MOUZET SEC.

H. E. Slaymaker, Agt., No. 29 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA. CALL US BY TELEPHONE.

FLINN & BRENNEMAN. CARD! We have a number of Goods which are just in season, and which, owing to our giving special attention, we can offer great inducements.

FLINN & BRENNEMAN, No. 152 North Queen Street. WATCHES, CLOCKS, CHAINS AND JEWELRY.

CHARLES S. GILL. LATEST DESIGNS. SILVER JEWELRY! No. 10 WEST KING STREET.

NEW SPRING NECKTIES. There is no garment concerning the fit of which more particular than a shirt.

J. B. Martin & Co., No. West King & Prince Sts., LANCASTER, PA.

WILLIAMSON & FOSTER, 32, 34, 36 and 38 East King St., LANCASTER, PA. IMPROVED CUSHIONED EAR DRUMS. CURE FOR THE DEAF.