Dr. A. N. Hiestand, of Norfolk, Va., is the guest of his brother, B. F. Hiestand. Miss Annie Paugh, of Burlington, N. J., is visiting Miss Mary Mohafey.

Rev. C. C. Hays, of Bridgeport, Ohio, was visiting Rev. D. M. Hickman. Ella Taggart, of Chicago, is visiting friends in town.

H. B. Cassel and W. H. Buller are engaged at York Furnace with the Algonquin. Our citizens had the novel sight of seeing a blind man taking a drunken man home the other day.

The school board met Monday evening and selected the "Orion" desk to furnish two schools. It was decided to open the schools on Sept. 12th.

The Maytown hack was waiting at the postoffice for the change of mail the other evening it contained several beer kegs, two ladies and a gentleman. The bung of one of the kegs was blown out with great force against the top of the back and the occupants were enveloped in a shower of beer for a few minutes.

Horace M. Engle, the scientist, electrician, etc., of the west end, while applying some of the newly-discovered theoretical principles of marine navigation to propelling a canvas canoe, was sent to the bottom of the Susquehanna with his canoe on top of him. Luckily, however, the water was not deep.

Over seven hundred went to Mt. Gretna on the excursion Tuesday. There will be another next Wednesday. John Heistand, a former resident of this place, and brother of Theophilus, died Sunday in Camden, N. J.

The Trout Run Camping club has returned from its encampment near the river. The members all enjoyed themselves. Dick, a dog that belonged to Amos Stapleford, landlady of the St. John hotel, has died.

The afternoon Sunday school picnic at Mram's woods, on the Mt. Joy turnpike, yesterday. Edward H. Weaver, ex., and Miss Ella Dougherty, of Gettysburg, are visiting Dr. Mowery.

Miss Martha Breneman, of Frederick, Md., is the guest of Mrs. D. G. Engle. Miss Annie Sweeney, of Columbia, Pa., is on a visit to Miss J. D. Smith.

Dr. James H. Brown, of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of Calvin Schaffner. MARIETTA, Aug. 5.—Levi Scholtz, aged 7 years, son of Henry Scholtz, was drowned in John Smith's tank, for damages and disorderly conduct. The fellow approached Mr. Joseph Tyson, whom he abused in an ugly manner.

Squire Evans sent him to jail for thirty days. A young son of Samuel Crawford, day boy, paddler of the Stearns' rolling mill, was playing at the mill yesterday afternoon when he struck his left knee against some iron. The knee was very much swollen and painfully hurt.

The boy was taken to his home and medical attention given him. Supervisor Behner and workmen are engaged in taking down the grade of Third street, near Cherry, about one foot. The drainage of the street is not very good, and many cellars were filled with water during the late rains.

Some excitement was caused on Locust street this morning by a pet dog, belonging to Mrs. J. H. Young, having several fits. The dog got so bad that Mr. Young was compelled to shoot the animal.

The Shawnee fire company last evening contracted with the Europa Hose company of New York, for 400 feet of linen hose, with screw coupling. THE LAST HOUR OF CARE. Rev. Garbutt Reed, of Mt. Nebo, preached the farewell sermon.

LANDISVILLE, Aug. 5.—At 10 o'clock yesterday the Rev. J. J. Leitz, of Leiswburg, preached to a large audience, taking as text from John 7, 16, "Jesus answered them and said my doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me." After the sermon a service of prayer was held.

At 12 o'clock the children's meeting was held at which Rev. Chas. Reed, of Leiswburg, preached to a large audience. During the meeting Miss Amanda Landis, of Lancaster, recited a most touching selection entitled "The Last Hymn." This was followed by a farewell address by Bro. Fisher, of Bryn Mawr.

A few stinging songs, Rev. Roads and Prof. Kirkpatrick led the children in a march. After marching and singing some of their most beautiful songs, they passed before the ministers and others and bid each other farewell.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper and baptismal service was held. The farewell sermon was preached by Rev. Garbutt Reed, of Mt. Nebo, after which the audience marched about the grounds singing beautiful hymns.

THE LANCASTER COUNTY WALTHS. The return made to the State Treasurer by the Commissioners. The money on interest and furniture in use in Lancaster county for the three months ending July 31, 1887, is $23,555.51.

THE COMMISSIONERS DECIDED TO MAKE A RETURN OF WATCHES, FURNITURE AND PLEASURE CARRIAGES. The total valuation of carriage was set at one per cent. tax is $42,928. Of these class watches, 1,041; second class, 743; third class, 257. These totals show that the tax due the State for this county for 1887 will be a few hundred dollars less than in 1886 when it aggregated over $50,000.

A Beautiful Flower. There was on exhibition last night at the residence of Squire Inman, at the East end, a moon flower. The flower is quite a new thing in this section, and its name will imply only opens at night, or on damp, cloudy days. It is pure white in color, and very fragrant. The plant is a species of the clematis and is used for trellises; it attains a height of fifty feet in a season, but will not bloom until the middle of the winter; at that time making a pretty showy plant at that season of the year. It is indeed a beautiful sight when covered with its star-shaped flowers of snowy whiteness surrounded by the green leaves, on such a clear, moon-light night. There are about dozen or so in and around the city.

Programme of Exercises. The celebration of the centennial of the Moravian church, with its place Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 13th and 14th, promises to be an interesting and imposing event. Following is the programme of exercises: First day—Introductory services at 10 a. m. by Rev. J. J. Leitz, of Leiswburg. At 2 p. m. religious instruction by Rev. E. C. Schaeffer, sermon by Rev. E. T.
