School Board Hosts. A special meeting of school board was beid last evening at the residence of Dr. W. G. Taylor with all present but Mr. Templa. The object was to close the tax duplicate of 1885 and to consider the matter of opening Observy street from Lancaster avenue to Eighth street and Sixth street north of Old Considery read, belower Lancaster avenue to tery road, between Locust and Cherry a. Mesers. Urban, Allison and Fasig rere appointed a committee to meet the iewers on Friday, August 5, at 10 s. m.

The bond of S. H. Boyd, collector of 1885 was returned and the tax duplicate closed the board exonerating him from $634.22 tas on single men and tenants. Secretary May was ordered to notify Collector Duttenho to settle his duplicate of 1886 by August 17, and to file his bond for the collection of 1887 and on August 17. Adjourned.

A Boy Minteg. Henry Taylor, aged 13 years, a son of Edward Taylor, colored, has been missing from his home sincelast Thursday. The boy wore a light brown shirt, pair of pantaloons nes. The boy had a scalded mark on his scales over his laft eye. His tather is very sious to learn of his whereabouts. The family of Dr. W. G. Taylor left town this morning for a visit to Atlantic City. A party of Lancaster ladies were in town this morning on their way to York Furnace, and spent the time between the trains in ex laing the new Episcopal church.

Jacob G. Miller, Employed by Mentzer & Hol linger, Embezzies 8700 or 8800 and Decampo

Jacob G. Miller, a traveling salesman for Monster & Hollinger, wholesale grocers, North Prince street, has been detected in mbessing money from his employers, and ment has not yet been fully secortained, but at present it appears to be from $700 to $900. His mode of embezzlement was tlect moneys due the tirm, give receipts tor the same, and make return of only a part of the amounts collected, telling his em-ployers that their debtors were "short," or making some other plausible excuse. His ments have run through a considerable period of time, but it was not until last Saturday that they were discovered. A check for $00 given to Miller by one of Mentz-er & Hollinger's customers is held by him, but payment has been stopped. The last seen of Miller so far as known was on Monday last, when he was in Colum ble. He is a young man, not 25 years old, and is respectably connected. He leaves young wile and two young children, at his bome, 533 West Wainut street. His wile, who is a daughter of Jacob Griel, is almost heart-broken at the disappearance of her husband, and the disgrace which appears to attach to his name. For some time past Millor has been drinking heavily.

Licensed Vehicles

Up to noon to day the mayor had issued 403 licenses to one-horse vehicles, 46 to two horse vehicles ; 3 to four-horse vehicles ; 14 to cabs ; 29 to carts, and 14 to local delivery

There seems to be a difference of opinion in nome quarters as to whether or not the ordinance taxing vehicles imposes a tax on piessure carriages and other private convey-"The city treasurer shall keep a book in his office for the purpose, wherein he shall register all vehicles and street cars licensed under this act; and all vehicles used on the streets of this city (except those kept for private use) shall be numbered Chaplain Swank says that he never naw anything to complain of at the hospital. Well, uously on the right hand side thereof," &c. It is claimed by some that this clause exempts private carriages from the tax of one dollar imposed by the ordi-nance on "other vehicles," and on the other sick pleading for food and nourisbment; I have seen the helpless lying in their own filth, both in bed and upon the floor, and heard them say that "no one hand it is claimed that it only exempts them from being "numbered conspicuously." This question came up in select council when the ordinance was under discussion, and it was distinctly understood that private carriages were not exempt from the $1 tax, but only from being numbered. The city au-thorities are acting on this construction of the law, and will require owners of private ve-hicles to pay the tax.

with woolen blankets in July in order to keep the swfirms of flies from pestering them. I have seen men wrangling over their cards on the Sabbath day, while those about them were dying, and I have seen the bodies of deat shame ully treated. I have plead for better treatment for those people time and again, and now trust that the day of better things for those poor unfortunates has dawned. And now with the con-sciousness of having done only my Chris-tian duly in this whole matter, I discuss the The Hailroad to New Holland. A meeting of the citizens of New Holland avorable to the construction of a railroad from Cornwall to New Holland was held at the fiture house on Translations from Cornwail to New Holland was held at the Siyer house on Tuesday evening and was attended by the leading citizens of the village and vicinity. A. W. Snader, George H. Ranck and E. C. Diller, New Holland's com. mittee to wait on Robert H. Coleman, presi-dent of the Cornwail & Lebanon railrond, reported that they had a very mitiateotory interview with Mr. Coleman. The commit-tee was continued and empowered to add to their number whenever they deem it neces-mary. They were instructed to use every effort to forward the building of the read. tian duty in this whole matter, I dismiss the subject from further consideration "with malice towards none and charity for all" by producing the following testimonial this investigation began : LANCASTER, Pa., July 23, 1887. This is to certily that the bears of this letter, Brother A. C. Leonard, is a good Christian man and a good worker in the cause of the Master in his calling as temper-ance lecturer or anywhere you want to use him; as such we take pleasure in recommend-ing him to all with whom he may meet, Very truly, REV. J. W. SWANK, Chaptain County Prison. Many thanks for the use of so much of your valuable space. Very respectfully, A. U. LEONARD.

Deing Good Masiases. Vistoria Lofius' specially company showed to another good-sized audience in the Grand opera house last evening. The power lans were in operation, and made the piace cool and comfortable. There was no change in the programme of the opening night; the principal actors and actreases did their work well, and the auditors rewarded them for it by appleuding liberally.

Heavy For His Age. Bome time ago Henry Musser, of Ephrata, bought and fattened a Luncaster county mised Durham steer, and a few days ago sid him to Hiram Nasing, butcher, at Sphrata, who sisughtered him. The steer wa 35 months old, and weighed 1,420 pounds.

scarcely another man ventured near the still willing to do very readily with no other hope of reward than the feeble " Thauk you -come again, please," of the dying inmates. Instead, then, of selfish motives on my part or aspiring to displace Mr. Swank as he endeavors to make appear, I have at all times aided him by all the means in my power, and the only incident that might be con-strued into a willingness on my part to dis-place him was a few words that passed be-tween myself and an attaches of the New Era, just after Mr. Swank was last elected to his position in January of this year. Meet-ing said gentleman in Centre Square he called out to me, "why, I thought that you would have been a candidate for Swank's place this year," to which I answered, "no I am not a candidate, I am no preacher." When he replied "That don't matter, you are just the man for the place and I want to see about that next year." I answered that if "I was named and elected I would serve." I have repeatedly been urged to become an applicant, but have as often refused the use of my name so long as Mr. Swank desired the place which I would only have accepted in any event as a matter of duty to those who need such service as I could render them and not for the sake of the small salary of
